RUSH TO DEWEY PUTS TAMMANY BACKS TO WALL

Given Good Chance in Honest Poll.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Republican Nominee Thomas E. Dewey, young, hard hitting rackets prosecutor, has an excellent chance of being elected governor next Tuesday if the Tammany Hall bosses and their underworld allies do not steal it from him in fraudulent voting at the polls.

Thomas E. Dewey.
[A. P. Wirephoto.]

This became apparent here in New York City today as the Democratic machine politicians prepared to throw every punch they have—below the belt or not—into the fight to keep control of the state from passing into the hands of the Republicans for the first time in sixteen years.

The race between Dewey and Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, who is running for his fourth term, is extremely close, too close for the comfort of Tammany. Upstate New York will give Dewey a record breaking plurality of around a half million votes over the governor. The machine must cancel that lead in the big city and go beyond it or bow in defeat.

Report Indictments Coming.

It was learned late today that Dewey's office is conducting an investigation of registration frauds in New York county over which it has jurisdiction and is on the verge of obtaining "scores" of indictments. Dewey admitted to newspaper men covering his campaign that the inquiry was being carried on.

Dewey pointed out that under the state Democratic régime he and the attorney general both were charged with the responsibility of prosecuting vote frauds. He said that the attorney general, John J. Bennett Jr., had not been overly vigorous on this score.

Straws Record Close Race.

The latest New York Daily News state-wide straw vote poll gives Lehman the slightest of leads, 50.2 per cent of the straws compared with 49.8 for Dewey. Yesterday the comparative standings were reversed. Another newspaper poll gives Lehman 63.8 per cent of the vote in greater New York City, compared with the 67.3 per cent he received in 1936. Still another poll indicates the issue is so close that "shifting" voters may decide it.

Observers after studying the polls said that the race was being so hotly contested that the result may hinge on returns from a handful of counties or in getting the vote out to the polls in the right places.

Governor's Power Cited.

Dewey is district attorney of New York county, one of the five boroughs which make up New York City. As governor of the state, he would have the power to remove corrupt prosecutors and other public officials in all 62 counties of the state. This is a function which Lehman has allowed to atrophy.

For example, Dewey, on Jan. 1, could remove District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan of Brooklyn, Democratic party wheelhorse who has suffered scandal after scandal in his office. Lehman allowed Geoghan to remain in office and ordered a special investigation which will not show any results until after the election. Brooklyn is the most heavily populated borough of New York City and the Democratic organization expects to roll up a 350,000 vote lead for Lehman there.

Fraud Charges Lodged.

The importance of the fraudulent vote in next Tuesday's contest was brought out sharply today when officials of the Honest Ballot association, a nonpartisan group, estimated there were 50,000 fraudulent registrations in New York City. The organization is preparing to issue warrants for the arrest of 500 false registrants.

It was learned that the unlawful registrations were most prevalent in the districts over which Tammany Leaders James J. ["Jimmy"] Hines and Al Marinelli hold sway.

"Jimmy" Hines was the defendant

YOUNG HUSBAND SHOT ON PORCH; ATTACKERS FLEE

Wife Sees Murderer and Hears Shot.

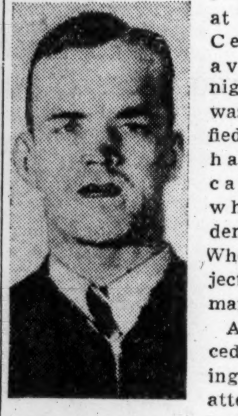
Donald Warden, a railroad electrician, was shot and killed on the front porch of his home at 1143 South Central Park avenue last night. His slayer was an unidentified motorist who had parked his car with one wheel on Warden's front lawn. When Warden objected to this the man shot him.



Donald Warden.

A fist fight preceded the shooting. Warden had attempted single handed to battle three men. As the uneven fight ended a fourth man, who had kept out of the brawl, stepped up. He challenged Warden to fight, and as Warden approached him, shot him. The bullet pierced the right side of his chest.

Wife Sees Killer Aim Gun.

A graphic story of the killing was obtained by Lieut. Joseph Ronan of the Fillmore street police station from half a dozen witnesses, including Warden's young widow, Mrs. Annette Good Warden, 27 years old. She saw the killer aim his gun at her husband, but did not see the actual shooting. A mother and daughter saw the shooting, and a little girl 14 years old was so close to it that the murderer struck her down in his escape.

Mrs. Warden's story revealed that her husband, who was 27 years old and one time a boxer, had a standing feud with automobile drivers who blocked the front of his home, and often parked their cars on the front curbing and lawn.

"Donald was listening to the radio," said Mrs. Warden, "when he saw an automobile park in front of the house with one of its wheels on the curb and lawn. He went outside. The people who were in the car—three or four—had left, so Donald sat on the porch and waited for them.

Runs to Telephone Police.

"A few minutes later I heard some one knocking on the front door. I opened the door and saw Donald there and a man at the bottom of the porch pointing a gun at him. I shut the door and ran to telephone police. Then I heard a shot."

What happened between the time Warden went out to wait for the car's occupants and the time he was shot was told by Abe Litberg of 3500 Lexington street, Mrs. Anna Krinik and her daughter Sarah of 3664 Grenshaw street, and Elaine Deek, 14 years old, of 3553 Douglas boulevard. Litberg works at the gasoline station at 1147 South Central Park, just to the south of the Warden apartment. He knew Warden.

"I saw Warden run onto our filling station lot, chased by a man," said Litberg. "Warden tried to grab a nozzle from a gasoline pump, but I yelled to him not to do that because he'd break it. He dropped it then and ran back toward his home, still chased by the man. Then I heard a shot. I ran up and found Warden dead. I notified his wife."

Blast Damages Nazi Vessel in Frisco Harbor

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—A mysterious explosion ripped open the German steamship Vancouver today, causing its beaching in the Oakland estuary, which leads into San Francisco bay. Four members of the crew were injured.

Sailors on boats near by said they believed a bomb caused the terrific blast, which was heard for miles. A telephone call to the Oakland Tribune gave credence to this theory.

"Do you want some good news?" a man who refused to identify himself asked the newspaper's city editor. "A bomb just went off on a German ship."

Then, shortly after he hung up, the roar of the explosion confirmed his advance information.

Suspicious, Says Captain.

Officers and crew members of the Vancouver were reluctant to discuss the explosion. However, Capt. E. W. Moessinger, master of the vessel, said: "This looks damned suspicious."

Chief Engineer C. Diederich reported the blast blew a hole four feet square in the side of the ship, with the force of the exploson pushing the plates inward. This indicated an external cause, supporting the bombing theory.

The stern of the steamer was submerged, but the ship remained afloat until beached. Had the explosion occurred a few minutes later, it was said, the vessel would have reached deep water and undoubtedly would have sunk in the bay.

Crew of 54 Aboard.

Aboard the ship at the time of the blast were seven passengers and a crew of fifty-four. The boat had taken on a cargo of canned goods at Oakland and was on its way to San Francisco, where thirty more passengers were waiting to board. It was then to have left for Antwerp by way of the Panama Canal.

Two of the injured crew members were identified as Ivan Maranocsky of Hamburg, fourth assistant engineer, and Albert Jungling of Hamburg, fireman.

The 477 foot Vancouver is a freighter of 5,108 net tons. Like most of the Pacific freight ships it carries passengers.

Investigations into the explosion were being made tonight by local and federal authorities.

STORY OF THE BIRDS AND THE BEES BARRED TO NEW YORK PUPILS

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The age-old subject of the birds, bees, and flowers and their home life was withheld from New York's junior high school pupils today when two school boards disagreed on how much they should be told about the facts of life. The board of superintendents drew up a science curriculum which provided that the secret of mammalian reproduction should be let out of the bag no earlier than senior high school. The board of education, composed of laymen, rejected the program,

A FALSE ALARM PUTS HERO BACK IN BAD BOY CLASS

Jiggs Jones, Aurora's bad boy who became a hero last August when he saved a woman from drowning, fell from grace again yesterday.

Jiggs' weakness for years has been fire engines. He likes to see them run and hear the sirens and gongs. He has been blamed for many false alarms.

He became a hero last August when he called the fire department and reported a woman had leaped off the Main street bridge. When the firemen arrived Jiggs was dragging her from the water. He was rewarded with a job sweeping out the city hall.

Then, early yesterday, the fire department got an alarm from the city hall. But there wasn't any fire. The alarm was traced to the clerk's office. Jiggs was there. He was arrested.

They said the couple, after moving about between Versailles, the Riviera, and Paris, had rented for two years a three story house on Boulevard Suchet, facing the Bois de Boulogne.

A Granddaddy Named Wally Leaps 10 Feet

For four years the big southern wallaroo from Australia had been one of the least troublesome kangaroos in their inclosure at the Brookfield zoo. Timid, like most of his fellows, Wally never stepped out of line.

Perhaps it was the unusually warm November weather. Or maybe Wally wanted to show the younger boomers, the females, and the little joeys that an old granddaddy kangaroo still had a few tricks left, even at 7 years.

One of the keepers was watching, so he knows that Wally really showed the others. Wally started loping across the kangaroo yard in the north end of the zoo grounds.

The inclosure slopes down hill. At the bottom is a concrete wall, more than six feet high. Stretched along the top of this dry moat are half a dozen steel cables.

He's Up and Away.

Coming down the slight hill, Wally picked up speed. With a practiced eye he gauged his distance. And a few feet from the bottom, Wally made his bid for fame. With a mighty boom of his powerful hind legs he sailed cleanly and gracefully over the wall and the cables.

Wally was free. The keeper's eyes popped in amazement, for the old boomer, as Australians call a male kangaroo, had just leaped ten feet.

Quickly the keeper called the administration building, sounding an alarm. Kangaroos, vegetarians by choice, are not dangerous, but the zoo certainly did not want to lose one of its best specimens.

Director Edward Bean rounded up a crew of a dozen men. For two hours they chased Wally with large butterfly nets around the zoo grounds. Every time they thought they had him cornered Wally would leap over their heads.

And Still Going Strong!

In the southwest corner of the park Wally found an opening at the Salt creek bridge of the suburban street car line. He loped outside, with the posse on his trail.

Two blocks away, on 1st avenue, near the Riverside-Brookfield High school, the old granddaddy kangaroo met his match in Director Bean, young and vigorous at 60. Mr. Bean launched a flying tackle worthy of a football full back and brought Wally to earth, holding him by a leg and forepaw until a keeper arrived.

No.1 Red Talks Tonight; Who Sponsors Him?

The question of who is responsible for communist activity in the Illinois election campaign remained unanswered yesterday as the city's Reds prepared for a massmeeting tonight in the Chicago Stadium.

Even Red Leader Earl Browder, who will address the meeting, sidestepped the issue yesterday in a telephone conversation from New York. He insisted that his talk will be along international lines. But he admitted that he will take cognizance of the Illinois situation because he has been pressed to do so by members of his own party.

Charges Reds Back Lucas.

The question: "Who is bringing Browder to Chicago?" became a dominant issue in the campaign on Wednesday as the result of charges by Richard J. Lyons, Republican nominee for the United States senate, that the communists are throwing their support to Scott W. Lucas, his Democratic opponent.

Lyons' charges were denied vigorously by Lucas and even by Gov. Horner and Mayor Kelly. The governor went so far as to suggest that Red interference in the campaign was calculated to aid Lyons.

It was then that Rev. John Thompson, pastor of the skyscraper Chicago Temple in the loop, and civic leader, put the question that stirred both political parties: "Who is bringing Browder here?" Dr. Thompson suggested that the answer may be found in Browder's remarks at the mass meeting tonight.

Enjoys Uproar Over Visit.

Reached by phone in New York, Browder appeared to be enjoying the uproar his scheduled visit has caused in Illinois. He chuckled several times as he parried questions. Once he laughed loudly.

"Why are you coming to Illinois?" he was asked.

"Who is bringing you here?"

"The communist party."

"You know that your senatorial candidate [Morris Childs, whose name was barred from the ballot] hasn't a chance of being elected. Who are you here to help?"

"I will urge that Childs be given as large a vote as possible. This will help the communist party."

"Knowing that Childs will not be elected, whom will you recommend for the support of your people?"

Will discuss Illinois Issue.

"My address will be largely along international lines and the future of the party. I will take some cognizance of the Illinois situation, as I have been pressed to do by members of the party there."

The communist daily paper in Chicago has repeatedly advocated that Roosevelt candidates be elected 100 per cent. In yesterday's issue, the

QUIZ UNCOVERS MISUSE OF CASH BY NEW DEALERS

Cook County Job Scandal Aired.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Flagrant misuse of federal funds to pad the Illinois state highway department pay roll in Cook county during the Democratic primary last spring was reported today by the senate campaign expenditures committee.

In the same report, the committee, which is dominated by Democrats, disclosed further sensational evidence of the political prostitution of WPA relief work by New Deal candidates in Pennsylvania in the present campaign.

The committee, headed by Senator Morris Sheppard [D., Tex.], accused the Pennsylvania group of political terrorism, coercion, and WPA bribery to secure Democratic votes in the Nov. 8 election.

Illinois Charges Substantiated.

The Sheppard committee disclosures on Illinois substantiate in detail identical charges made last Thursday by the district attorney's office in Chicago against Gov. Henry Horner's faction in the April primary.

The evidence revealed at that time by First Assistant District Attorney Warran Canaday is before his superior, District Attorney Michael L. Igoe, for consideration. If the facts warant, Canaday said then, indictments will be sought from the grand jury for misusing federal funds or for mail fraud.

Igoe was defeated for the Democratic senatorial nomination by Gov. Horner's candidate, Congressman Scott W. Lucas. The Sheppard report said the committee still is investigating charges of excessive expenditures by the Horner-Courtney-Lucas ticket.

450 Put on Pay Roll.

In connection with the pay roll padding the committee said that 450 men were suddenly hired by district 10 [Cook county] of the highway department on March 21 ostensibly for road construction. Most of them, the committee found, were dismissed the day after the primary.

"Out of this group," the senate report said, "seventy men did no highway work at all during this period but had been instructed, when reporting for work, to go back to their respective precincts and canvass them in behalf of the Horner-Courtney-Lucas ticket.

"While these men [the 450] were hired primarily for road construction, it was ascertained that merely 'landscaping' work had been done, such as sweeping the shoulders of roads and so forth. All of the 450 worked in their precincts and wards for the Horner-Courtney-Lucas ticket.

$23,268 Spent on Jobs.

"The sum expended in this work totaled $23,268.10, part of which was federal aid road funds. It was further learned that all of the men so hired had their respective work cards either signed or initialed by Charles Schwartz, northern campaign manager for the Horner-Courtney-Lucas ticket."

Last week Assistant District Attorney Canaday reported that his office was interested because federal road aid money had gone into the fund from which the men were paid.

He also announced that their vouchers were signed by F. Lynden Smith, state director of public works. In the spring primary Smith was also the Horner downstate campaign manager.

Rolls Loaded in Pennsylvania.

Turning to Pennsylvania, the Sheppard committee disclosed it had found New Deal politicians temporarily loading the state highway and WPA rolls with employés to serve only until Tuesday's election.

Pennsylvania New Dealers, with their vast patronage machine, are supporting Gov. George H. Earle for the senate and Charles Alvin Jones to succeed Earle.

To aid this ticket, the committee found, high school children, under 17 years of age, were being placed on the highway and WPA pay rolls. They cannot vote, but their parents can.

In a letter to the committee Oct. 24 Williams said he had investigated Davis' charges and found that they contained "not a scintilla of truth."

The reply of the Sheppard committee charged, in effect, that at the time he wrote the letter Williams knew that the corruption charged by Senator Davis actually existed.

"So far as the charges of Senator Davis relating to political activities in Luzerne county, Pa., are concerned," the committee report said, "the investigators presented the sworn statement of Harry J. Williams, branch manager, WPA branch, No. 2, at Wilkes-Barre.

Solicitations Are Described.

"This statement asserted that the investigation mentioned as having been made at the direction of Aubrey Williams was made by the officials and employés of WPA branch, No. 2; that said officials wrote the committee Oct. 24 that WPA workers and employés in Luzerne county had received postal cards requesting them to report to Democratic campaign headquarters, Liberty Bank building, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., at times specified on the postal cards, and that, when such workers and employés reported to Democratic headquarters, they were solicited for campaign contributions."

Committee investigators reported that they had 23 affidavits from persons who testified that a demand was made on them to change their registrations. They swore that they were threatened with loss of their jobs if they did not register as Democrats.

"It is further disclosed," the committee report said, "that numerous persons have been separated from their employment with the WPA shortly after their refusal to accede to such and similar demands."

Truck Drivers Tell of Pressure.

In a previous Pennsylvania report the committee found that truck drivers serving the WPA in Carbon county had been directed by WPA authorities to visit the home of a Democratic leader who solicited $100 in contributions from them.

Out of eight truck drivers interviewed, seven admitted having been solicited and four admitted having made contributions.

"Additional evidence," said the committee, "corroborates the evidence that Warren Mortimer, WPA foreman in Carbon county, notified truck drivers to call at a private residence occupied by William J. McGinley, garage inspector of the state of Pennsylvania, who, the truck drivers testify, actually solicited the funds. The committee finds, in view of all the evidence, including denials by Mr. Mortimer and Mr. McGinley, that the charge is sustained."

Solicited for Tickets.

The committee found that not only truck drivers but also timekeepers, foremen, supervisory employés, and relief workers employed by the WPA in numerous instances had been solicited for contributions and for the purchase of tickets to Democratic political meetings. Such solicitations, the committee said, have not been confined to Democratic headquarters, but have been made by WPA supervisory employés.

The committee also denounced an implied threat in a letter written by Joseph F. McElwee, a member of the Pennsylvania compensation board, to hundreds of federal and state employés and WPA workers demanding their presence at a political rally Oct. 29 in Norristown. The letter said the meeting was at the direction of Senator Joseph F. Guffey, patronage boss of Pennsylvania, and David L. Lawrence, state Democratic chairman.

The committee said the letter was a grave interference with the right of relief workers to be free from coercion in the exercise of their political rights.

RED QUIZ BALKED BY ROOSEVELT, DECLARES DIES

Witnesses Fear Reprisals, Says Chairman.

BY WALTER TROHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt today was blamed for the reluctance of witnesses to testify before the special house committee investigating un-American activities.

After the committee was forced to adjourn for the second time in two days because expected witnesses failed to appear, Representative Martin Dies [D., Tex.], committee chairman, laid his difficulties on the doorstep of the White House.

"Since President Roosevelt issued his statement against the committee," said Dies, "we are having difficulty obtaining the appearance of witnesses. Witnesses connected with the government and those holding labor positions are especially reluctant to testify."

Fear Wrath of President.

Discussing the latest stumbling block that has been flung in the path of the committee, Dies said that no evidence of administration attempts to intimidate witnesses had been reported to the committee.

He said that the reluctance of governmental officers to testify might be attributed to fear of presidential wrath.

The committee was forced to cancel hearings scheduled for yesterday afternoon and again for this morning concerning sit-down strikes in Ohio. The witnesses, whose names were not divulged, had promised to appear before Mr. Roosevelt loosed his attack on the committee.

Indirect interference with witnesses, Dies said, was but another effort of the administration to smother the inquiry, which among other things has shown the penetration of radicals into high posts in the administration and the Democratic party.

During the day Dies served a second subpena on Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers' union, an affiliate of the C. I. O., to testify on sit-down strikes in the motor industry.

Martin was a capital visitor at a meeting of the executive council of his union. He failed to respond to the first subpena, issued by Dies, reporting that he was ill.

After a conference with Martin, Dies reported that the union leader would testify next Wednesday.

The committee chairman was hopeful that the Ohio witnesses might appear tomorrow, but acknowledged he had received no word that they are on their way to Washington.

MURPHY LEADER OF COMMUNISTS, SAYS HOFFMAN

Asks Michigan Voters to Throw Off C.I.O. Yoke.

Ironwood, Mich., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—A definite tieup between Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan, the communists, and John L. Lewis and his C. I. O. was charged here tonight by Congressman Clare E. Hoffman.

Hoffman, a Republican, is a candidate for reëlection in a southern Michigan district. Recently he has been making a series of addresses in the upper peninsula of the state in behalf of the Republican state ticket.

"That such a partnership exists, there is no question," the congressman said. Gov. Murphy betrayed our citizens in the C. I. O. sitdown strikes for the support of the communists and now they are openly and joyously flocking to his banner.

"A Leader of Reds."

"Let him march with the Reds if he wishes, but let him throw off his mantle of hypocrisy and deception. Let him stand for what he is—a leader of the Reds. On his own record Murphy is convicted of being the ally of communists, of the lawless, of those who deny the existence of the God in whom he professes to believe."

Hoffman charged that the governor knew the communists would start sitdown strikes in Michigan. The governor was warned by President Roosevelt, Hoffman said, that "if communism breaks in America it will first manifest itself in the Detroit area."

When communism arrived in Michigan, Murphy recognized it for what it was for at the time of the Detroit automobile strikes he commented: "Communism is not coming; it is here," Hoffman said.

"Murphy says he prevented bloodshed in those strikes," the congressman told his audience. "In reality he saved bloodshed on only one side—the communists. Plenty of workers' blood was shed. Fourteen policemen were sent to a hospital on one occasion."

Hoffman charged that during the forty-four days of the automobile strikes, while General Motors' employés were losing a million dollars a day in wages, Michigan's governor assisted John L. Lewis and his communists and wrecking crews in keeping men from their work, forcing them on relief, exhausting their savings and making many of them paupers.

Tells Michigan's Need.

"What we need in Michigan," the congressman said, "is recognition of the right of a man to work free from intimidation or coercion and recognition of his right to earn a livelihood without paying tribute to any one, to labor racketeers or political bosses.

"What we need in Michigan is the restoration of law and order. What we need is the end of Murphyism and communism.

"That can be brought about by electing Frank D. Fitzgerald our governor. Give him an overwhelming majority so that all may know that Michigan intends to remain a part of the United States—that she intends to insist upon respect for the rights of her citizens."

CLEAN G. O. P. SWEEP OF TICKET IN KANSAS FORECAST BY CAPPER

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Senator Arthur Capper [R., Kas.], after a campaign tour in the western wheat fields, predicted tonight that the swing of farmers against the farm policies of the Roosevelt administration will give the Republican ticket a clean sweep in Kansas next Tuesday.

"I have been campaigning in Kansas this week," said Senator Capper, "covering farm districts more particularly, and find the farmers are rapidly taking a stand against the Roosevelt administration.

"Farmers are in worse condition than they have been for several years. They are very much discouraged over low prices and are disappointed with the New Deal farm program generally. I think Kansas will return to the Republican column on Nov. 8, electing Payne Ratner as governor, Clyde Reed as United States senator, as well as the entire Republican state and congressional ticket."

For senator Reed is opposing Senator George McGill, Democrat, coauthor with Senator James P. Pope [D., Idaho] of the current farm legislation which is under fire, especially from the wheat growers. Pope was defeated for renomination in Idaho largely by farmers disgusted with the operation of the Pope-McGill farm measure.

Frank's Bus Ride Leaves Him Older, and Wiser, Too

Frank Harmon, a WPA worker who took a tride in a police patrol wagon Wednesday night in the belief that he was on a bus, was arraigned yesterday before Judge N. J. Bonelli in Shakespeare avenue court on a disorderly conduct charge. Harmon, who lives at 840 Lakeside place, explained that he began celebrating his birthday at noon with a round of taverns and was just waiting for a bus when the wagon came by. He was released.

MRS. BOETTIGER EXPECTS BABY IN MARCH, SHE SAYS

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger, President Roosevelt's daughter, revealed she is expecting a child next March in a signed article in the Post-Intelligencer tonight. Her husband, John Boettiger, is publisher of the newspaper and Mrs. Boettiger is an associate editor.

The announcement came after arrival of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the President, by airplane early today. Mother, daughter, and son-in-law talked about the "new arrival" today, Mrs. Boettiger wrote. Her article said:

"Our first session was a three cornered one — my husband, my mother and I. What did we discuss? We didn't discuss—we just made plans for the looked forward to arrival of my mother's newest grandchild.

"The biggest question was, could mother arrange to be on the spot to help usher into the world a new citizen for Seattle? Well, she thinks she can, the fates willing, as her spring lecture tour ends on the west coast the last week in March.

"So it's up to me, I guess, to see that the 'arrival' and the last lecture don't conflict!"

Mrs. Boettiger is the mother of two children, a son, Curtis, 8 years old, and a daughter, Eleanor, 11, by a previous marriage to Curtis Dall.

Faithful Union Member Pickets Parents' Shop

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Arthur Jerome, 20 years old, today picketed a food stand operated by his parents. "He had to do it," said Mrs. Sophie Jerome, his mother. "He's a member of the union. We don't blame him, and we don't blame the union."

LYONS CHARGES VOTE STEALING; ASKS U. S. QUIZ

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

A crescendo of accusations on machine bossism, ballot frauds, pay roll padding, and old age assistance attended last night's battling between Republicans and Democrats.

Richard J. Lyons, Republican nominee for United States senator, at his meetings charged vote stealing has been developed into a fine art by the Democratic machine. He declared that the United States senate should send a committee here to investigate fraud in the polling places.

Scott W. Lucas, Democratic nominee for senator, accused Lyons of voting three times against old age assistance in the legislature at Springfield. He charged Lyons with hoodwinking the voters.

"The Republican pension platform," he said, "is a scrap of political flypaper designed for the sole purpose of catching votes."

Fails to Name Targets.

Michael L. Igoe, United States district attorney, without mentioning a name, spoke of the Republicans in a broadcast as "salesmen of sappy sentiment" and "hawkers of hate."

The night was filled with hot language from both sides and the phrase mills worked overtime.

Rival managers put out their estimates of next Tuesday's voting. A. K. Stiles, Republican state chairman, at a meeting in Lincoln Turner hall, predicted a majority of 200,000 for the Republican ticket in Illinois. At Springfield, F. Lynden Smith, Democratic downstate manager, made a forecast that Lucas will go to the Cook county line on election day with a lead of more than 250,000.

Large crowds in Roseland listened to a street corner address by Lyons at Michigan avenue and 112th place. Cars were parked for three blocks. He also spoke during the day before the City club and the Illinois League of Women Voters. His chief charges were of fraud and corruption in elections. He asserted, too, that Ald. Jacob M. Arvey [24th] has been enthroned by Horner as new boss of Chicago.

Poses Questions for Horner.

"I'm in favor of a 'school for truth,' said Lyons, "as suggested by Boss Horner. I'm in favor of making him dean.

"I know the little boys and girls, governor, will be glad to have you explain that phenomenon by which a snake in April can turn into a friend in September—a corrupt, extravagant, untruthful, and fraudulent boss can become a great political leader.

"These little boys and girls, governor, if they attend your school for truth, may also find that magic cleanser discovered by your candidate for United States senator who said: 'No soap in the world would clean up the Kelly-Nash collar so that I would wear it.' Now this same candidate proudly pins the white ribbon of purity to the Kelly-Nash collar as he buttons it around his throat with October and November promises.

Blasts Pay Roll Influence.

"I suggest, governor, F. Lynden Smith, campaign manager of your candidate for senator, as professor of the Pay Roll Padding chair. Even the Democratic assistant United States district attorney has stated that under Smith pay rolls were padded.

"I suggest for the faculty, governor, Jake Arvey as professor of vote frauds. Jake ought to know. There have been more vote frauds in his 24th ward than in any ward in the history of Chicago."

At one meeting Lyons flourished a batch of newspaper clippings dealing with the vote fraud trial of election judges in Ald. Arvey's ward. These spoke of testimony that in one 24th ward precinct, out of 482 ballots cast in the April primary only thirty-nine had been marked by the voters.

Quotes Vote Figures.

"How did Jake Arvey carry his ward? How do we account for the fact that in 1932 Henry Horner got 13,614 votes for governor in the 24th ward, while Michael Igoe got 241 and Bruce Campbell 17? How do we account for the fact that in 1936 Horner got 26,020 votes to 1,030 for Wayland Brooks?

"The headlines tell the tale. The 24th ward has more indictments and convictions against election judges for vote frauds than any other ward in the city.

"Yet this is the very man that Henry Horner has the effrontery to place in charge of the Democratic campaign committee in Chicago. How well he won that honor!

Recalls Primary Fight.

"Has Gov. Horner been honest? Isn't he the same man who during the primary charged up and down Illinois with his hand picked candidate, shouting about Kelly-Nash, those wicked bosses of Chicago? Isn't he the same Henry Horner who now goes arm in arm with these same bad men of six months ago, Kelly and Nash?

"I voted for a permanent registration bill to give Chicago clean elections. That was your bill. What have you got in return? Vote frauds and corruption unprecedented in the 24th ward under the new Chicago boss, Jake Arvey."

Lucas, whose speeches at night were devoted largely to social security, spoke during the day of fly paper planks in the Lyons platform.

"In the first place," he said, "my opponent, who now professes such concern for the needy aged, voted thrice against the giving of any pensions to the aged while he was a member of the legislature at Springfield.

"To support such a plan would have meant he would have lost the backing of the utility interests with which he was identified as a legislator—support which he needed to keep him in office. Finally, when it was apparent that old age assistance would be put through by the liberal and progressive forces led by Gov. Horner, and when it appeared that he had hoodwinked Republican leaders sufficiently for him to suppose that he might be honored by selection as a major candidate, he decided to vote for old age pensions.

Charges G. O. P. Insincerity.

"But after he did this for the record, he then voted against the bill to provide an appropriation to make the bill an actuality. In other words, the entire legislative record of Lyons brands him as an enemy of the aged people of Illinois.

"Don't let them deceive you. The Republican party is not sincere in its statement that pensions of $30 a month will be paid to all over the age of 65, regardless of need.

"Recall that under the present system, imperfect and inadequate as it may be considered by some of the beneficiaries, the aged people of Illinois received 25 million dollars last year from Springfield and Washington. This is 25 million more than they received under a Republican administration."

Governor Assails Lyons.

Gov. Horner, speaking at Kankakee, had harsh words to say of Mr. Lyons.

"In thirty years of office, Horner has fulfilled all promises," said the governor. "With all his promises, Lyons must be nuts. In the Illinois legislature Lyons never brought up anything that had any sense to it. Tell me a single thing Lyons has done in the legislature for the farmer, business man, or any one else. Yet he has the gall to call Scott Lucas a communist—Lucas, who served in the world war."

Mayor Kelly, at a meeting in the 25th ward, spoke of the "Bust Bossism" cry of Lyons without mentioning a name.

"The Republicans accuse us of bossism," said the mayor. "What is bossism? I don't know. Is a man a boss because he happens to be mayor and happens to want to improve the city? I never bossed or tried to boss anybody. This bossism of the Republicans is the bologna of the old days when they said never give a sucker a chance."

Pooh-Poohs Job Issue.

Igoe, in his broadcast, expressed a low opinion of the "Bring Back Jobs" issue of the Republicans.

"They say they want to bring back jobs," he said, "but the man in Washington is away ahead of them, as usual. General Motors recently rehired 35,000 men and rescinded pay cuts. Chrysler corporation has recalled 34,000 men to work, and increased its production schedules 20 per cent. And Henry Ford, erstwhile gloomy dean of Dearborn, says everything is on the rise."

Wins a Divorce

MRS. DOROTHY CLARK.

Mrs. Dorothy Douglass Clark won a divorce yesterday in the Lake county Circuit court at Waukegan from Harry A. S. Clark, son of Sheldon Clark, sportsman and capitalist. She testified that her husband threw an ash tray at her in November, 1937, and struck her last April. Judge Ralph J. Dady signed the decree, permitting Mrs. Clark the use of an estate at Barrington. She was also granted $10 a week support for her daughter, Constance, 4 years old. The Clarks were married June 1, 1931. Clark is an executive of a tea company.

G. O. P. WORKERS URGED TO STAY AT POSTS TUESDAY

Republican workers were warned yesterday by Edward F. Moore, chairman of the Cook county Republican central committee, to stay on the job in the precincts next Tuesday, election day, until the last vote is counted.

"Do not be fooled by any reports as to how the election is going," Moore said. "Stay on the job until the count is completed. Upon Republican watchfulness depends Democratic honesty in the election."

Moore's warning went by letter to workers in all of the county's 4,377 precincts.

Hyde Park, N. Y., Nov. 3.—[Special.] —President Roosevelt today worked on two radio speeches which he will deliver tomorrow. The first address will be brief. It will be made at 2 p. m., Chicago time, in connection with the dedication at Claremore, Okla., of a memorial to Will Rogers, stage and screen comedian.

At 6:30 p. m., Chicago time, Mr. Roosevelt again will go on the air, broadcasting an appeal for hard pressed Democratic nominees in New York state. Without mentioning names he also may plead for support of Democratic tickets in such states as Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Michigan, where the Republican slates appear headed for victory. The President will speak one-half hour.

The President interrupted work on these addresses at noon, when he motored twenty miles to Newburgh, N. Y., where he lunched with his uncle, Frederic A. Delano, chairman of national resources committee.

BANDITS TAKE $300 RING.

Two bandits last night held up Louis Holtzman in his gasoline station at 1358 West 69th street and took $74 and a ring valued at $300.

A LIVING SYMBOL OF G. O. P. CARRIES FIGHT TO LOOP

An elephant, symbol of the Republican party, yesterday carried a message to shoppers and business people in the loop. On her back were posters which warned:

"Thirty-one of thirty-five Municipal court judges are hand picked by the Nash-Kelly machine. Redeem the court. Vote Republican on the separate judicial ballot."

The elephant was sent out from Republican headquarters at the La Salle hotel in a continued effort to break the taboo on party slogans. The bill posters' union has refused to post signs reading, "Smash Nash-Kelly Boss Rule; Vote Republican," for fear of offending the city administration.

YOUNG LAWYERS BACK LYLE, GANG FOE, FOR BENCH

Remind Voters of Record in Former Term.

John H. Lyle

Former Judge John H. Lyle, Republican nominee for a third term on the Municipal bench, was warmly indorsed yesterday by a group of young Swedish-Americans.

The group—most of which are lawyers—was particularly high in its praise for Lyle's rough treatment of hoodlums back in the "public enemy" days. He held them in such high bonds that many had to remain in jail before trial as well as afterward.

Gets Action Against Gangsters.

"Former Judge Lyle," their appeal stated, "not only named but issued warants for the first twenty-eight public enemies, then issued a supplemental list and insisted that all these gangsters be brought into court.

"Until he was transferred to the civil branch, he was levying high bonds and in general kicking the hoodlums around—those men who had put upon Chicago an international stigma as being the home of organized, commercialized criminal gangs.

"We believe it would be an act of ingratitude on the part of the citizens of Chicago if they fail now to return to the bench a judge who, for this work, was more heartily indorsed by editorials in all the newspapers and by resolutions from civic bodies than any other judge we can recall.

Nominated Without a Speech.

"We call attention to the fact that when former Judge Lyle's name was left off the Republican slate before the primary last April—due principally to the controversy over high bail and the photographing of gangsters in his court—friends circulated his petitions. Without making any speeches, attending meetings, or circulating literature, he was nominated, breaking the Republican slate.

"We recall that among the worthwhile things former Judge Lyle has done was to sponsor and obtain the passage of the separate judicial ballot while he was a member of the legislature.

"A record of public service covering two terms in the legislature, seven years in the city council, and twelve years as a judge, entitles former Judge Lyle to the vote of every citizen who believes in rewarding honest, faithful service."

Gen. Drum Leaves Chicago for New Command in East

Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Drum, transferred from command of the Sixth corps area, left Chicago yesterday to take over his new post as commanding general of the 2d corps area at Governor's Island, N. Y. Command of the 6th corps area will be taken over by Maj. Gen. Stanley H. Ford.

BROWDER TALKS IN CITY TONIGHT; WHO BRINGS HIM?

Admits He'll Discuss Illinois Situation.

leading editorial was captioned: "For Jobs, Vote New Deal."

An article on page one referred to Lyons as "the Tory Republican candidate." It added that Morris Childs tonight will "answer the charges of the Republican Lyons and make clear the attitude of the communist party toward the New Deal."

Browder was asked who the contact man is between the communist and Democratic parties in Illinois.

"There is none," he stated. "And there is no understanding between the two parties."

Who are Go Betweens?

When he was asked to name the go betweens for the communist party and the national administration, he laughed. He was reminded of the 1935 decision of the international Communist convention in Moscow to penetrate and rise to power through the Democratic party.

"You seem to know more about the inner councils of my party than I have been permitted to know," he said.

"Sworn testimony before the Dies committee has shown that such a decision was made," he was told. "You yourself, have been quoted by several witnesses."

"The Dies committee investigation is not worth 2 cents," Browder snapped. "The people know that. Its work is just another example of how the reactionaries are trying to discredit a progressive movement."

"A progressive movement represented by whom?"

"By the communist party."

"In league with the Democratic party?"

"No."

"You know of course that party leaders in Illinois are vigorously denying any connection with your visit or your party."

Browder laughed loudly. "Well," he said.

Attack G. O. P. House Leader.

Meanwhile, in Chicago, the communist dominated Labor-Nonpartisan league had launched a vicious attack upon State Representative Elmer Schnackenberg, Republican leader of the Illinois house, who is seeking reelection.

Folders, signed by the league, were placed in mail boxes—in violation of federal law—throughout the 13th senatorial district, the south shore sector. The folder charges Schnackenberg is unfriendly to labor, that he is a tool of big business, that he opposed the women's eight hour law, low cost housing and voted against an increase in compensation to injured workmen.

The league's attack ended with indorsements of Adam S. Mioduski [D.], John G. Ryan [D.], or William C. Henry [R.] in preference to Schnackenberg. It adds that Henry and Ryan are not outstanding, but would be preferred to Representative Schnackenberg, who has been in the legislature sixteen consecutive years and is expected to be the next speaker of the Illinois house.

With but few exceptions, the communists are urging the defeat of all Republican candidates and advocating that the Roosevelt administration be perpetuated.

Plans for Mass Meeting.

Plans went forward yesterday for the mass meeting that will climax Red participation in the campaign. Although the communist party press bureau has announced there will be torchlight processions converging upon the Stadium tonight, no application for a parade permit had been made yesterday at the office of Police Commissioner Allman.

It was disclosed, meanwhile, that the campaign committee of the party is paying more than the usual rent for the Stadium. Arrangements for renting the hall were made by Jack Martin, campaign manager. No special precautions against disorder are being made, according to Stadium officials.

They added, however, that an annual insurance policy covers them against damage from strike, riot or civil commotion. Mayor Kelly said Wednesday that the parades, if held, and the meeting would be adequately policed.

FILE $6,000,000 SUIT TO RECOVER ON JARECKI FEES

Judge Accepts Complaint; Wrangle in Court.

After permission was granted yesterday by Judge William V. Brothers, a suit was filed to recover 6 million dollars alleged to have been authorized as fees by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki in the collection of inheritance taxes.

Judge Brothers allowed the request of Attorney John E. Northup late in the afternoon. Northup is counsel for the complainant, Mrs. Clarence Ford Smith, a member of the Women's Civic Council. The case was set for a hearing next Thursday. Judge Jarecki will be a candidate for a fifth term on the county bench at Tuesday's election.

Filed Without Objection.

No evidence to support the complaint was heard yesterday because Attorney John D. Black, for Judge Jarecki, made no objection to filing of the suit.

The hearing was featured, however, by shouted charges from Marshall V. Kearney, an assistant state's attorney, that the suit was filed for publicity purposes. He engaged in a short altercation with Judge Brothers, who finally ordered his bailif to seat Kearney.

Kearney, who represented County Treasurer Horace G. Lindheimer, one of the defendants in the suit, made his accusations shortly after Attorney Black waived any objections on behalf of Judge Jarecki to filing of the suit.

Calls Her Charges Proved.

Mrs. Harriet M. Robertson, president of the Women's Civic council, who made the original charges against Judge Jarecki, asserted that his failure to contest filing of the suit gave proof of her accusations.

"Under the circumstances," she said, "Judge Jarecki has forfeited the confidence of the people and stands convicted of the charges."

This morning Northup will seek an injunction temporarily restraining Treasurer Lindheimer from paying out any more funds as appraiser fees in inheritance tax cases, pending the outcome of the recovery suit.

HARRISON URGES RE-ELECTION OF SENATOR CLARK

Kirksville, Mo., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Senator Pat Harrison [D., Miss.] urged the voters of this state tonight to reëlect Democratic Senator Bennett Champ Clark by "the greatest majority ever given a candidate in old Missouri."

Without mentioning the possibility that Clark might be a contender for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1940, he said such a majority in next Tuesday's balloting might in the future "serve and bless and glorify this great state."

Harrison, who, like Clark, has differed with the administration on some issues, declared "unselfish criticism" had been helpful to the New Deal in its efforts to restore social and economic stability. The Mississippian praised Mr. Roosevelt but said, however, that the administration had not been immune from mistakes.

NIP PLOT TO VOTE CHICAGO WPA'ERS IN LAKE COUNTY

Gangs at Fort Sheridan Are Disqualified.

Efforts to vote more than 400 Chicago men sent to Lake county by the Works Progress administration were believed to have been blocked yesterday by Charles E. Mason, Lake county state's attorney. The men are working on projects at Fort Sheridan and living in barracks there.

"I have been told that attempts were made to register at least 400 men so they could vote in Highwood next Tuesday," Mason said. "I don't know whether the men would vote Republican or Democratic and I don't care. They can't vote in Lake county."

The plans to vote the men were uncovered while an investigation was being made of reports that drunken brawls were frequent occurrences in the barracks and nearby towns. Police and camp authorities reported that they still have some trouble, but not as much as they did early in the summer.

Opinion Sent to Both Parties.

Mason prepared an opinion on the men's residence at the request of Frank J. Nustra, a precinct committeeman of Highwood. The opinion was sent to both Republicans and Democratic political leaders near the fort.

The opinion said that a voter's employment and residence on a military reservation does not disqualify him from voting at his place of residence, but he cannot acquire a residence to qualify him as a voter if that residence has been exclusively within a place over which the United States has complete jurisdiction.

The United States, through the army, has complete control of the military reservation on which the fort is situated.

One of the halls which the men use for sleeping, eating, and recreation rooms is said to be used for gambling on and immediately after pay days. Much of the cash available to them, it was admitted, goes either for this purpose or the purchase of liquor in Highwood.

Practically all of the men are single and each receives $48 a month from WPA. They pay $19 of this for board and room.

"The men's time is their own after 4 o'clock in the afternoon," one army officer said. "The first time a man fails to get up for work because of intoxication we warn him. The second time we pay him off and see that he is out of camp that day."

Officers and men agreed that the men do a fair day's work on the projects. These include foundations for houses for noncommissioned officers, sewers, road improvements, and landscaping. The men that won't work are sent back by the army.

A Frontier Town.

Highwood police said their jail was full after each pay day last summer, but that the caliber of the WPA men at the camp had improved greatly in recent weeks.

"Some of the men are decent and some of them are drunk all the time," one WPA worker said. "The drunks fight among themselves sometimes until it gets to be like a frontier town. The gambling adds the final touch.

"The M. P.s [Military Police at the fort] don't bother them as long as they just fight among themselves. The drunks don't bother us much, except when they fall over our beds at night."

ONE DEFENDANT IN COUNTERFEIT TRIAL IS FREED

Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan yesterday ordered a directed verdict of not guilty for John Costello, 33 years old, one of three men on trial on charges of counterfeiting. The remaining defendants are two half brothers of Costello, Alfred Florest, 32, and Samuel Florest, 42.

The defendants, who lived at 4339 Hazel avenue, were arrested with two other men on July 23 by federal agents. Victor Carli, a special government agent, testified that he had worked with the Florest brothers for three months before getting sufficient evidence for their arrest. He declared they were members of a counterfeit ring which had passed $100,000 worth of fraudulent bills.

SMITH CREDITED WITH EXTENDING MERIT SYSTEM

80% of County Employes Under Civil Service.

Clayton F. Smith.

Extension of civil service until 80.3 per cent of Cook county's employés are under the merit system has been accomplished during the four years Clayton F. Smith has been president of the county board.

This was disclosed yesterday in the civil service commission's annual report, submitted to the county board by William P. Haberkorn, president of the commission. When Smith took office in 1934, the report stated, only 42.5 per cent of the county workers were under civil service.

Smith has long been known as an advocate of the civil service system. Officials say he has worked for the extension of the system since becoming head of the county board, which directs the activities of the commission.

121 Exams Since 1934.

Since 1934, the commission reported, 121 examinations have been held; 30,950 applicants have been examined, and 1,677 certifications have been made.

There are now 3,264 employés on the county pay roll. Of these 2,621 are certified under the civil service commission. The percentages under the merit system, by departments, are:

Assessor's office, 97.5; board of commissioners, 75; civil service commission, 80; County hospital, 91.5; forest preserve district, 72.3; highways, 78; Juvenile court and probation, 78; juvenile detention home, 65; Oak Forest institutions, 50.4; public service, 73.9; public welfare, 82.3.

All Jobs Reclassified.

The positions within the commission's jurisdiction have been reclassified and graded on the basis of duties, responsibility, and authority, according to the report.

The report is signed by Haberkorn, Oscar W. Schmidt, secretary; A. Emily Napieralski, commissioner, and Frank J. O'Malley, personal director and chief examiner.

Round Up 12 Boy Peddlers Roaming Loop at Night

Twelve boys, the youngest 8 years old and the eldest 14, were picked up in the loop by police late last night and taken to the Juvenile Detention home. The action was taken on orders of Commissioner Allman after a complaint by Miss Jessie Binford, director of the Juvenile Protection association. She complained that many youngsters were permitted to roam in the loop at night, shining shoes and selling flowers, song sheets, and the like.

Seize Parolee and Brother as Lovers' Lane Robbers

Frank and Bernard Lauritz, brothers and both Chicagoans, were arrested by Kankakee police last night as alleged strip bandits who operated in lovers' lane areas in and around Kankakee. Police said that Bernard, who is 24 years old, was paroled from Joliet penitentiary only last August. His brother is 29. A third man is being sought.

FIND WEIGHTED BODY IN RIVER.

Coast guardsmen yesterday recovered the body of a man, about 50 years old, from the Chicago river near the State street bridge. Two heavy sash weights were bound to the legs with wire.

Mayor Kelly and James B. McCahey, president of the school board, officiated yesterday at ground breaking ceremonies for the new $1,350,000 high school to be built at 77th street and Bennett avenue. The new school is expected to be completed in time for the opening of the 1939 fall semester. It will have classrooms, laboratories and shops for nearly 2,000 students.

RAIL OFFICIAL TRANSFERRED.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—J. F. Dunseth, who for the last two years has been road supervisor for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad here, has been transferred to Newark, O., it was announced today. L. C. Arter of Cincinnati will assume the post here.

RIVALS DEBATE HOW TAXPAYERS FARE ON APPEAL

BY PERCY WOOD.

The treatment taxpayers of Cook county receive at the hands of the board of appeals—now composed of Emmett Whealan and Paul Drymalski, Democrats—was debated on political platforms last night.

Whealan and Drymalski, as candidates for reëlection, told the voters that they had authorized reductions of $8,000,000 to almost 160,000 taxpayers in the last four years. Special consideration has and will continue to be given small home owners, they said.

Tells Appeals Routine.

"As tax bills know no political subdivisions, nor recognize race, creed, or color," he said, "so our office functions for all of the taxpayers, without regard to how they vote, think, or spell their names.

"The only test before the board is whether they have a just complaint against the assessment. If we are convinced of that, they receive the reduction to which they are entitled.

"We handle our cases by number and not by name; thus, every taxpayer may receive a full, fair, and courteous treatment if he has a complaint.

"We feel that there are two great forces of government that must be protected by our acts. One is the assessment which, if lacking in error, should be upheld so that the governments which function with taxes will receive the amounts due them.

"The second force is the body of taxpayers—those who permit the government to function. They are entitled to a fair and equitable tax. We have found that the public is fair in the matter of taxes. Knowing this, we advise the taxpayers of their rights and we search the records if we feel that they have been discriminated against."

Tells Work for Home Owner.

Drymalski, talking before a 12th ward audience in the Kelly school, Archer and California avenues, told of work done by the board for the small taxpayer.

"In the 1934 real estate hearings," he said, "we made 3,530 changes on complaints — 2,870 of them affecting small homes and small flat buildings. The highest reduction on these complaints was $1,000 in assessed value, which meant a cut of $70 in taxes. A total of 760 of the changes were for more than $1,000."

"When the jurisdiction of the board was questioned, and the right of a taxpayer to file a complaint in any year was attacked, we took the matter to the Supreme court and won a decision for the taxpayer."

Philip H. Mitchell, one of the Republican nominees for the board, speaking at 3135 South Halsted street, declared that under the present system the complaint of the small taxpayer is practically ignored and nullified and he is treated like a defendant in police court.

"Appearing alone before the board, he is bewildered by procedure," Mitchell continued, "and is herded and pushed around. Any home owner who had been misguided into believing that he would receive a fair, thorough, courteous hearing on his complaint, was soon disillusioned upon his appearance before that tribunal.

Calls Procedure Bewildering.

"An efficient and businesslike administration of that office would make it possible for a complaining small home owner to be heard in an atmosphere of judicial dignity and attention, instead of noise, bewilderment, and confusion."

Mitchell's running mate, Charles R. Hussey, mayor of Forest Park, told his audiences that the grip of the Nash-Kelly machine must be broken before the taxpayer can expect any tax reductions.

Talking at 1010 South Halsted street, he said that students of the tax system estimate each tax bill is increased approximately 20 per cent "by reason of tax delinquencies, so that each person who pays his taxes must necessarily carry a part of the tax for those who do not pay.

"One party control in national, state, and county government encourages waste and extravagance, and makes for arrogance and contempt in office. Boss rule must end in the county, state, and nation.

PROTESTS AUTO PARKING AND IS SHOT TO DEATH

Wife Sees Murderer and Hears Pistol.

the shooting was given by Mrs. Krinik and her daughter. They were walking on the opposite side of the street when they saw Warden fighting alone against odds.

"He was fighting off two men," said Mrs. Krinik, "when a third man jumped out of a car and joined them. They got Warden down and beat and kicked him, and I called over that if they didn't stop I'd call police.

"Warden managed to get up. He ran to the gasoline station and then back to his home, one or two men chasing him. He hurried up the stairs to the top of the front porch. Then as he stood there another man that I had not seen before stepped up.

"He called to Warden, 'You coward; why don't you come down and fight.' Warden began rolling up his sleeves. He started to go down when the men shot him."

Scurry in Front of Home.

It was at this point that Mrs. Warden opened the door and then shut it, police believe. According to the Kriniks, there was a wild scurry in front of the Warden home. Several men fled, one or two getting into a car and driving north. At least two men, including the killer, did board the car, according to Elaine Deek.

"I was almost in front of the Warden home, but didn't see the shooting," she said. "But the man with the gun bumped into me as he ran to the curb. I asked him 'What's happened?' He punched me in the chest, knocking me down. He got into the driver's seat and another man followed, and they sped north."

Neighbors described Warden as a kindly and serious man. He and Mrs. Good were married nine years ago. They have a son, Donald Jr., 8. He was sleeping when the murder was committed. Warden fought as a professional boxer, under the name of Don Warden, until six years ago.

Slaying Witnesses

Elaine Deek, age 14, who was knocked down by one of the killers of Donald Warden, young husband shot in fight over parking of automobile.

DEPUTY RAPS, BUT CAPT. GOLDBERG FAILS TO ANSWER

Sherif's deputies last night unexpectedly began a search for Capt. Joseph Goldberg, supervising captain of the north side, to place him in the county jail for failing to pay a $3,500 automobile accident judgment.

Attorneys for John Heneghan, 18 years old, 4630 Maypole avenue, who obtained the judgment, said they had heard no more from Capt. Goldberg after his attorney announced two days ago he would pay the judgment.

Recently the Appellate court upheld the judgment which carries a malice count, providing that Capt. Goldberg can be kept in jail six months for nonpayment if Heneghan pays a $3.50 weekly board bill. The searchers could not find Capt. Goldberg last night, either in his home at 2458 Morse avenue or his office at the Shakespeare station.

HELD AS HAMMER SLAYER AFTER 3 YEAR SEARCH

Melvin Abbott, colored, of Harvey, who has been sought since Oct. 14, 1935, for the hammer slaying of Mrs. Marzinia Patterson, who lived at 14413 South Ashland avenue, Harvey, has confessed the murder to the Cleveland police, Police Chief George Swanson of Harvey learned yesterday. Abbott, who is 32, waived extradition, and Chief Swanson was making arrangements for his return. Mrs. Patterson, who was 34, was killed by blows on the head from a machinist's hammer. Abbott was an acquaintance of her family. He disappeared at the time of the slaying and had been sought since. Cleveland police said Abbott was seized when a woman friend "squealed" on him.

Give Up Hunt for Clews in Shakespeare-Bacon Row

LONDON, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Search for documents by which scholars had hoped to determine the authorship of Shakespeare's works was abandoned today. Workers failed to find the tomb of Edmund Spenser. They sought hand written elegies for comparison with known specimens to settle the dispute over whether Sir Francis Bacon wrote dramas attributed to Shakespeare.

IT'S THE LAW

By CALEB

ONE OF THE MOST pleasing phases of this business is that of watching the growth and development of the people in it. Not long ago we encountered a stockroom boy on his way home in the evening, a book under his arm. There was something familiar about its outline, and closer examination revealed it to be a law treatise.

There is, of course, nothing new about a young man studying law in his spare time. The interesting angle to us was our stock boy's reply to the query, "So you're planning to take up law as a career?"

"No sir," said he, "I'm not planning to take up the practice of law—I'm going to stay right in this business and I think that knowing law will help me to get ahead in it." We think so, too. This young man's knowledge of law, plus the quality that makes him study it, seem likely to bring him success. In fact, the first is only a symptom of the second. When he has familiarized himself with law, there isn't a doubt that he will take up some other study equally important to his business future.

One of our personnel people remarked recently, "It isn't that people's jobs are too small for them—it's only that their concept of the job is too small." A goodly number of the executives in our business today began here as stock boys, office boys, or as what were known in earlier days as cash boys. Many of our women executives likewise began in the stock room or as salespeople.

There is a story of Mr. Marshall Field's reply to a question asked him upon the resignation of one of his partners. "What will you do now, Mr. Field?" he was asked. "I'll hire another office boy," Mr. Field replied.

The boy we discovered with a law book under his arm was the sort of youngster he had in mind. He evidently meant to imply that an organization is no stronger than its juniors, and that leadership most often comes up through the ranks. This theory begets continuity and stability. It does not preclude the possibility of obtaining already developed talent from outside pursuits where this seems wise or necessary.

What the theory does mean is that the man who begins at the bottom, exercising energy and initiative sufficient to carry him upward in the management, has a tremendous advantage, and should be able to make a most substantial contribution to our business. All other things being equal, he should be able to gain most knowledge and experience useful to his work. That being so, this young stock boy with a law book under his arm is in an enviable position. We expect in due time to hear from him.

CHINESE BATTLE JAP DRIVE INTO 2 NEW PROVINCES

Invaders Take Rail Town and River Forts.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Chinese and Japanese armies tonight were reported engaged in a struggle within a large triangular area bounded on the north by the Yangtze river and Lake Poyang and on the south by unconquered Kiangsi and Hunan province.

Both sides acknowledged heavy casualties as the Chinese, bracing after the fall of Hankow on Oct. 25, sought to stem the Japanese advance toward two of the last provincial strongholds of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

With Hankow at the top point of the triangle, Nanchang, capital of Kiangsi province, and Yochow, gateway to Hunan, formed the other two corners, each still stanchly defended.

Artillery Breaks Wall.

On the west side of the triangle, the Japanese reported capture of Puchi on the Canton-Hankow railway and the Kiayu forts dominating the Yangtze river, forty-five miles southwest and upstream from Hankow.

Puchi, about fifteen miles south of Kiayu, was taken after a long artillery bombardment had blasted an opening in the north wall. The shelling was followed up by a fierce infantry assault.

Both Kiayu and Puchi were in the path of the Japanese drive southwestward toward Yochow, which is on the Canton-Hankow railway leading to Changsha, the provincial capital.

Meanwhile, on the east side of the triangle, south of the Yangtze and along the shore of Lake Poyang, Japanese were reported advancing down the railway from Kiukiang toward Nanchang. This force was preparing to attack Yungsiu, which is within 35 miles of Nanchang.

British Ship Forces Passage.

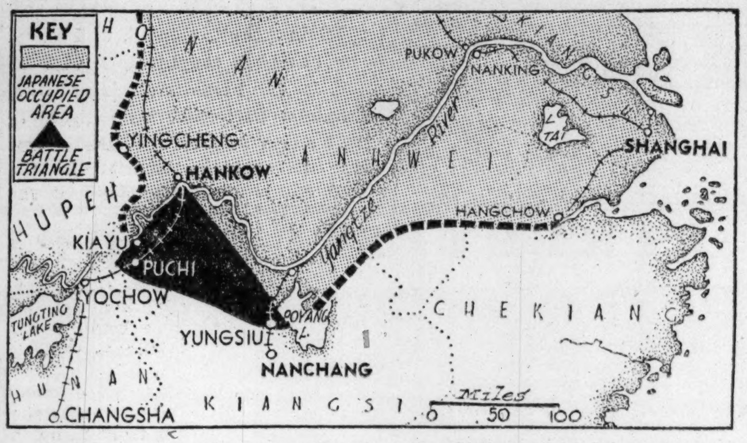
Far away from this triangular battle zone and 55 miles northwest of Hankow a battle was reported in progress in Yingcheng.

A report from Canton said the British gunboat Cicala sailed from Canton yesterday despite repeated Japanese warnings that the Canton [Pearl] river was unsafe for foreign vessels. Four miles down the river from Canton the Cicala was stopped again and warned of mines but after referring the point to London proceeded under the original orders, arriving at Kongmoon today.

Observers emphasized that this was the first instance of a foreign vessel's forcing the issue by refusing to recognize the Japanese order closing the Canton river to foreign shipping.

Japs Push On from Hankow

(Story in adjoining column.)



Japanese yesterday were battling the Chinese in a triangular area south of captured Hankow. The Japanese Yangtze river force captured the Kiayu forts and a land force took Puchi. Another force at Yungsiu had Nanchang as its objective. Also, a battle was reported in progress at Yingcheng.

BRILLIANT PHYSICIAN UNMASKED IN PARIS AS AN INSANE CARPENTER

[Copyright: 1938: By the New York Times.]

PARIS, Nov. 3.—One of the most brilliant doctors of Paris was unmasked today as a carpenter who had escaped from an insane asylum. He is Jean Louis Beneteau, 24 years old. He has had no medical training.

Beneteau escaped from the municipal asylum in the suburb of Villejuif last February. He set up a doctor's office in Paris and his engaging personality soon attracted many patients. He inspired confidence not only with his patients but also with druggists and some medical men. One physician sent his wife to be treated by Beneteau. He corresponded with members of the Cancer institute on the cure of cancer, which he claimed was his specialty.

Beneteau was unmasked when he was summoned as a witness in a suit arising from a dogfight. He has been returned to the asylum.

STATE BAR GETS FAKE ARSON CASE VICTIMS' CHARGES

Attorney Joseph T. Harrington said yesterday that he had forwarded charges against Attorney Roscoe Bonjean, attorney and chief investigator for State Fire Marshal Sherman V. Coultas, to Allen Stephens, secretary of the Illinois State Bar association at Springfield. The charges were made by Frank Kolesiak and Emil Guerrieri, victims of the fake arson case which sprang from the fatal fire last April in the Center hotel in West Madison street.

Kolesiak and Guerrieri, who repudiated confessions allegedly extorted from them by Coultas, Bonjean, and a group of amateur sleuths, were exonerated by a grand jury investigation. The charges made before the bar association assert that Bonjean while aiding Coultas exceeded his professional capacity when he helped to obtain confessions from men later held to be innocent.

Applications for warants for Coultas, Bonjean, and the amateur sleuths are pending before Judge John J. Rooney in the Municipal court. Meanwhile Gov. Horner is investigating Coultas' conduct in the case.

BORDEAUX, France, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Six persons were killed today when a private twin engined plane crashed from 3,300 feet into a field near La Reole in Gironde department. HUNGARIAN ARMY TO OCCUPY CZECH AREA TOMORROW

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Thousands of Hungarian troops with full field equipment will start moving at dawn Saturday to take back war lost territories from Czechoslovakia. Hungary was awarded an estimated 4,875 square miles of land by Germany and Italy at yesterday's Vienna arbitration conference.

Medva, north of Gyor, and Doborgaz, north of Magyar Ovar, in the Bratislava area across the Czechoslovak frontier from northwestern Hungary, will be the first zone to be occupied by the Hungarians.

Soldiers using pontoon bridges will push a general advance all along the Danube on Sunday. They will occupy the strongly fortified city of Komarno and the communities of Bacsfa, Tanko, Dun Szerdahely, Nagy Megyer, and Parkan.

In Ruthenia they will occupy the Kiraly Helmec district between the Vodrog and Latorica rivers and districts south of Beregszasz.

"MERCY" KILLER OF WIFE ENDS HIS LIFE IN BEDROOM

MONTE CARLO, Nov. 3.—Police today discovered the suicide of an American resident, following the "mercy" murder of his wife. They broke into the apartment of Gerson Wreschler, 61 years old, a Danish-American writer. They found the bodies of Wreschler and his wife, the former Catherine O'Brien, in their bedroom. The wife, who had been shot, lay on a bed covered with flowers. Wreschler had hanged himself over a door and fired two bullets into his head.

He left a note addressed to his wife's sister, a Mrs. Manning of Newton Center, Mass. In it he said his wife had been suffering from mental trouble and he had killed her to spare her misery. He said he intended to commit suicide.

9 POWER TREATY DEAD, JAPS SAY; MAY DENOUNCE IT

Pact with Manchukuo and China Foreseen.

TOKIO, Nov. 4 [Friday].—(AP)—Japan's foreign office spokesman today disclosed that Japan considers obsolete the nine power treaty, of which the United States is a signatory, guaranteeing the territorial integrity of China, and intimated Japan may denounce it.

The spokesman revealed Japan is considering replacement of the treaty, signed at Washington, D. C., in 1922, with a new three power pact among Japan, her puppet empire of Manchukuo, and a new régime in China, envisioning displacement of the Chiang Kai-shek government.

Course Not Settled.

Such a new pact ostensibly would be to guarantee China's territorial integrity after cessation of the present Japanese-Chinese war.

"Japan considers the nine power pact obsolete. Whether we will denounce it or withdraw has not yet been decided," the spokesman said. "The government is examining the advantages of creation of a tripower pact."

The spokesman hinted Japan might make a definite statement on this line when she replies to the United States note of Oct. 6 protesting against what the American government termed interference with American interests in China.

Pledged an "Open Door."

In the nine power treaty Japan, the United States, and seven other states pledged themselves to adhere to the principles of the open door for trade and industry and the territorial integrity of China.

[The foreign office disclosure came soon after the state department in Washington, D. C., made public a reminder that last year's nine power conference in Brussels had served notice that final settlement of the Chinese-Japanese war must be "satisfactory to the conference powers." The reminder was among hitherto unpublished documents concerning the conference which sought unsuccessfully to end war in the far east.]

An official statement issued on Nov. 2 outlined Japan's aims in the current war as creation of an economic and political bloc embracing Japan, Manchukuo, and China for domination of East Asia.

BRITISH MINISTER OF WAR REVEALS DEFENSE FLAWS

But M. P.'s Kill Labor's Censure of Cabinet.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The house of commons tonight defeated by 355 votes to 130 a Labor motion to censure the government for insufficient air raid defenses. The vote of confidence followed on the motion.

In the motion the Laborites said there was "grave concern at the admitted unpreparedness to protect the civil population when the country was brought to the brink of war" during the Czechoslovak crisis in September.

After the vote was taken Leslie Hore-Belisha, war minister, presented to the house of commons a detailed list of the faults of the anti-aircraft armaments brought out for use at the time of the Czech crisis.

Some Guns Needed Overhaul.

"Some of the guns were without dials because the firm which made them went bankrupt," said Hore-Belisha.

"The guns sent from the practice camps in some cases became separated from their instruments. Further, they were sent into action without overhaul. Electric storage batteries were in some cases run down, although other units at the same time had spare batteries and charging plants. Certain units did not draw their full complement of stores and some stores were found to be deficient.

"Steps are being taken to send section commanders a simple memorandum of what they should have ready for an emergency in the future."

Hore-Belisha said the design of Britain's efficient 3.7 inch gun had not been approved until the end of 1937. By the summer of next year, he pledged, there will be enough of these weapons for five divisions.

During debate on the Labor motion Herbert Morrison, Labor leader who is head of the London county council, charged the cabinet of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain with "playing the fool with great issues of public policy."

Hits Crisis Measures.

Chamberlain was "slightly indisposed" and suffering from a chill and did not attend the debate.

Morrison leveled his attack against almost all the anti-air raid measures taken by the government during the crisis. He said that the trenches dug in London for the protection of its millions of people were insufficient. There would have been many deaths if citizens had been forced to flee into them to escape bombs he asserted.

There was not enough fire fighting equipment, he said. Air raid shelters, he declared, were "nonexistent."

Sir Samuel Hoare, home secretary, answered for the government. He promised an attempt to "regain the insular security of this country."

Tells of Air Force Increase.

"This country can make as good a system of passive defense as any in the world," he said. "We are determined to make it effective, and to see that it can play its full part with a substantial increase in the air force and a greatly increased system of anti-aircraft guns."

He charged that Morrison's own London county council has not yet submitted to the home office a plan for control of fires in case of air raids.

In outlining the government's plans for air raid protection, Hoare said that experts would study the problem of creating bombproof shelters for every one who could not afford to make one for himself.

Provisions will be made, he promised, to engage 500,000 full time workers in the air raid precautions machinery in case of war. An investigation is being made into charges of profiteering in sandbags during the recent crisis.

Meanwhile, the house of lords approved the government's motion seeking to put the British-Italian friendship treaty of last April into effect at once. The vote was 55 to 6. The house of commons approved the project last night by a vote of 345 to 138.

RedArmy Tank Commissar Dies Suddenly "On Duty"

MOSCOW, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The death of Division Commander Pavel Sergeivitch Alliluiev, commissar of the tank department of the Red army, was announced in Moscow newspapers today. The published account said Alliluiev died yesterday "at his post of duty," but gave no details. It praised him as "a real bolshevist commissar who with a firm hand liquidated the consequences of wrecking and purged his organization of hostile and politically suspicious elements."

SPANISH REBELS SEIZE STRATEGIC HEIGHTS ON EBRO

HENDAYE, France [At the Spanish Frontier], Nov. 3.—(AP)—The Spanish rebel army was reported tonight to be gaining momentum in its drive against government troops holding the Ebro river salient. Rebel forces have advanced to within a mile and a quarter of the west bank of the river, dispatches said.

The insurgents took the Caballos and Pandos mountains, and were said to be in defense positions along their slopes. These heights are the last line of natural defense between the rebel stronghold of Gandesa and the river.

For three months government troops have held out against rebel counterattacks on this front in northeastern Spain. The Ebro salient was created after the loyalists drove westward across the Ebro in a surprise offensive which began on July 25.

The village of Pinell, at the southern end of the front, fell this morning, the insurgents reported. The road from Pinell to Mora de Ebro, objective of the rebel push, was said to have been cut at several points.

IDENTIFY BODY FROM LAKE.

The body of a man taken from the lake in front of 7731 Eastlake terrace a week ago was identified yesterday as that of Rudolph Svigel, 21 years old, 1846 West 23d street.

Lawyers Race Across State in Auto, Save Doomed Man

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 4 [Friday]. —(AP)—A dramatic midnight race half way across the state in an auto against time by three St. Joseph lawyers saved the life of Oscar Ralph Ashworth, confessed kidnaper, a few minutes before he was to have entered Missouri's lethal gas chamber early today. The three lawyers hurried into the Supreme court building at 12:30 a. m. and obtained a writ of error, automatically staying indefinitly the execution of the man who pleaded guilty to kidnaping a 7 year old St. Joseph girl.

Farmers, CCC Youths Fight Forest Fire on 3-Mile Front

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 3.—(AP)—An army of about 250 farmers and Civilian Conservation corps workers fought tonight along three miles of a Bartholomew county road northwest of here in an effort to halt a forest fire spreading through tinder-dry trees and underbrush. Sherif Robert Urbans said the fire already had burned over between 1,500 and 2,000 acres in Union and Harrison townships. CCC workers saved a family of four this afternoon from a farmhouse almost surrounded by the flames.

in the sensational policy racket trial conducted by Dewey several weeks ago. The trial ended in a fiasco when Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora, an important henchman of the Roosevelt-Farley-Tammany-Hines machine, threw it out on a technicality.

Gang Contributions Bared.

During that trial witnesses related that the gang headed by the late Dutch Schultz contributed more than $30,000 to the election of William C. Dodge, Hines protégé and Tammany candidate, as district attorney in 1933. Scores of Schultz gangsters, receiving orders at Hines' Monongahela political club, floated about the district voting as repeaters in the various polling places.

Al Marinelli held the office of New York county clerk until Dewey exposed his underworld connections last fall and he resigned under fire. Marinelli is the boss in the lower east side part of Manhattan, while Hines is the overlord in a portion of Harlem and the Columbia university section.

The election activities of other big shot racketeers on behalf of the Tammany machine are a matter of record also. Among those who aided in past elections were such underworld characters as Waxey Gordon, the beer baron whom Dewey sent to the penitentiary; Larry Fay, slain taxi racketeer; Owney Madden, night club racketeer, and the late Jack ["Legs"] Diamond, who survived several shootings but finally died.

Report False Registrations.

It is also a matter of record that Big Joe ["Spasm"] Ison, policy racket king of Harlem, had 117 persons registered from a two room apartment.

With the campaign growing hotter and hotter, speculation grew over the position of Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia. The story has been circulated from sources friendly to the governor's candidacy that the mayor had finally arrived at the decision to indorse Gov. Lehman. While the story spread, La Guardia made no comment on its truth or falsity.

La Guardia is a political chameleon who has run on the Republican, Labor party, and Socialist tickets for various offices, as well as being supported by the communists and voting for President Roosevelt. Last fall the mayor persuaded Dewey to be his running mate for district attorney and there is no question but what the popular young prosecutor contributed materially toward La Guardia's reëlection.

However, La Guardia is said to have his eye on the White House, possibly running in 1940 on a third party ticket for President. In that case his political path might cross that of Dewey, who if elected governor would be a likely Republican standard bearer in 1940.

Dewey this afternoon deplored reports that there was an anti-Semitic whispering campaign against Lehman, who is a Jew. Dispatches emanating from the Hyde Park estate of President Roosevelt carried the first news of such activities.

"Whispers concerning racial and religious preferences have been injected into this campaign on both sides," declared the Republican gubernatorial nominee.

"The man or woman who votes for a candidate because of his race or religion, or votes against him for such a reason, is a disgrace to American citizenship.

Rakes Religious Prejudice.

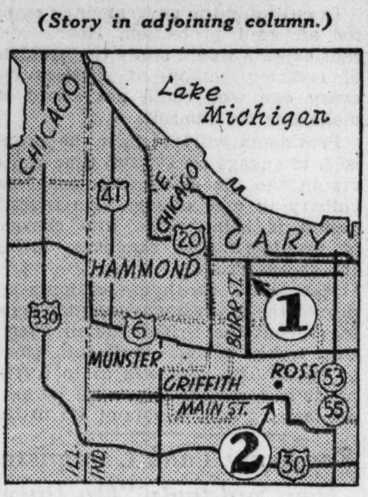
"I condemn and despise any support based on racial or religious prejudices. There are some things more important than being elected governor, and one is the spirit of religious and racial good will. I would rather go down to defeat than to be elected by any vote based on race or religion."

National Democratic Chairman James A. Farley continued his daily attacks on Dewey today at his press conference. He charged Dewey was the candidate of money bags. Also on hand was Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, who pooh-poohed Dewey's knowledge of farming problems and praised Lehman's grasp of the questions involved.

It happens that Dewey worked on a farm as a boy, while Lehman got his start in a bank.

Girl's Body Found

(Story in adjoining column.)



No. 1 marks home of Frieda Borman, which she left last Saturday. No. 2 indicates where her body was found.

RUSH HITCHHIKER VICTIM HOME IN AMBULANCE

William R. Smith, 22 years old, who was shot by a hitch-hiker near Watseka last Tuesday, was en route by ambulance last night to a hospital in St. Paul, Minn., where he lives. An emergency operation will be performed to remove a bullet from the base of his spine, which has paralyzed both legs.

Smith, a salesman for his father's company, told authorities that the hitch-hiker, about 17 years old, slugged him, rifled his pockets, shot him in the back, and stole his automobile. Smith lay for five hours in a cornfield until found by a farmer.

GIRL FOUND DEAD BY LONELY ROAD; CAUSE MYSTERY

Farmer Discovers Body in Clump of Bushes.

Indiana authorities were confronted with a mystery last night after the body of a young woman was found in the bushes beside a lonely road near Griffith, Ind., ten miles south of Gary. The victim, Miss Frieda Borman, 22 years old, had been missing from her home in West Gary since last Saturday. She had apparently been dead for several days.

Coroner J. Robert Doty of Lake county, Ind., and Dr. Michael Shellhouse performed an autopsy in Gary. There were no marks of violence on the body, except for a bruise on the young woman's neck insufficient to cause death. Her clothing had not been disarranged.

Probe Murder Theory.

The examination was being continued, however, to determine if she had been slain. Police were also investigating the possibility that she was the victim of a hit and run motorist.

The body was discovered by Martin Erickson, a farmer, in a clump of bushes ten feet north of Main road, about three miles east of Griffith and a mile west of U. S. highway 53. The road is a continuation of Main street in Griffith. Although it is infrequently traveled, it is unlikely that the few passersby would not have noticed the corpse, which was lying in view.

This led to a theory that if the young woman was slain or accidentally killed the body was not placed in the bushes until yesterday.

Lived with Family.

Miss Borman lived with her father, Henry Borman, at 1189 Burr street, West Gary. The father and his three sons are Gary mill employés. She left home Saturday morning to register for work at the state employment bureau in Gary. Her whereabouts after she visited the bureau were unknown.

One of her brothers, William Borman, said it was his sister's habit to remain downtown during the day and return home by street car at night. He said she might have encountered some one on the few blocks' walk from the car line to her home. The girl's fiancé, Keith Alson, 21 years old, employé of a dairy company at Crown Point, had a date with her last Friday night. Since her disappearance he had been aiding the family in the search for her.

FEAR BRIDE, 10, CAN'T BE KEPT FROM HUSBAND

Officials Balked in Plan to Put Her in Orphanage.

Prestonsburg, Ky., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—With all their precautions and legal maneuvering, authorities weren't very confident today that they could keep Rosie Columbus, 10 years old, and her husky miner husband, Fleming Tackett, 34 years old, away from each other.

Tackett was in jail here today on a charge of rape. When he was arrested at nearby Paintsville yesterday after having eluded officers for a week, he said he "waren't afeard" of what might happen. Authorities are not certain that Tackett can be convicted. A suit for annulment also is pending.

Kept in Private Home.

Not far away from the jail Tackett's child bride was being kept in a private home. She was adjudged a delinquent and ordered sent to the Kentucky Children's home, but it was learned the orphanage has been turning away applicants for more than a year.

A representative of the state welfare division recommended that Rosie be placed permanently in a private home in the hills where she has spent her life.

While authorities conceded this might have to be done, they said such an arrangement would nullify their efforts to keep the child and her adult husband apart. Rosie's mother said she couldn't keep "that Flem' away from her daughter and that they "were always sneakin' around with their courtin'."

Another Child Bride in Jail.

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Another Kentucky child bride and her husband were in jail today awaiting trial on charges of juvenile delinquency.

Ruth [Peachy] Whitt, shown by school records to be 12 years old, and Wilburn Howard, 60 years old, were married April 11 at Ironton, O.

Girl, 13, Is Married.

Sellersville, Pa., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Frances Erb, 13 years old, disclosed today she was married yesterday to Robert Souder, 21 years old, a WPA worker. She and her sister were married in a double ceremony at Elkton, Md., she said.

The child-bride and her husband explained they accompanied Miriam Erb, 17 years old, and her fiancé, Martin Nace, 25 years old, a garment worker, to Elkton with the intention of acting merely as witnesses.

"But then we got to talking about how nice it would be if we could get married, too," Frances explained. "So we decided we'd be married in the same ceremony."

Nace and his bride will live in a rebuilt chicken house.

Marriage Dispute

BARBARA JANE LULL.

Milton La Dew, 21 years old, and Barbara Lull, 18, both of Aurora, said yesterday that they may elope this week-end despite efforts of La Dew's mother to prevent the match. The mother, Mrs. Helen La Dew, has brought action in the Kane county Circuit court to compel her son to continue supporting her out of his $75 a month salary as a bank teller.

Mrs. La Dew, who was divorced in 1929 and is blind in one eye, invoked an old Illinois statute providing that a son must support his mother. Judge Olney Allen has indicated he will rule in the case next week.

Meanwhile, Barbara and Milton may get married anyway. Barbara lives with her mother, Mrs. Esther Lull, also a divorcée, at 534 Pennsylvania avenue, Aurora. Mrs. La Dew said that she has received many letters condemning her attitude.

ANOTHER'S WIFE MAKES A BREACH IN MAN'S CASTLE

Henry G. Lippert.

A man's house is his castle, but not when another man's wife is living there. Attorney Martin G. Loeff convinced a jury of this yesterday before Municipal Judge Leon Edelman.

The argument won $500 damages for his client, Henry G. Lippert, 6323 Yale avenue, in a domestic triangle in which the participants all were past 60. Lippert is 65. The others involved were his wife, Ina, 60 years old, and Minden S. Woolley, the defendant, who is 69.

Lippert told the jury that he lost his job in 1934. His old friend, Woolley, a retired accountant, then invited him and his wife to live in Woolley's home at 6917 South Union avenue. But soon, Lippert testified, he began to eye his friend of thirty years with suspicion.

Presents Start Coming.

"First he gave my wife a fur coat," said Lippert. "Then he gave her a diamond brooch. When he paid her dentist bill I decided it was time for us to go. But when I told Ina she refused to leave."

Lippert moved out in February, 1937, he testified. The following September he went back to get his clothes.

"I had packed a couple of suitcases and was ready to go," he said, "when Woolley hit me over the head with an iron pipe. Then my wife hit me a couple of cracks."

Mrs. Lippert got an uncontested divorce in January on the ground of desertion. She is still living in Woolley's home as his housekeeper, she testified yesterday.

Woolley, when he took the stand, said the fur coat and brooch he gave Mrs. Lippert had belonged to his wife, who is dead.

"They were just lying about the house, so somebody might as well have had the use of them," he said.

Mrs. Lippert, he asserted, refused to accompany her husband when he moved out because the only quarters Lippert could offer her were in a basement flat. He denied striking Lippert on the day of the latter's final visit.

"He started to abuse his wife," said Woolley. "I just pushed him out the door in self-defense."

The three principals left the courtroom when the jury retired, and were not present to hear the verdict.

MOVE TO RETURN EX-COLLEGE HEAD HELD IN SWINDLE

Henry Kinsey Brown, former president of Valparaiso, Ind., university, remained in jail last night at Detroit, Mich., awaiting extradition proceedings for his return to Chicago. He is charged with perpetrating a $60,000 stock swindle on Mrs. Leonia J. Cram, 5512 Everett avenue, widow of a publisher.

Mrs. Cram, now 65 years old, said that in 1935 she became interested in Brown's patent medicine concern and eventually turned $60,000 in securities over to him to manage for her. But she never received an audit of her investment and the securities were never returned, Mrs. Cram said.

Brown is the son of the late Henry Baker Brown, founder of Valparaiso university and two other colleges. The younger Brown was president of the university for thirteen months and later bursar and business manager before selling out the family interests. He was arrested Wednesday.

TELLS OF UPPING DIXMOOR INCOME BY SPEED FINES

Mayor Admits Motorists Pay Village Salaries.

How an enterprising village can earn a substantial income by catching and fining hapless motorists who pass through it was told yesterday as Mayor Charles Special of Dixmoor testified in the Criminal court. Special, with Charles A. Braun, justice of the peace, and three of the village policemen, is on trial before Judge William J. Lindsay on charges of conspiracy to operate a speed trap.

Income from fines to the village treasury increased from $350 to $989 in a single month merely by increasing the village police force from two men to three, Special admitted on cross-examination.

Admits Diverting Fine Money.

Special also admitted that money received in fines was diverted to pay salaries of village officials and policemen, although the law requires that it be paid to the road and bridge fund. Special was shown checks indicating that he received as much as $585 a month.

The Dixmoor mayor, together with Braun and the policemen, Charles Paduano, Tony Bader, and Robert Grecco, were charged with conspiracy after countless motorists had complained that the village used the Dixie highway passing through the village as a lucrative speed trap.

For two days a jury before Judge Lindsay heard motorists testify that they were arrested on slight pretexts, hauled before Justice Braun, and heavily fined.

Uncertain About Repayment.

Assistant State's Attorney Richard Austin pointed out that all fines paid into the Dixmoor road and bridge fund were immediately transferred to the general fund and used to pay the salaries of village officials. Questioning Special, Austin asked:

Q.—Do you ever think this money will be repaid? A.—I don't know.

Special then admitted the village was without funds when a third policeman was hired last September.

Q.—And when you hired the extra policeman fines went from $350 a month to $989 a month, didn't they? A.—Yes, I guess that's right.

Q.—And then the money was transferred to the general fund and some of it was paid to you? A.—I get $500 a year for being mayor and $350 a year for being chairman of the board of local improvements.

Austin then produced checks showing Special received $584 in November.

"Well," Special said, "I guess I did. There's the checks. Some of the money went toward convention expenses and some went for materials."

"Couldn't you pay for the materials direct to the purchaser," Austin asked.

"No," Special answered, "I guess they had to be paid through me."

Special then admitted that his salary and those of other officials could not have been paid without the income from fines.

Few Are Acquitted.

Justice of the Peace Braun followed Mayor Special to the stand. He denied there was any corruption in assessing fines.

Under questioning by Assistant State's Attorney Alexander Napoli Braun said he heard between 800 and 900 trafic cases a year and that he received the costs of each case, from $1 to $7, for himself. If the motorist were acquitted Braun received no fee.

"There weren't many acquitted, were there?" Napoli asked.

"About 15 to 20 per cent, I should judge," Braun replied.

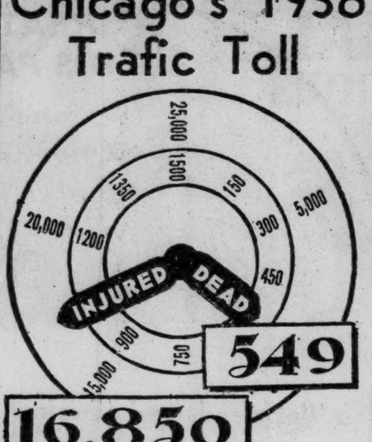
Napoli then questioned Braun about his records, which mysteriously disappeared from his offices the night before Braun and Special were seized for questioning.

"I don't know anything about them, they just disappeared," Braun said.

The three policemen were placed on the stand and denied that they had conspired to extort money from motorists.

Closing arguments will be heard this morning and the case is expected to be given to the jury by noon.

THE MASSACRE Chicago's 1938 Trafic Toll



More than 98% of the city's automobile fatalities are of a nature physically impossible on an elevated highway.

2 WOMEN HURT AS DRIVER HITS STALLED TAXICAB

Two women were injured yesterday when an automobile crashed into the rear of the taxicab in which they were riding as it stalled in Lake Shore drive at Division street. The injured women, Miss Jane Cranford, 30 years old, 747 Belden avenue, and Miss Jenny Clark, 26, of 3716 Sheffield avenue, were taken to Henrotin hospital.

Kurt Klausner, 5647 Kenmore avenue, driver of the automobile, was charged with reckless driving by police.

PIONEER BLACKSMITH DEAD.

C. I. O. REPULSED, REOPEN PLANT AS TROOPS STAND BY

Middletown, O., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—While National Guardsmen stood by to prevent violence by communist-led C. I. O. members, hundreds of workers today flocked back to their jobs at the P. Lorillard company tobacco plant.

The factory had been closed since Oct. 3 by a C. I. O. strike. An attempt to reopen it a week ago precipitated rioting in which elderly women allegedly were assaulted by pickets.

Gov. Martin L. Davey, who ended the "little steel" strike in 1937 by his use of troops, ordered 500 guardsmen here last night. In the face of his determination to preserve order, the striking C. I. O. group capitulated and called off the strike.

Davey termed this a pointed demonstration that John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O., cannot operate when the state government stands for law and order.

NEARS U. S. AFTER DASH FROM NORTH TO SICK MOTHER

Henry L. Walther yesterday was nearing the halfway mark on the first leg of his dash from Alaska to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Alice Walther, who is gravely ill in her home at 846 North Harding avenue.

He was aboard a coast guard cutter, speeding homeward from the Bering sea patrol, which picked him up at King Cove, Alaska. Amateur radio operators located Walther there last Saturday after four days' effort.

The cutter left Sewar, Alaska, last Tuesday, and is expected at Oakland, Cal., tomorrow. Because an ordinary trip would have taken at least a month, the coast guard came to Walther's aid.

James McGrath, owner of the Chicago airport grill, has arranged to bring young Walther from Oakland on a North West Air Lines plane, arriving here probably Sunday.

CHEERING 125,000 SEE CORN HUSKER WIN 1938 CROWN

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—A cheering crowd of more than 125,000 today watched Ted Balko of Redwood Falls, Minn., win the national corn husking championship.

He husked 22.24 bushels of corn in the 80 minute contest. It was the second national championship for Balko, who also won in 1934. His victory took the title to Minnesota for the second consecutive year. Ray Hanson of Bingham Lake, Minn., won last year.

Second place honors today went to Irwin Bauman of Eureka, Ill., champion of Woodford county. He husked 21.74 bushels. Harold Larson of Kanawha, Ia., won third place with 21.65 bushels.

Dick Post of Evansville, Wis., placed fourth with 21.33 bushels. Ecus Vaughan of Monticello, Ill., was fifth with 21.02 bushels. Sixth place was won by Vilas Jacks of Rensselaer, Ind., with 20.79 bushels.

Twenty-one farmers from eleven states competed.

Men who put first things first in their thinking naturally look upon Bass as an important discovery. While Bass is known as an ale, it is distinctly different . . . much as a fine motor car is different from a popular priced one. Your first glass of Bass will tell you why its flavor is famous the world over.

NEW FORD V·8 CARS for 1939

HERE is real progress in motor car manufacturing. Greater value for every motorist has been built into the two new Ford V-8 cars for 1939. Both help bring new meaning to the familiar Ford phrase—"The Quality Car in the Low-price Field."

Here are two new cars that give further expression to the forward-looking policy of the Ford Motor Company . . . traditional Ford dependability and economy combined with notable advances in modern, progressive engineering.

The Ford way of doing things is the dependable source for the greater value in the two new Ford cars for 1939.

Each car has been given its own distinctive appearance, yet each reflects Ford leadership in design. Both bring you something of the fine streamlining of the Lincoln-Zephyr—recognized style leader for the entire automobile industry.

The interior appointments of the 1939 Ford cars are especially rich and are in keeping with their beauty of line and contour. Every detail is styled for good taste and good service.

Both are big, roomy cars, equipped with hydraulic brakes and powered with the V-8 engine that gives you so much extra power, smoothness and efficiency.

This year, the quiet performance of the V-8 engine has been matched by the new quiet built into every part of the car.

The 1939 Ford cars bring you greater riding ease on every road. New seat construction, flexible cantilever transverse springs and double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers give triple-cushioned riding comfort.

Both Ford cars for 1939 are Ford-priced for greater dollar value. From bumper to bumper, inside and out, they are the most outstanding cars in all Ford history.

TOPICS FOR MR. ROOSEVELT'S HOUR OF CHARM.

Mr. Roosevelt appears on the air tonight in the rôle of rescuer. The New Deal is badly rattled. It is sagging under disclosures of fraud and corruption, failure and hypocrisy.

The most damaging proof of dishonesty and subversion has not been offered, curiously enough, by the Republican party, but by the Democrats themselves. The New Deal's association with crooks, criminals, communists, and political buzzards fattening on relief money has been disclosed by Democratic officials.

Mr. Roosevelt is supposed to be primarily concerned with his own state. But it is expected that he will try, with his usual charm, to put a good face on foul facts and to divert attention from the putrefaction of the New Deal and from its complete failure, by attacking men of straw.

There are a number of questions Mr. Roosevelt might answer:

How does he explain the fact that 20 million Americans, after five and a half years of his autocratic control of the United States, are receiving their living from the American government? Why are there 13 million unemployed persons? Why, if he would not let the people down, has destitution continued to be the gravest concern of the country all the time he has been in office?

What has the planned society done to relieve this? Who other than Franklin D. Roosevelt is responsible for it? Who, in any other period of the nation's history, would have been held responsible for it except the head of the national government? Has he not at all times said that he was able to put the country back on its feet?

Will he explain his political association in his own state with Mr. Hines of Tammany and with Mr. O'Connell of Albany? Does he approve of the action of Tammany's Judge Pecora in freeing Mr. Hines from a jury verdict on the mass of evidence showing the New Deal's political connection with the criminals and racketeers of New York? Does he approve of using Dan O'Connell, the convicted racketeer, to persuade Gov. Lehman to run again?

Does he indorse the support Earl Browder and the communist party give the New Deal ticket for which he speaks? Does he oppose Thomas Dewey, the Republican candidate, because Dewey sent seventy-two politically protected criminals to the penitentiary and was about to destroy the entire crooked Tammany adjunct of the New Deal in New York? Is he defending the criminal connections of his party in his own state?

If he can explain the connection with communism in New York, how does he justify his alliance with the Hitlerized Frank Hague in New Jersey? What considerations led him once to denounce and then welcome this Fascist into his coalition of liberals? Why does he regard Mr. Hague, Mr. Hines, and Mr. Browder as better citizens than Senator Glass of Virginia, Senator George of Georgia, and Senator Tydings of Maryland? What public virtues have Hague and Hines displayed that warm his affections for them?

What does he think of the indictment of the Chavez family for corrupt uses of Harry Hopkins' millions in New Mexico? Does Senator Chavez remain a liberal, desirable member of the New Deal association of saints, to be preferred over a conservative Democrat whose family has not been indicted?

Does Mr. Roosevelt indorse the fugitive Pennsylvania New Dealers who are keeping just ahead of the grand juries and the sherifs? Is Gov. Earle with his promissory notes still a man whose character meets all Mr. Roosevelt's requirements? Does he think the Pennsylvania mess represents good government?

Does he think that the Dies committee is a vicious organization because it has exposed his communistic allies? How does he explain the communist adoption of him? What does he think makes Mr. Browder so enthusiastic a supporter? Why do the Moscow communists regard Mr. Roosevelt as their greatest hope in the world today? What have the communists received from him and what do they expect?

What does Mr. Roosevelt think of the work of the Sheppard committee? What does he think of its findings on the fraudulent methods of Mr. Hague in New Jersey and of his other friend, Senator Robert Bulkley, in Ohio?

Why has he discarded the Democratic party in Minnesota for the communistic Farmer-Labor party?

Why has he abandoned his party in Wisconsin?

Has he been driven by John Lewis to accept the communists in Michigan?

If his planned society has been a success, why has he had to increase relief expenditures one billion dollars in the last three months to carry an election?

What has he to show for the 17 billion dollars additional national debt?

If in five and a half years he has been a wise and helpful administrator of American government, how does he explain the present condition of the United States? If his farm program has been a success, how does he explain the present farm prices? If he were the critic, would he have held another President responsible as trustee for the last five years and a half? If he found another party so confronted with failure, broken promises, corruption, criminality, and sedition, would he defend it or condemn it?

What would he say if any family but his own in the White House had used the privileges of government for private gain? What would he then say of Jimmie's profits in insurance and of Elliott's connection with airplanes and radio? Would he think that another President's sons ought to engage in political business in a field in which their father could make or break companies?

What has he to say of the profits from the sale of his state papers, published while he is in office? How does he justify the sale of his autographs to unwilling purchasers for $250 a copy? Why are certain American families unfit for true American society unless the relationship is one of marriage?

What acts of turpitude can he charge against his Republican opponents? What acts of turpitude in the New Deal can he deny? Failure, broken promises, dishonest government, and revolution are on Mr. Roosevelt's doorstep and they will not be removed by the magic of his voice.

Tonight he will put the blame elsewhere. Some day the people will see exactly where it belongs and they will ask themselves why they should continue to put their trust in a man who has deceived and injured them.

NO BETTER HOLE FOR HORNER.

In many pinches Gov. Horner wouldn't be a bad guy. He's in a bad spot. He knows it and it makes him nervous. He'd much rather appear in a fair coat of political integrity and sincerity and with something like common sense in what he had to say. Last spring he thought that if his candidates were to appear in this election he had to say that the Chicago Democratic organization was corrupt and tyrannical. He said it would steal elections. He said it was a menace to the state and that he had to fight it constantly. He said it was ruining the Chicago schools, taking rights away from the people, plundering the public funds, and debauching government. He invited the Republicans, illegally, to help him out.

Now, having nominated his candidates with this line of talk, he must forget all that he said. The Chicago Democratic organization is all right. It is a public spirited body of men. Mayor Kelly is a good mayor. Boss Nash is a good boss. Chicago couldn't do better. The redder Mr. Horner's face gets the madder he gets at the Republicans. They are the scum of the earth because they are quoting Horner of April against Horner of November. Mr. Horner does not want to meet that other man just now. He should be the forgotten man. The governor feels the autumn winds. He tries to warm himself by flying into rages. Then when he hears his own voice mocking him he runs to get a piece of the Great Coattail.

He gets behind his Peerless Leader, the successor of Jefferson and Lincoln. Then he reflects that the Peerless Leader has fixed things so that Illinois and forty-seven other states are wondering how they will carry the destitute through the winter after the election is over. Mr. Horner doesn't want to think about that. If there is to be much more of the Peerless Leader Mr. Horner will give his own office to any one who wants it. He is in a bad spot and should be treated with consideration.

CHICAGO AT HARVARD.

An interesting football game will be played Saturday in Cambridge, Mass. The colleges of two institutions of higher learning will meet for the first time. Chicago plays Harvard. Each has won a game. Both institutions are fairly well satisfied with their players. Each would like to do better, but they have no idea of firing their coaches. Both teams play intelligent football. It hasn't been good enough, but if it were not intelligent it would not be anything.

That style of play befits two institutions which hope to survive even a football season. Neither college would object to finding a stout line or a few blocking backs. Even without these necessities they will still play football. If they cannot do anything better they will hold down the score.

Chicago is celebrated for cheerfulness. Harvard is said to be the best team that ever was licked four straight games.

It will be an exceptional intersectional meeting. It brings together two teams which, for a change, are proud of their universities, a clash of brains.

HUMOR FOR CHILDREN.

At a recent conference on reading for children held by New York teachers it was agreed that more attention should be given to development of the sense of humor. It was noted by one speaker that until recently too little attention had been given to books of humor for children, but that writers and publishers are beginning to take interest in them. We hope this small sign is not deceptive. Children are ready to laugh and we suspect that education might take better if it had a sense of humor. It would also help teachers.

And the cultivation of the sense of humor should begin as early as possible. It is strange that though laughter is so pleasant there is so little of it in this world. No doubt there are sorrows and disillusionments enough and to spare in this vale of tears. All the more reason why we should begin as soon as possible to learn to smile. We can think of certain mighty men in Europe whose ways would change for the better if an injection of humor could be administered.

If warm weather in October, he says, is merely an extension of September, then warm weather in November is just a hangover from October. Sing Waly, Waly, O.

The tisket-tasket problem has been nicely put to bed [10-31-'38] in a scholarly and, we think, conclusive manner, but here comes a contrib, supporting the nonsense theory, who cannot be denied. Listen to him, and if you have any acquaintance with old English ballads you will get a laugh:

The family minstrel, in his nightly improvisings before the feudal baron and guests, interpolated tiskets and taskets in alternate lines while thinking up the next:

Bolde Robyn Hode is to Notynghame gonne,
  Wyth a lynk, a downe and a daye;
When cometh Sieur Guy in hys babergeonne;
  Sing waly, waly, a tysket or twayne,
    Sing waly, waly, O.

By this time the bard has had time to dope out Fytte II.:

Sayeth Robyn, "Fye on thy combe, pardie!"
  Sing waly, waly, O;
And he smeareth Sieur Guy wyth a payste in the eye,
  Wyth a tysket, a tasket, a lynk and a downe,
    Sing waly, waly, O.

Halloween Graffiti.

I have just completed my one man, day after Halloween survey of words and phrases soaped most frequently on store windows.

The single word, "nuts," topped the list with "foo" running a close second. Compound words and phrases were led by "——— is nuts," with occasional variations of "nuts to you" and "nuts to ———"

Next in frequency was "——— loves ———," closely followed by the two words, "gyp joint," with several variations in spelling. Nearly every tavern carried the words "free beer."

Among phrases appearing only once or twice but worthy of mention were, "Down with Hitler," and two cases of atrocious French.

I am already anxiously awaiting next Halloween to see what trend the window compositions will follow and how they will compare with this year's. Delta Theta No. 371.

America, our native land, we see
You now with clearer eye. We sing your song
Of liberty, and as we feel its strong
Compelling cadence know that though there be
The demagog and all his bigotry,
The rabble-rouser and his motley throng,
The false reformer who inflames the wrong
With ridicule, we sense their sophistry.

We're on Belief in you, our native land!
Now let the alien thought, the tyrant hand
Beware! Our strength unleashed at last, we run
Out of this darkness to the rising sun.
Returning courage shows us he is thief
Who, as he scoffs, would rob us of Belief!

OVERWEIGHT AND HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE.

IN the obese individual—if the extra fat were deposited beneath the skin only—he would probably have far less difficulty in toting it about. The fact is that this unneeded reserve is widely distributed throughout the system and one of the sources of weakness complained of by many develops because substantial quantities may be found within the muscles. Masses appear about the kidneys, in the bone marrow, and in the space which lies behind the abdominal cavity. This describes the situation in an ordinary fat person, but should one be oversupplied with this substance it may find its way into the heart and envelop that organ.

That there is a real hazard is well recognized. The surplus not only interferes with activity—and exercise—but disturbs the functioning of the cells. At the same time it places an added strain upon the circulation. The reason is that every atom of this superfluous flesh must be nourished and more of the tension falls upon the cardiac apparatus—sometimes—than it can withstand. Suppose we carry twenty-five more pounds than the frame is designed to support. Will more blood vessels be needed? Yes, because new capillaries must push their way into fat depots to keep the material alive.

We may compare the condition to a city water plant. Let us assume that the pump and the water tower are designed to supply a city of 1,000 population. All goes well until a new addition is platted and the pipe lines are extended, adding to the work of the central station by 20 per cent. Even though the machinery beats along for a while without signs of giving out—a time will come when the flow will fail as the "energy" quota will be inadequate. A 20 per cent increase in weight will place a comparable overload upon the body's pump and, at the same time, oblige it to install new mains [blood capillaries] whether it wants to or not.

What is the result? At first we may witness an exhibition of the marvelous power of nature to make adjustments. In many instances the heart will thicken, but this very effort may bring about a mounting pressure within the vessels which explains one cause of high blood pressure. We need not wonder then when we find one of these overweights with a level that is quite too lofty for comfort.

The remedy, however, is simple. Get rid of the excess baggage and the tension will be lessened. We associate, therefore, an increase in poundage with high pressure within the arteries and a tendency to weakness on the part of the heart. But this is not all. Carefully conducted studies show that there is far more gall bladder disease and a greater frequency of diabetes among this group. One authority writes that 78 per cent of his male diabetics and 83 per cent of the females are too heavy.

But why will one person be as thin as a rail while another will exhibit a roly-poly, barrel-like figure? We know that food is a factor, but it does not tell all of the story. There is a definite relationship between the behavior of the endocrine glands and deposits of fat. But in most of our common examples a glandular imbalance may be disregarded.

While many diets have been prescribed, that suggested recently by D. C. Weir comes close to the ideal. It consists for the most part of fruit, toast, jelly, and coffee for breakfast. For the one who eats noon lunch one egg, or a bit of lean meat, with two slices of toast, green salad, and coffee are advised. For the evening meal, he allows one lamb chop, toast, a medium sized potato, one vegetable [not creamed], one-sixth of a piece of pie, and a cup of coffee.

Restrictions are placed upon butter, cream, ice cream, and other fats. The total calories in these three meals approximate 1,350 which is about half what the patient may have been using. Nevertheless, the menu is sufficient for reasonable activity.

We should not delude ourselves with the belief that weight means strength. It may be up to a certain point beyond which, however, it constitutes a health burden.

LEG PAINS.

E. T. writes: I have severe pain in my right leg which extends from the knee to the ankle. At night the parts are swollen.

1. Could this condition be neuritis?
2. Would rest in bed help?

REPLY.

1. Probably not. The chances are that there is some interference with the return flow of blood and the circulation of the extremities should be investigated. Make certain there is no arthritis or trouble with the foot. Occasionally a fallen longitudinal arch will give this symptom.

2. If the circulation is at fault, yes.

MAKE LONGER TRIAL.

C. C. writes: What can be done to prevent gagging on wearing a plate? I have had it two weeks now and cannot keep it in for longer than five minutes.

REPLY.

It the plate fits perfectly—and it should—you can become accustomed to its presence. If it extends too far backward along the roof of the mouth it may act as though the finger were thrust down the throat. Give it a longer trial.

TREKKING BACK FROM ALASKA.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—An Associated Press dispatch from Washington tells us that 86 of the 200 families whom the government took from the dust bowl to Matanuska Valley colony in Alaska have left, either of their own volition or because the government found them undesirable colonists. Further that 17 families in the colony were "incapable or unwilling to become self-supporting."

In plain English it means that the 200 families, not one of whom could have secured a loan of $50 from any bank because of lack of collateral, were considered a good "risk" by the Great Humanitarian who not only loaned them the money but furnished transportation, a brass band and a newsreel accompaniment to Alaska and many, many years to pay out and yet no success. Of course the Great Humanitarian did not loan them his private money, but money secured by taxation on all of the people.

Some administrator, I will say. Were he the administrator of a private estate and did he use the funds of the estate in this manner he would be promptly called to account by the Probate judge. This must be the liberalism and humanitarianism we see on the billboards. The Matanuska Valley colony is but a sample of what we are getting and can't seem to do anything about. Jess Harlow.

LIFE OR DEATH FOR STATE BANKS.

Mattoon, Ill., Nov. 2.—As to the banking amendment to be voted on next Tuesday in Illinois, the important fact is: If this new amendment is not approved by the voters we will soon have no state banks in Illinois. Those we have now will either change over to nationals or they will go out of business. We must be fair to our state banks or we will lose them.

And when we lose our state banks all our banks will be controled from Washington—by men who are not especially interested in the prosperity of the people of this state. We dare not allow our state banks to be driven out of business.

To win this protection for our banking service we will have to have more than half of all the voters in this election vote for it. If I fail to vote on this question, it will be counted as a vote against this improved banking law.

HORNER SHOULD HAVE BEEN THERE.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Concerning a challenge from Richard J. Lyons to Mr. Lucas for a joint debate, Gov. Horner asked the other day why put Lucas on the platform to draw a crowd to hear Lyons speak.

The governor should have been at the Coliseum last night to witness the throng that swamped the Republican rally there. Who drew that crowd? People were standing in the ailes and 10,000 more were on the outside unable to get in. Wish you had been there, Henry.

100% Republican.

DEAR ALBEN AND THE PAY ROLL.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—I note with interest that the Democratic keynoter, Hon. Alben W. Barkley, has just been among us to boost Democratic candidates. It is also interesting to note in the Congressional Record [June, 1934] that Mr. Barkley was mentioned as having his son and daughter on the United States senate pay roll as his clerks. His son drew $3,900 a year, and his daughter $1,800 per year. Now he comes among us preaching honesty in government.

We talk of unemployment; why not go outside the family, senator, and afford others opportunities for a job. Why sympathize with the jobless, practice nepotism and family greed? P. F.

A DEATH TRAP.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—This morning I again saw a man killed by an Illinois Central train at 71st and Jeffery avenue. These accidents have become a regular occurrence. The South Shore residents have complained several times to Ald. Daley with no results. Surely something can be done to safeguard our lives. Lowering of the tracks under 71st street and Exchange avenue has been rumored since 1929. Perhaps a boycott against the Illinois Central with their excessive 13 cent fares would be most effective.

South Shore Resident.

FOX TERRIER FOR THE JOB.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—R. W. O., who is anxious to see Chicago rid of rats, better not try to do the jobs with cats. Let him and his neighbors get a good flock of terriers. He'll see the best exhibition of rat catching he has ever witnessed. The cat is good for only one or two mice from time to time—and the majority of the feline group will run from rats. Takes a quick, strong dog to handle a tough rat. Farmers who are smart get rid of the cat and turn a fox terrier loose in the granary when they find evidences of rats.

Almost any terrier will do a good job, but for a real business-like effort try the smooth fox terrier. He's a honey! No wasted motion, no waste time—he goes to work on the biggest, toughest rats and faster than you can keep track of him, he grabs Mr. Rat, gives him a shake, throws him aside—dead—and grabs the next one. He'll work until almost exhausted.

Three hundred rats in an hour's time is a pretty good count. No cat that ever had the courage to tackle a rat has begun to equal a fox terrier's record! Just try him—he was bred for it, R. W. O. F. C.

A PATIENT'S EXPERIENCE.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—I helped transfer a patient from a private hospital to the Cook County hospital last Saturday evening. Upon arriving at the ambulance entrance I asked a policeman for a wheel chair and was told to help myself. After getting the patient [who had been bedridden for a week] into the chair, we were made to wait for one and a half hours in a drafty hall, the patient still sitting up in the wheel chair. Finally she was taken to ward 64, where she was put on a bed in the corridor, without pillows. When she asked the nurse for a pillow she was told she would have to wait.

After an hour of lying in the hall she was taken to an examining room and was examined by an interne who, when he finished, left her with bright lights shining directly down on her face.

Is it any wonder the Cook County hospital has a low rating?

AUTUMN ROSES.

Lakeside, Mich., Nov. 1.—In a garden in this town you may find a rose garden blooming sweetly on the first of November—roses, red, yellow, pink, and talisman. Why go to California when, added to the beauty of the roses, you see the flaming maples, the rich brown and wine of the oaks mixed with the green of fir and spruce.

The roses are as large and full as in June and not one has the "last rose of summer" appearance. J. B. H.

DIES COMMITTEE WORK.

Peru, Ind., Nov. 2.—Since congress appropriated $155,000 for the activities of the La Follette civil liberties committee [so called] and only $25,000 for the Dies committee, would it not be worth while to assist in the continuance of this committee work by voluntary donations?

I am just a common American working for wages, but I would be willing to help continue the work of the Dies committee. Just An American.

COAL SALES.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—If I desire to purchase coal from a dealer outside the limits of Chicago:

1. Is it permissible for the dealer to deliver the coal within the city limits without a weighmaster's certificate if I agree to accept the weight as shown on the dealer's invoice?

2. If the purchase of coal is made by the agent for the building from a dealer residing outside the limits and payment is made outside the city limits must a weighmaster's certificate be attached to the dealer's invoice?

3. If the purchaser were a partner in the coal business [although inactive] would delivery be permitted without weighmaster's certificate?

4. If the purchaser were a member of a coöperative society handling sales of coal to its members only, or handling sales of coal to members and nonmembers, would delivery be permitted within the city without weighmaster's certificate?

5. Is there any way an outside city coal dealer may deliver within the city limits without transgressing the law?

6. Is it permissible for several consumers to buy direct from the mines and hire truckers to unload the coal from the car and deliver within the city?

7. Should the outside dealer have his load certified by a city weighmaster and if so what would be the cost and where could it be obtained on far southwest or far northwest side of city?

C. L. S.

1. No. The Chicago ordinance requiring reweighing of coal from outside the city was taken to the Illinois Supreme court, 363 Ill. 125, and to the United States Supreme court, 299 U. S. 387, and was sustained. The ordinance is set forth in full in the U. S. report, or you can obtain a copy at Room 107, City Hall.

2. The ordinance merely requires that the certificate be delivered to the purchaser.

3 and 4. The ordinance is applicable if the coal was "sold in load lots by weight, delivered by . . . truck . . . within the city." It seems probable that your facts are such as to be subject to this wording.

5. We see none.

6. No.

7. Probably not, but the best way to ascertain what the city weighmaster is willing to do is to take the matter up with them.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

MARRIAGE LAW.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Will you please advise if there is any state adjoining Illinois or near Illinois where one can obtain a marriage license and be married immediately afterward?

Under the uniform marriage evasions law, which has been adopted in Illinois, and in several neighboring states, if a party who is under disability in his home state celebrates in a foreign state a marriage prohibited and declared void in the home state, such marriage will be treated as void in the home state despite the general rule that a marriage valid where celebrated is valid everywhere.

In addition, you should bear in mind that the requirement of the health examination has the almost unanimous approval of informed persons; if one of the parties proposes evasion of this salutary requirement, it is a basis for suspicion that such party would not pass the examination.

On these two grounds, we are reluctant to assist in a proposed evasion of the Illinois requirements. If you feel that your facts are exceptional please state them.

PICK HARRINGTON HEAD OF NEW CITY SUBWAY BUREAU

Will Supervise Building of Initial Tubes.

BY WILLIAM BROMAGE.

Philip Harrington.

Philip Harrington, city traction engineer for the last three years, was appointed commissioner of subways and traction by Mayor Kelly yesterday. The action was taken immediately after the city council passed an ordinance creating a new city subway department. The new position will pay $20,000 a year, the same salary Harrington has been receiving as traction engineer.

Harrington's big task for the next two years will be the building of two rapid transit subways on which work is scheduled to begin Dec. 15. The subways are to cost 40 million dollars—financed partly with an 18 million dollar federal grant.

Drew 1937 Unification Plan.

Harrington was the author of the 937 city plan for traction unification, modernization, and subway building. He has represented Mayor Kelly during the last year in negotiations with traction companies for a settlement of the whole traction problem.

He was connected with the Sanitary district engineering department for 29 years before becoming city traction engineer. From 1933 to 1935 he was chief engineer for the district. He directed and supervised design, preparation of contracts, construction and operation of more than 00 million dollars worth of large plants and works.

A large portion of these projects was heavy underground construction, requiring work in hard clay underlying the city, similar to that which will be encountered in bulding the subways.

Engineer and Lawyer.

Harrington was educated in Chicago public schools and was graduated from Armour Institute of Technology in 1906. He is also a graduate of Kent College of Law and was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1916. He is 52 years old.

"Since I was a boy I have read and heard about a subway in Chicago," Harrington said after the council had unanimously approved his appointment. "It is a great honor to be in charge. I will do everything possible to bring honor to the mayor and the council in this undertaking."

The ordinance providing for creation of a subway department gives to the commissioner the same duties with respect to subway construction that the commissioner of public works has in other city improvements.

The new department will build the initial system of subways, prepare plans for the extension of the system and advise with the city council on all traction matters relating to the use of the streets. It also will maintain the subways after they are built and supervise the use of them by the company operating them.

Approve Two other Ordinances.

The city council yesterday passed two other ordinances in connection with the subway project. One of them provides for construction of the subways, replacing an ordinance passed last June. It fixes the routes of the State street and Dearborn street subways and the type of construction to be followed.

The ordinance requires that the lease of the subways must be approved by referendum. It provides for the letting of contracts for the construction and the acquisition of private property where necessary. It orders private utilities to relocate their underground pipe conduits and other lines where they interfere with the subway work.

The third ordinance amends the powers of the commissioner of public works to place all of the authority for subway work in the hands of the new department.

Give Ickes Broad Powers.

The council approved changes in the subway contract with the Public Works administration as requested by Harold L. Ickes, PWA administrator. Ickes, by virtue of this contract, has broad powers over future subway, highway, and traction planning in Chicago.

One of the changes made requires that plans for subway extensions and the widening of Congress street must be satisfactory to Ickes and submitted to him by next July 1.

FIRE DESTROYS GARAGE.

Fire yesterday destroyed a garage at the rear of 1362 Hubbard street. Fire Marshal Joseph J. Graham of the 1st division estimated the loss at $1,000.

FIND SALLY RAND GUILTY IN ATTACK ON CAMERA FANS

Dancer Faces 6 Month Jail Sentence.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Sally Rand, who is usually separated from her public only by a fan or a bubble, today lost a court battle caused by her Amazonian efforts to defend her right of privacy.

A jury of nine women and three men convicted her of assault and battery on two counts. She was charged with attacking a young man and his woman companian who made candid camera shots of her art.

Municipal Judge C. A. Ballreich ordered Sally to appear next Monday for sentence, but her attorney said he would appeal. The maximum penalty facing Miss Rand is a $1,000 fine and six months in jail.

Incident in Theater.

It was in a theater where she was performing last July 12 that Sally suddenly dropped her rôle of dancer and bustled down into an aile to grapple with two in her audience.

In the melée she resorted to her sex's handiest weapons—teeth and fingernails—in attacking Ray Stanford and Miss Hazel Drain, it was charged. Sally finally succeeded in destroying films in a camera the two had used to take closeup pictures of her.

At her trial Prosecutor David Hoffman vigorously objected to what he termed insinuations that Stanford and Miss Drain took their snapshots with anything except the highest motives in mind. Their attempted flight, he said, was merely because they were startled when Sally descended upon them—not by any sense of guilt.

"What would you think," he demanded of the jurors, "if Sally Rand came down toward you in her nightgown?"

The audience blinked a moment, then roared with laughter. Miss Rand blushed prettily and swept her cheek with long eyelashes. Only Defense Attorney Milton Golden made a protest.

The prosecutor closed his rebuttal argument with a dramatic imitation of the fury he pictured Sally as having exhibited in the scuffle. He sank his teeth into the sleeve of Miss Drain's sweater with fervor while watching the jury for appreciation of his act.

Although the jurors decided against Miss Rand on the legal question before them, they indicated she had lost none of her popularity, at least as far as they are concerned.

While Sally stood in a hallway of the courthouse awaiting the verdict, she was invited to attend a luncheon of the jury members which will be held at a hotel here Friday.

"I never turned down a free lunch in my life," the dancer beamed in accepting.

Many Illinois State Banks which were fundamentally sound failed during the disaster of 1932 and 1933 because the State Legislature could not pass emergency laws permitting them time to make adjustments. Our State Constitution, written in 1870, ties the hands of the People's elected representatives. As a result, millions of dollars were lost to depositors and stockholders, and hundreds of communities were left without a bank.

Many of these communities in Chicago and out remain without a bank. The purpose of the proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT is to bring our banking laws up-to-date, to empower the Legislature to act in time to save sound banks, and to make it possible for every community in Chicago and out to have a strong bank.

A. M. A. DEMANDS MEDICAL HEAD AT COUNTY HOSPITAL

Tells Terms for Place on Approved List.

The American Medical association will not restore the Cook county hospital to its approved list of medical institutions until a trained and experienced administrator is appointed for the hospital. This was the substance of a letter received yesterday by Clayton F. Smith, president of the county board, from Dr. William D. Cutter, secretary of the association's council on medical education and hospitals.

The present warden of the hospital is Brig. Gen. Manus McCloskey, a retired army officer. Dr. Cutter urged that the county board immediately appoint a full time assistant warden, who is a physician and has had successful experience in hospital management.

Dropped By Surgeons, Too.

The hospital was removed from the association's approved list last summer. On Oct. 17, the American College of Surgeons also dropped the hospital from its list. Several days later Smith said that he would ask the legislature to remove any doubt that a nonresident of Illinois can be appointed head of the hospital. Gen. McCloskey was named to the post last July after the county board was unable to engage Dr. Benjamin W. Black of Oakland, Cal., an authority on hospital management.

Smith has urged that Gen. McCloskey have a fair opportunity to show what he can do. On Oct. 21 Smith wrote the A. M. A., asking its reasons in full for dropping the hospital from the list.

Dr. Cutter in his letter recalled that the A. M. A. in February, 1935, withdrew its approval from the hospital in so far as training of interns was concerned. In June, 1937, the A. M. A. restored approval until July 1, 1938.

"Meanwhile," Dr. Cutter wrote, "the county board appointed a survey committee, with whose recommendations the A. M. A. council found itself in fullest accord. Of all the recommendations the most important concerned appointment of a trained and experienced hospital administrator. After unsuccessful efforts to secure services of a well qualified hospital director, the appointment was given to Gen. McCloskey.

Describes Legal Difficulty.

"Until such time as the state law governing the position of warden can be amended so as to provide satisfactory tenure and eliminate a residence requirement, it may be this was the best the county board could do.

"However, under these circumstances it must be recognized that it is absolutely essential there be immediately provided a full time assistant to Gen. McCloskey, who is a physician and has had successful experience in hospital management. Until the recommendations of the survey committee have been carried into effect, a reinspection would seem to be unnecessary."

Smith said his questions were not answered by Dr. Cutter's letter.

"I had hoped," he said, "that the A. M. A. would be fair about this matter and outline specific objections—they took their action even before Gen. McCloskey was appointed. If the A. M. A. doesn't cease its medical politics we may abandon our attempt to coöperate.

May Abandon Internships.

"If the A. M. A. won't recognize our interns, we will do away with the interns and use only graduate doctors. It wouldn't cost the county any more and we could make the hospital an even greater institution.

"There are enough graduate doctors from other hospitals who want to come to our hospital and work for a year without pay because of the marvelous training afforded there."

The hospital now has a staf of 105 interns and fifty resident physicians.

RUNS FOR TRAIN, CLINGS TO STEP AND IS KILLED

Edward Everson, 60 years old, of Argyle, Wis., a live stock handler, had to rush last night to catch his train. He had a round trip ticket on the Illinois Central's Hawkeye Limited so he didn't have to stop at the station to buy one. He ran after the train as it was pulling out and jumped for the door—on the wrong side. The door was already closed.

Nevertheless, Everson clung to the train step as the train sped away.

All this is police deduction, but they swear they're right—that Everson caught his train at the last second, clung to the closed door, and held on as the train sped away.

They base their deduction on the fact that as the train crossed the 16th street bridge over Wabash avenue—an outside witness saw this much—Everson was brushed against a trestle. Everson was killed.

INK ON SHANAHAN WILL BECOMES ISSUE IN COURT

The color of the ink used in the will of David E. Shanahan, veteran Illinois legislator, became a matter of importance yesterday. Eugene Kealy, attorney for relatives seeking Shanahan's estate, produced it in court and asserted that Shanahan's signature was in black ink, Miss Mildred Spiering's signature was in blue ink, and the date was in purple ink.

Kealy raised the issue after Miss Spiering, the nurse who says she guided Shanahan's hand, had testified that both signatures and the date were written with the same pen without a change of ink.

The Misses Mary and Margaret Flynn are seeking to show Shanahan's deathbed marriage to Mrs. Helen Troesch Shanahan was invalid. The will, giving her his $850,000 estate, was signed the day of the wedding, Oct. 5, 1936.

NAVY TRANSFERS AN OFFICER FROM BOARD OF SURVEY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—One officer in the navy department's board of inspection and survey has been transferred and the president of the board, Rear Admiral H. L. Brinser, has requested transfer, it was learned today.

This action followed criticism by these officers of many of the navy's newest ships and the overriding of their recommendations for improvements. The board is understood to have reported numerous and often serious defects in many of the new men-of-war. At the same time it was learned that all the bids on new battleships opened at the navy department yesterday might have to be modified materially as the result of long-continued differences of opinion within the department.

Capt. Joseph S. Evans, whose criticism of some of the navy's newest destroyers and cruisers was echoed by a considerable body of opinion in the navy department, was the officer member of the board who already has been transferred. He has been sent to Schenectady, N. Y., to act as inspector of naval material at the General Electric company's plant.

MRS. EDNA BUNGE AWARDED $50,000 DESPITE PROTEST

Judge John F. O'Connell in Probate court, over the protest of the executors, authorized a $50,000 widow's award yesterday to Mrs. Edna Bunge from the estate of Albert J. Bunge. The executors, the First National bank and Herman Kannenberg, contended that a $25,000 ante-nuptial settlement precluded a widow's award. Her attorney, Frank Cantwell, said Mr. Bunge had destroyed the agreement before his death a year ago.

The hearing disclosed that the estate, originally valued at $350,000, is worth $1,000,000. Mr. Bunge, a coal dealer, directed in his will that his widow and his sister, Miss Emma Bunge of 305 South Cuyler avenue, Oak Park, share the income. The estate was to go to the Chicago Community fund after the death of both. Mrs. Bunge, who lives at 422 South Scoville avenue, Oak Park, has decided to take her widow's share of one-half instead of accepting the terms of the will. The fund will nevertheless eventually receive the other half.

Jarecki halted the trial yesterday at the request of defense attorneys to give a defense handwriting expert time to examine the ballots. The trial will be resumed in the County court this morning.

The will, presented by Attorney Ralph Batten, was approved by Judge John F. O'Connell. Maj. Mason died Monday at the age of 98 years. He lived at 525 Roscoe street.

$12,000 SERVICE CHARGE VOTED ON HOUSING PROJECT

The city council yesterday passed an ordinance approving a $12,000 service charge, in lieu of taxes, on the proposed South Park Gardens federal housing project. The project is to be constructed between 37th and 39th streets and South Park Way and Cottage Grove avenue. It will provide space for 1,708 families and cost the government $9,638,000.

Two aldermen, Walter J. Orlikoski [35th] and John A. Massen [48th], voted against the service charge. Orlikoski said, "The housing projects ought to pay the same tax rate that private owners do. The assessor's office shows the area to be covered by the project should pay a tax of $37,000. These people will demand schools and the same police protection others get. They ought to pay for it."

THE RAILROAD PROBLEM IS THE NATION'S PROBLEM

Hastings Plan for Postalizing Transportation Rates

THE RAILROADS are the backbone of the economic life and commerce of the nation; therefore, by equalizing the opportunity for their use by all, regardless of location and distance, we shall create a situation whereunder more railroads, not less, are needed. Based on the foregoing, and considering the nation's economic plight, we are anxious to determine whether or not it is desirable to form a national organization to study and advance the understanding of the plan of postalized railroad rates in the United States, while at the same time bringing to the attention of Congress all possible information upon the matter, with the view to ultimate legislation by that body along the following general lines, or with such modification of the same as may recommend itself through further study of the subject. After five years of intensive private study and research by competent individuals closely allied with American transportation, this advertisement is published in the interest of creating widespread public discussion. This plan can only be advanced by widespread public support and contributions.

1. By the term "Postalizing transportation" we mean elimination of the distance factor in setting rates outside of urban and suburban areas, whereby passenger fares would be fixed at, say $1.00 in coaches for any trip within the time zones of the nation. For example:

$1.00 from New York to Toledo, Ohio, EST Zone;
$1.00 from Toledo to Grand Island, Neb., CST Zone;
$1.00 from Grand Island to Ogden, Utah, MST Zone;
$1.00 from Ogden to the Pacific Coast, PCT Zone;

with appropriate extra charges for Pullman Travel, etc., and whereunder eventually, with due allowance for bulk, freight rates would be based on $1.00 per ton, under substantially the same zoning method.

With this plan in effect, anyone in the United States could, for example, visit either the New York or San Francisco 1939 World's Fairs, or could visit California or Florida, for a railroad fare of from one dollar to maximum of six dollars, regardless of the location of their home, and eventually could market their produce or wares at any point in the United States on relatively the same reduced freight costs.

2. The penny post, or present low uniform rates on first class mail, was originated by Sir Rowland Hill in England just 100 years ago next year, and the same arguments were used against it then that will probably be used against postalized railroad rates now, yet it was adopted, and is perhaps the one uniform thing that the entire world now uses and co-operates in, regardless of race, creed, or trade barriers.

3. Consolidations, less service, and higher fares mean greatly lessened railroad employment, whereas what we need today is increased railroad employment, and under the postalizing plan, when same is fully operative, railroad employment would again reach and exceed its maximum historical period.

4. To pursue the present nationally considered plans of consolidation, and higher fares means reduced volume and the discharge of two to three hundred thousand railroad employees, and a plan whereunder the government will pension these employees out of public funds, the demand for which already greatly exceeds the income.

5. Whether or not postalizing of the railroads would, within itself, make railroad operation profitable is an unanswerable question. It is also of small importance, because there can be no question but that postalized rates in effect on the railroads would pay the nation throughout a long sustained period of time by substantially wiping out involuntary unemployment and greatly increasing the volume of general business through which the government probably would double its income through taxes received on the nation's greatly increased volume of business. At the same time the government would relieve itself of the present seemingly necessary expenditure of from two to three billion dollars every year now caused by direct relief, WPA, PWA, and other public relief expenditures brought about by our great unemployment problem.

The adoption of this plan will enable the people to take care of the government instead of the government taking care of the people, and the budget could be more than balanced.

6. There probably is no one in the United States with the slightest knowledge of economics who will question the fact that with postalized railroad rates in effect there would not be enough heavy goods industry facilities to take care of the demand for increased railroad equipment of all kinds for a great many years to come, and as employment in the heavy goods industry goes, so goes the nation's employment.

7. A study of the graphs covering railroad operation for the past 25 years, showing number of employees, gross receipts from passengers and freight, and freight tonnage, will prove most enlightening (for example, railroad passenger receipts in 1920 were approximately one billion three hundred million dollars, and today they are approximately four hundred million dollars), and give a rather clear concept of the possibilities of increased gross receipts possible through the increased use of the railroads by this postalized plan, particularly when one considers the fact that the railroads' highest figures were established at a time when the nation was much less progressed as to population, manufacturing and agricultural facilities.

8. Postalized rates on the railroads seem to offer a great opportunity for the really more abundant life, based on the constructive theory of more business, more employment, and more payrolls, thus automatically providing for far greater distribution and consumption.

9. The adoption of the postalized rates on railroads contemplates the creating of a railroad authority similar to the New York port authority, whereunder the present interstate commerce commission would, by act of Congress, be changed from a regulatory commission to a nation building railroad authority.

A. The railroad authority would offer to exchange its low interest rate bonds for all present railroad securities at an equitable price, to be agreed upon after thorough study of the subject.

B. Necessary capital for the railroad authority would be provided for by an act of congress, whereunder the railroad authority's securities could be purchased by the investing public, or appropriate government financing agencies.

C. Under this congressional act the installation of postalized passenger fares to be mandatory as fast as they can be put into effect. The application of the postalized plan to freight rates to be permissible, and to be put into effect as, if, and when experience and public demand justifies its adoption. Postalized freight rates to be experimented with by applying them to, say, a certain limited list of agricultural and other widely used and necessary commodities.

10. Railroad operation would continue under private management. The railroad authority would function by contracting with present railroad managements for their operation.

11. The institution of postalized rates might have a certain very destructive effect on long distance bus and motor freight lines, but this destructive effect would be only temporary, as they will gradually find their proper economic place as feeders to the railroads, because, after all, we cannot and should not run a railroad down every highway.

12. I believe it is perfectly logical for anyone to say to himself that if he owned the railroads only, he probably could not afford to contemplate the adoption of the postalized rates, but on the other hand it would be difficult for any man, if he owned the nation and considered the great benefits to the nation from postalized rates, to keep from saying emphatically yes to the plan.

13. A good example in point would be to assume that an individual or corporation owned only the elevators in an office building. Naturally, they could not afford to operate them without a charge that would at least cover all costs, whereas if they own the building they find it very profitable to operate them without charge and spread the cost over the building, which would be like paying any deficit created by postalizing the railroads by spreading it over the benefits received by the nation.

14. The United States is really made up of the equivalent of 48 separate nations with an average population of approximately three million each, among which there is complete free trade and cooperation. Now remove, under the postalized railroad rates, the last barrier, and grant equal transportation rates to all, thereby creating equal opportunity, and we shall all be so busy continuing our job of building the never-to-be completed task of a greater America that we can for many generations to come forget Europe and its "isms".

15. To assume that the American people have reached their maximum standard of living; that gainful private employment has reached its peak; that business volume is never again to expand and grow; or that our national wealth is never to be increased, is to sound the death-knell of our America.

16. For the economic progress of the nation, it is as important to continue to build and expand our railroad facilities and make possible their maximum use by providing equal and uniform rates, regardless of location, as it is to continue the building of our highways, streets, sidewalks and sewers.

17. The plan of postalizing transportation rates is strictly non-partisan as to politics, creed or station in life, and is intended to give equal benefit to all, thereby benefiting all.

TRANSPORTATION OF PEOPLE AND GOODS

as it bears on your individual prosperity right now

This problem is not something that involves merely the XYC railroad, or so many miles of trackage; so many locomotives, or so many pieces of rolling stock.

This problem is a question of the chances to do business at equalized rates of transfer between communities, the matter we hear so much about these days, but always referred to by the old-fashioned label "interstate commerce."

Let's refresh our minds with the proper interpretation of the term "commerce": It is the flow of trade representing the functional arterial action of the business world.

If, as originally in this country, there were no transportation lines, commerce would necessarily be localized to the area an individual might carry his goods, or walk himself.

As the nation's commerce was given the benefit of transportation lines the flow of commerce grew, but strictly as rates and costs permitted. It is still limited by the schedule of rates and costs from here to there.

The flow of the business lifeblood—commerce—is the basic problem of national prosperity.

Through equalized territorial rates, as in the Post Office activities, and as we have equalized space, for instance, with the telephone, would there not be, with such equalization for the railroads, a complete re-invigoration of the present hardened business arteries —commerce—and best of all, the development of new centers of employment in many states and districts now dormant industrially and agriculturally?

In this nation we have been discussing the redistribution of this and that.

Should not all of us now discuss the redistribution of the chances and opportunities to do business and provide employment under equalized rates of transportation?

SLAIN GANGSTER BELIEVED DRIVER OF ASSASSIN CAR

Tie Shooting to Attempt on Courtney's Life.

Police disclosed last night that they believed Walter Leonard, one time alcohol peddler who died yesterday of assassin bullets, was the driver of the automobile from which gunmen fired on State's Attorney Courtney more than three years ago.

Walter Leonard.

"We have always suspected that Leonard was the wheelman in the attempted assassination," said Capt. Daniel Gilbert, Courtney's chief investigator.

The motive for Leonard's own assassination may have grown out of the Courtney episode, police theorized. It was said he may have been using his knowledge of the case to blackmail certain hoodlums.

Shot in Head.

Leonard, 29 years old, was shot in the head with a shotgun in his automobile in Harrison park, Hammond, late Wednesday. He died yesterday in St. Margaret's hospital, Hammond, as detectives were waiting to question him about the Courtney affair.

State's Attorney Courtney and several companions were fired upon March 24, 1935, as they were riding in a car near 71st street and Normal boulevard. Courtney at the time declared the gunmen were members of "the mob." The phrase at that time referred to the remnants of the old Capone gang. Courtney declined to comment as to whether he suspected possible labor union enmities.

Police questioned Leonard in connection with the case, but could not confirm their suspicions that he was the driver of the car. He was regarded then as one of the best drivers, or wheelmen, in gangland.

Supplied with Gang Funds.

Leonard left Chicago to live in Michigan not long afterward. He visited here occasionally. Capt. Gilbert said that Leonard never was alone. His companions were probably bodyguards, Gilbert said.

"He always seemed to be well supplied with money," declared Gilbert. "When he was short, he'd howl for more and get it."

This last remark probably explains the motive for Leonard's death. The theory is that some group, probably that which inspired the attempted murder of Courtney, has been paying Leonard and supporting him out of town. His demands for money—on threat of telling police what he knew—probably angered and frightened his hoodlum employers. His death was ordered.

During prohibition Leonard worked as an alcohol peddler, but not for any particular gang.

Federal agents said he claimed to be operating a system for collecting bad debts.

9 GERMAN MONKS JAILED ON CHARGE OF IMMORALITY

Innsbruck Monastery Is Shut by Nazi Police.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—Nine Serviten monks were arrested at Innsbruck today as Nazi authorities renewed their drive against alleged immorality among monks. Announcement of the arrests said a "great number of other citizens of Innsbruck" were taken into custody.

Joseph Buerckel, commissioner for Austria, in an official statement, said: "Investigation by state police brought to light such immoral conditions in the monastery that it was impossible to divulge them to the public. The monastery is a den of vice of the first order beside which the hostile attitude of monks, which was disclosed by documents recovered in the monastery, fades into the background.

Says Monks Confessed.

"The reich commissioner has ordered immediate closing of the monastery on the basis of the investigation and far-reaching confessions of guilty persons."

Nazi circles in Vienna said they expected that more monasteries will be closed. A special committee has been appointed by Buerckel to investigate all Catholic organizations in reprisal for the sermon delivered by Cardinal Theodore Innitzer on Oct. 7.

[Cardinal Innitzer in the sermon protested against the government's interference with the Catholic church and called upon Catholic youth to maintain its faith in spite of any hardships. Nazis rioted in St. Stephen's square the following night and stormed the cardinal's palace.]

Trials of Catholics Expected.

Elsewhere in Germany Catholic circles anticipated that monks and persons connected with the church who have been held prisoners for many months soon will be brought to trial. About 450 Catholics are believed to be awaiting trial on charges ranging from immorality to violations of Germany's financial laws and anti-Nazi utterances.

New Ban on Jewish Lawyers.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A decree published today will bar all Jewish patent attorneys from practice in Germany after Nov. 30. The order supplements special decrees of Oct. 17, which limited to 175 the number of Jewish attorneys permitted to practice in Germany after Dec. 1. At present 1,600 Jews still practice law, including forty-one Berlin patent attorneys.

CANDIED FRUITS FAVORITES FOR HOLIDAY BOXES

They Are Easy to Make and Delectable.

BY MARY MEADE.

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Candied fruits and fruit peels have a place in holiday boxes of sweets. They may be made now and tucked into glass jars to await the time when they'll be packed, along with the divinity, the homemade, hand-dipped maple creams, the toffee and peanut brittle, into pretty Christmas boxes for gifts.

Candied Orange Peel.

1 cup orange peel, pulp removed
1 cup sugar
½ cup water

Wash oranges and remove peeling in quarters, from stem to bud end. The peel should be thick and unblemished. Place peel in a kettle and cover it with cold water. Bring to a boil, drain, and cover with fresh water. Repeat this process. With the third amount of water, let the peel simmer until it is tender. Cut peel into narrow strips with scissors and measure a cupful. Cook sugar and water in recipe to 230 degrees, drop the peel into the sirup, and cook to 290 degrees. This is the soft crack stage used for butterscotch and taffy. The rind should be clear. Remove fruit peel from the sirup and drop it on a platter sprinkled with granulated sugar. Separate each piece and see that it is well coated with sugar. Let stand until cool and dry. Roll the strips again in sugar. Store in an air-tight jar.

CANDIED GRAPEFRUIT OR LEMON RIND.

Use the preceding recipe, but let the peel stand overnight in cold water to extract some of the bitterness. Then bring to a boil, drain, and add fresh water four times before simmering the peel until tender.

Candied Cranberries.

2 cups sugar
⅔ cup water
3 cups large red cranberries

Cook sugar and water together 5 minutes. Prick each cranberry with a needle several times. Add them to the sirup and cook gently until the berries are clear. Leave in sirup overnight. Drain thoroughly, roll in granulated sugar, and dry out very slowly in an oven at 250 to 275 degrees. Roll again in sugar as they dry, if them seem sticky.

These cranberries are very attractive and delicious morsels for the candy box, and may be used in recipes which call for crystalized cherries.

Any of these candies may be dipped into melted dip-chocolate after they have been drained and dried. It's nice to coat a part of the strips and to roll the rest in sugar.

PEANUT BUTTER VARIES FLAVOR OF CORN STICKS

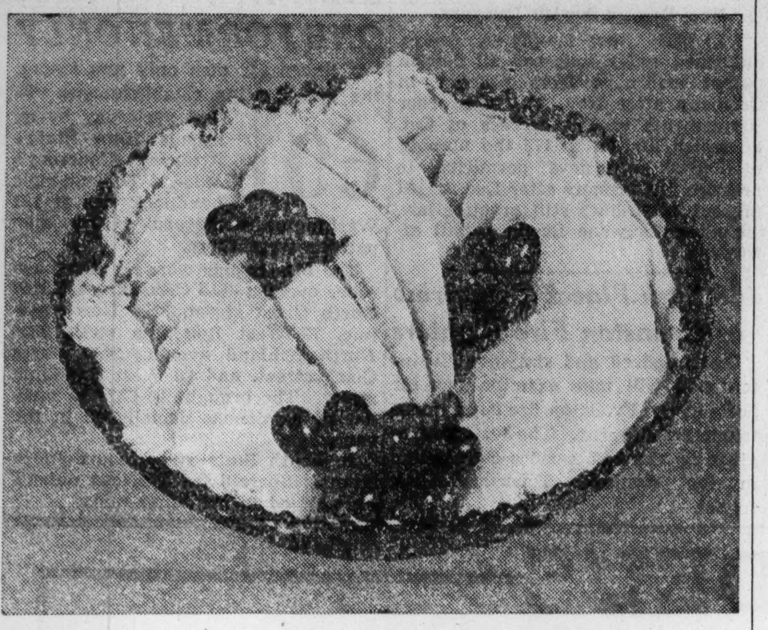
When the wild winds blow it's time to get out the corn stick mold. Corn sticks, johnny cakes, and cornbreads are never righter than with a fall or winter meal. Make them with or without sugar as your taste dictates, but however you make them, try corn sticks some time with peanut butter added to the batter. It's a flavor variety that's as good as it is different.

PEANUT CORN STICKS.

½ cup corn meal
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ cup peanut butter
1 egg, well beaten
¾ cup milk

Sift dry ingredients together. Work in peanut butter as for pie pastry. Combine beaten egg and milk and add to dry ingredients, stirring only enough to mix. Pour into preheated and greased corn stick pans. Top with small pieces of raw bacon and bake in a hot oven [425 degrees] for 15 minutes.

Autumn Salad Bowl



Even now it is possible to have a salad bowl of fresh fruits. Peeled and sliced oranges, sliced banana halves, and broken bunches of tokay grapes make up this salad which is served in a low glass, lettuce lined bowl. Avocados, apples, grapefruit, persimmons, kumquats, and russet pears are other fresh fruits which might go into the salad bowl at this season of the year. Pass a salad dressing with the bowl salad.

CANNING KEEPS NUTMEATS FRESH FOR FAMILY USE

The flavor of nuts comes chiefly from the oils which they contain. When the oils become rancid, as most nut oils do quite readily, nutmeats have a "stale taste."

Keeping the nuts in an airtight container in a cool, dry place, away from light, helps prevent rancidity. If there is a large quantity of nutmeats to be kept, it is best to can them.

To can nuts select fresh, fully formed nutmeats and pack them dry into thoroughly dry, sterilized jars. Half pint jars are most convenient for family use. Place the jars on a rack in a kettle, containing enough boiling water to come up about two inches on the sides of the jars. Cover kettle and boil 30 minutes. Remove jars from boiling water, seal jars tightly, and store in a cool, dark place.

NUTLIKE MUFFINS ARE MADE FROM BREAKFAST FOOD

One of the best ways of serving the breakfast cereal is to make it into muffins. The muffins will have a delicate nutlike flavor and are especially good when they contain fruit.

RAISIN OAT MUFFINS.

⅔ cup seedless raisins
5 tablespoons fat
4 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 egg
1½ cups buttermilk or sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup quick cooking oats
3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder

Rinse raisins in boiling water and drain. Cream fat and sugar together. Stir the well beaten egg into the creamed mixture. Mix soda, oats, flour, salt, and baking powder together and add to creamed mixture alternately with the buttermilk. Add raisins; stil until well blended. Bake in a hot [450 degrees] oven 18 to 20 minutes. Makes about eighteen medium sized muffins.

PRUNE BRAN MUFFINS.

2 tablespoons fat
¼ cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup bran
¾ cup milk
1 cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2½ teaspoons baking powder.

Soak prunes for ten minutes, then pit and chop into small pieces. Cream fat and sugar thoroughly; add egg and beat until creamy. Stir in bran and milk; let soak until moisture is taken up. Sift flour with salt and baking powder and add prunes; add to first mixture and stir only until well mixed. Bake in greased muffin tins in a moderately hot [400 degrees] oven until done, about thirty minutes.

WARM WEATHER CUTS APPETITES AND FOOD PRICES

Garden Products Remain in Bargain Class.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Food prices are being held in check by the unseasonably warm temperatures. A lack of cool weather to sharpen consumers' appetites is resulting in dull business for food merchants. Prices on many foods are staying down because of the generous supply of vegetables coming from gardens and truck farms in the Chicago region.

With the fall season exceptionally late, truck gardeners have been able to leave many of their crops growing in open gardens. These crops are now being harvested and moved into wholesale and retail channels. Home grown products that continue to come to market include beets, carrots, cauliflower, kale, kohlrabi, leaf lettuce, greens, green onions, parsley, parsnips, radishes, spinach, salsify, and turnips. These crops are meeting a large part of the current demand.

Many Items in Bargain Class.

Bargain sales on many items regularly included on the housewive's shopping list will be held in retail centers in the city and suburbs today and tomorrow. On the marked down counters will be found butter, sugar, flour, grapefruit, Idaho baking potatoes, and head lettuce.

In almost every shopping center there are stores offering package butter for 2 cents a pound less and rolled butter for 1½ cents less than last week's prices. From 4 to 14 cents a 4½ pound sack has been taken off the price of flour in many stores. In the sales sugar is offered at 3 cents off on a ten pound bag.

Head lettuce, considered high for many weeks, has now been reduced to a reasonably low price level. Merchants in many cases have reduced their Idaho potatoes as much as 6 cents a peck since last week.

Some Vegetables Vary.

Prices are irregular on a few items in the green grocers' counters. Apples, cabbage, carrots, and green beans are higher in some places and lower in others.

Where sales were held last week merchants have raised their prices on the lower grades of coffee 2 cents a pound, eggs 3 cents a dozen, and lard ½ cents a pound.

Warmer weather pushed the prices of lemons up 3 to 6 cents a dozen. Green onions and radishes are higher here and there.

Some butchers have pot roasts displayed in the bargain cases at as much as 4 cents a pound lower than last week. In the same string of shops frying chicken is on sale at 4 cents a pound less. But they marked rib roasts up 4 to 7 cents a pound.

Round Steak Price Down.

In most other retail meat markets frying and stewing chickens are marked up 1 to 2 cents a pound. These shops also are asking 2 cents a pound more for pork loin roasts. Several shops have reduced their prices on round steak 4 cents a pound, and others have cut their sirloin steaks cents a pound. Many shops raised cured ham 2 cents a pound.

All the price changes on fish are lower. Herring, perch, trout, pike, and whitefish are off in many places.

In Packingtown, official reports show that good and choice fresh beef carcasses are about the same as a week ago. Light pork loins are off $1 to $1.50 a hundred pounds, while the heavier loins are about the same. Dressed lamb is steady to 50 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Steers Hold Fairly Steady.

On the live stock market at Union stockyards good, choice, and prime steers and yearlings are the same as last week. All other grades are unevenly steady to 25 cents a hundred lower. The week's top on cattle—$13.50 — was paid for prime heavy steers. Hogs weighing 160 to 300 pounds are off 5 to 10 cents a hundred, while light hogs are about the same. The top for the week sold at 7.90 a hundred. Fat lambs are 35 to 50 cents a hundred higher with the week's top selling at $8.90 a hundred.

Wholesale fruit and vegetable dealers reported dull trading during the week on the central market, with prices of many items lower than last week. These included green beans, broccoli, carrots, cauliflower, celery, head lettuce, sweet potatoes, grapefruit, oranges, spinach, and green peppers. Lemons were higher.

MACARONI LOAF, QUICKLY MADE, ALMOST A MEAL

If a housewife's tricks-in-trade can be called magic, it's what she pulls out of the oven, not out of her sleeve, that make her reputation. For example, take the meat and macaroni loaf that she can tuck into the oven in short order and bring out 45 minutes later, almost a complete meal.

The macaroni takes the place of potatoes so that all that is needed in addition is a crisp salad, a dessert, and perhaps a vegetable. This may not be a case where the hand is faster than the eye, but it's quick work at any rate.

MACARONI MEAT LOAF.

[Serves six.]

1 8-oz. package macaroni
2 tablespoons butter, melted
½ pound ground smoked ham
½ pound ground veal
1 egg
2 tablespoons cream
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
Salt and pepper

Cook macaroni in plenty of boiling salted water until tender, drain and blanch in cold water. Drain again. Combine meats with unbeaten egg, cream, seasonings, and green pepper, mixing well. Arrange half the meat mixture in bottom of greased loaf pan.

Cover with half the macaroni and sprinkle half the melted butter over macaroni. Top with remaining meat mixture; then macaroni and butter. If desired, sprinkle with ¼ cup grated American cheese. Bake in a moderate [350 degrees] oven for 45 minutes.

THERE IS A WAY TO BAKE A CAKE WITHOUT FLOUR

Bake a cake without flour? Of course you can, and it's delicious too. Finely crushed graham crackers take the place of flour. The cake is baked in two layers and is definitly a "company" cake.

GRAHAM CREAM LAYER CAKE.

½ cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sugar
3 eggs, separated
⅔ cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
25 graham crackers
2½ teaspoons baking powder
1 cup chopped walnut meats
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 pint whipping cream

Cream butter and sugar together well. Add beaten egg yolks, milk and salt and beat well. Crush graham crackers fine with a rolling pin; mix with baking powder. Fold into creamed mixture; then add half the nut meats, and the vanilla. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into two greased 8 inch layer pans and bake in a moderately hot [375 degrees] oven until done, 20 to 25 minutes. Cool. Whip cream and sweeten with sugar, flavor with vanilla. Fill and cover top and sides of cake with whipped cream and sprinkle with remaining nut meats.

"Buffet Suppers and Dutch Lunches," a Mary Meade booklet, will give you many suggestions for informal fall and winter entertaining. The booklet is on sale for 3 cents at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower, or it will be mailed for 5 cents in stamps. Address mail requests to Mary Meade.

A REALLY GOOD BEEF HASH HARD TO BEAT; THIS ONE'S DIFFERENT

In spite of its low-brow reputation, a really good beef hash is a dish that can't be beat. Beef hash needn't always be made with potatoes or tomatoes. It's equally good with plenty of grated cheese and a bit of macaroni.

ITALIAN BEEF HASH.

2 cups cold roast beef, diced
¼ cup macaroni
¾ cup grated cheese
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup meat stock or water
1 teaspoon worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper

Cut cold roast beef into dice. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Place macaroni around sides of a greased baking dish. Fill center with beef. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Brown flour over hot fire in a dry skillet. Add melted butter and blend. Add meat stock, seasonings and worcestershire sauce and cook until thickened. Pour over meat and macaroni and bake in a moderate [350 degrees] oven about 30 minutes.

TRY LIVER LOAF ON THOSE WHO DISLIKE LIVER

Many people who are not especially fond of liver prepared in other ways, place liver loaf among their top favorites. Noodles in the loaf stretch the flavor.

LIVER AND NOODLE LOAF.

1 6 ounce package noodles
3 eggs, beaten
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted butter
1 teaspoon salt
1 onion

Cook liver until tender [or use leftover liver]. Grind or chop fine. Cook noodles until tender in boiling salted water. Beat eggs, add liver, noodles, milk, and butter. Place mixture in buttered ring mold and set in pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven [350 degrees for 45 to 50 minutes. Unmold and serve with creamed carrots and peas in center of ring.

DON'T LET A DUCK GET YOU IN STEW; IT'S EASY TO COOK

Mary Meade's Booklet Tells You How.

If some one should present you with a mudhen or wild ducks tomorrow would you know what to do with them? And do you know how to prepare venison, squirrel, woodchuck, grouse, pheasant, and other wild game?

You'll find all the answers in Mary Meade's new booklet, "How to Cook Wild Game." The booklet is on sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and in the Tribune Tower lobby. Price 3 cents; by postpaid mail, 5 cents.

RECTOR TO DESCRIBE ONE DISH MEAL AND HOW IT SAVES TIME

Most women who cook have a trump in reserve in the one-dish meal. Those who haven't made use of it have two discoveries ahead: [a] it is one of the sanest ways of saving kitchen time and labor [b] it can be a pleasure that will win repeated family encores.

In his column in the woman's section of SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE George Rector, the famous chef, will present recipes for two of the most popular complete-meal dishes served at Rector's café. Both of them, spaghetti milanaise and spaghetti Alfredo, are borrowed from the Italian cuisine; the latter recipe is that developed by Alfredo of Rome.

Tempting and crammed with food value, yet not too heavy as a menu's finale, is chocolate soufflé. Mr. Rector will reveal his recipe for this dessert and for a marshmallow sauce to top it.

PUBLIC OFFICES TO BE CLOSED 2 DAYS NEXT WEEK

Virtually all public offices of the city and county will be closed two days next week because of the election Tuesday and the legal holiday on Armistice day on Friday.

The Circuit, Superior, and Municipal courts will be closed, with the exception of two judges of the Criminal court, who will sit on election day to hear emergency cases. In addition the Superior court will not reopen for the usual half day on Saturday.

The public schools and the board of education office are to be closed Tuesday and Friday. Exceptions in the city and county offices include the police, fire, water pipe, and sewer departments, the coroner's office, and on Tuesday, the state's attorney's and sherif's offices.

A Door Closed Softly

By Alice Campbell

[Copyright, 1938, By Alice Ormond Campbell.]

SYNOPSIS.

David Beddoes, young American and his cousin, Alison Young, going to a party at Lady Wibbe's stumble by mistake into the house next door. While they are talking to the spinsterish woman, who receives them, they hear a woman scream and a body fall. The spinster explains it is a parrot. Young Penelope Wibbe says their strange neighbors have no parrot. But they acquire one next day. David learns his former love, Betsy Greentree, lives in the mysterious house. Betsy's father died after losing his money. While traveling in Europe with her aunt, Fanny Rush, Betsy met and married an Englishman, Geoffrey Scarpath. David sends a letter to Betsy, which is unanswered. He confronts Scarpath, who explains that Betsy is suffering from a chronic nervous condition and can have no visitors, that she is being cared for by his sister Evelyn. David gains a secret interview with Betsy and learns she is miserably unhappy. When the specialist, Dr. Broderick, insists on her taking the medicine, which always makes her feel worse, Betsy grows desperate. Alison's friend, Dr. Colin Ladbroke, leaving her flat one night, finds Betsy unconscious on the threshold. Revived, she explains Penelope helped her escape. Colin plans to have his friend, Dr. MacConochie, examine Betsy, after he learns Dr. Broderick is a drug addict. Betsy refuses to return with Geoffrey to his London flat. Fanny Rush arrives and stays with Geoffrey, whom she greatly admires. She walks in on an innocently gay party at Alison's. Demanding to see her niece alone, she insists on her returning to her husband. When Betsy refuses Fanny storms out, threatening to disinherit her.

INSTALMENT XLI.

MISCARRIED SCHEMES.

Scarpath's smile had congealed.

"Any particular reason for wanting to see a lawyer today?" he said.

"Do I ever do things without reason?" she retorted. "I want a lawyer to remake my will. Now, this instant! What I saw and heard just now in that Bloomsbury pigsty makes any other course impossible."

The mouthful of smoke just inhaled remained imprisoned for fifteen seconds. Very slowly it escaped between lips gone grayish. The face turned on the speaker had in this short interval become sharpened, alert. One would have said the brain behind it, paralyzed for a space, was now stabbing in a number of directions almost simultaneously.

"So you did go," was the regretful comment. "Suppose you tell me what happened? Wait, though! What about a sip of brandy?"

"I've had it." Fanny jerked her head towards a decanter and glass on the small table. "All that's good for me. Yes, mortified as I am, I'll tell you, down to the last disgusting detail."

"Quite." Scarpath drew an armchair near the fire and led her to it. "I take it she refuses to come back?"

Fanny's glazed stare went through him as before.

"This won't mean," she said obliquely, "I intend entirely to overlook you, Geoffrey. It's simply that I cannot and will not let the existing will stand."

"That," he said reticently, "I know nothing at all about. Nor, I imagine, does Elizabeth."

"No reason for either o fyou knowing," declared she. "I've never seen fit to gabble about my affairs. Another whole day before anything can be done!" She raised her arms and shook them. Then a light gleamed in her eye.

"I'll spend it in traveling," she cried triumphantly. "Of course! Why didn't I think of it at once? I'll cross to Paris tomorrow, do the thing comfortably with my own man, Macadam. He drew up the other will, you know—or no, perhaps you don't, but obviously, that's the solution. Will you wire Macadam now and say he's to see me Monday, at 10?"

"Certainly. You've his private address?"

"Rue Auber will reach him."

"Not before Monday," reminded Scarpath. "So we've plenty of time." Quietly he added: "All this frantic agitation can't be good for you, can it?"

She met his glance, and suddenly became rational.

"Geoffrey," she remarked, "I've something else to say to you. Regarding my own health. Can you guess what it is?"

"I can't, my dear. Not bad news, I hope?"

"On the contrary. I said last night, you may remember, that doctors don't know everything. My blood pressure. Would you believe it, all those giddy feelings I was having had quite a simple cause? The English doctor in Singapore made me stop drinking coffee. Since then I've never looked back . . ."

At seven Fanny was changing for the theater. It had eased her immeasurably to pour her whole sordid adventure out, and while it had meant dealing poor Geoffrey a horrid blow it was as though in his sorrow over losing his wife he had drawn yet nearer to herself.

She had always wanted Bob Rush's fortune to go to an exploration fund. "The Robert and Frances Rush Memorial Subsidy for Geographical Research." So long that had been her dream, now realizable, with a clear conscience . . . Maybe when the new will was drawn up she would invite Geoffrey to join her in some pleasant place—Egypt, or Switzerland, since he liked winter sports. . . .

In the drawing room the object of her plans stood before an old Venetian mirror, studying his controled features. Strange, ran his thoughts, that with the whole fabric of life rent asunder one went on looking precisely the same! Cats were like that, of course. Always the same, unchanging masks. Once a woman had shrieked that he had a cat's eyes, a cat's mouth, and a damned cat's mind, that the complete impossibility of knowing what went on inside him was driving her mad. Well, it had its advantages. . . .

He moved from the mirror, and his eye fell on the nearly full decanter. He considered it, then picked it up and carried it into his bathroom. For a second or two water ran in the basin. He returned, rang the bell, and when Lubbock entered was holding the decanter to the light.

"Lubbock," he said softly. "When was this filled?"

The man's eyes widened.

"I never touch the stuff, sir! Why, the smell alone turns me!"

"I know. Wasn't it today?"

"In the morning, sir." Lubbock eyed the almost empty decanter again and muttered that it didn't seem possible.

"Shall I fill it up, sir?" asked he awkwardly.

"No," answered the master shortly. "Not again. You may clear up and go . . . O, and another thing! Mrs. Rush will be wanting tea for her breakfast. Coffee, she tells me, is very dangerous for her."

"I see, sir. The same time will it be?"

"What? O, breakfast! Make it nine sharp. Mrs. Rush will be leaving for Paris."

In the bedroom Geoffrey pulled open the second drawer of a beautiful old transfer-decorated commode—the one that contained socks. Four rows confronted him, ranged from thin silk on the right to heavy ribbed gold stockings on the left. It was the thick sort he examined. Now he closed the drawer and sent his gaze on a tour of exploration.

Finally he walked to the corner niche where shelves were inset under a shell arch, took down a clear crystal ball about the size of an orange and weighed it meditatively in his hand. This, he decided would do. Back he placed it in the exact same spot, and reached for the telephone.

"That you?" he said, low but distinct. "Drop in here later on this evening—say 11:50. . . . Yes, I've a reason. What's that?"—as a querulous protest came over the wire. "O, I think you'll manage it! Don't forget the time. Don't forget the time. Eleven-fifty—not before, and not later."

He hung up, got dressed, and summoned Lubbock.

"You might leave a few sandwiches," he instructed. "Whisky, of course, but no brandy. Lime juice instead." Slowly he added: "I rather believe we may be having a caller late, after the theater. The doctor who came to see Mrs. Rush this morning."

Lubbock glanced quickly up, but Scarpath, not meeting the significant eye, slid into the coat held ready for him. "None of that damned radio," he remarked, winding his white scarf round his throat. "Does that mean our neighbors on the floor below are all out?"

"Gone to the country, sir. Taking their staf."

"O? Well, that's all, I think, except to warn Codmore about packing for Mrs. Rush."

"Very good, sir. Madam's waiting in the drawing room." Lubbock hesitated, tempted to confide that their guest looked surprisingly steady, considering, but his employer's manner checked him. He skimmed through to open the front door.

The couple, old and young, passed out.

SQUASH, BY ANY NAME, PROVES TASTY EATING

Delicious in a Variety of Dishes.

Were the members of the squash family all to be listed in the book, they would take up almost as many pages as the Smiths and Johnsons. What's more, some of them come to market under more than one name. The acorn squash, for instance, is also known as Des Moines squash and is called anchor squash by some authorities.

Whatever its name, squash is delicious. Of all of them, Des Moines or acorn squash lends itself most readily to variety. It is so shaped that it may be cut in half and the seed cavity may then be stuffed with ground meat or vegetables. It may be baked with cream and grated cheese. It even makes a good soup.

Preparation for Baking.

To prepare the squash for baking, wash, cut in two—either crosswise or lengthwise—and remove seeds. Dot pulp with butter. Bake in a 350 to 375 degree [moderate] oven. The squash must be covered with a cloth for the first 30 minutes of baking if a higher temperature of 400 degrees is used. Baking time in a moderate oven is 45 to 60 minutes.

ACORN SQUASH STUFFED WITH APPLES.

[Serves 6.]

3 acorn squash
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons butter
3 cooking apples
2 tablespoons sugar

Wash and split squash lengthwise, remove seeds. Sprinkle insides with salt and pepper and dot with butter. Peel, core, and cut apples in halves and place a half in hollow of each squash. Sprinkle with sugar and place in baking pan. Bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes or until squash is soft. Serve with link sausages.

SPINACH STUFFED ACORN SQUASH.

[Serves 6.]

3 acorn squash
4 slices crisp bacon
3 cups cooked spinach
1 or 2 hard cooked eggs
3 tablespoons bacon drippings

Wash squash and cut in halves crosswise. Remove seeds. Chop bacon and combine with spinach. Season with salt to taste and stuff into hollows of squash. Pour bacon drippings over spinach and bake in 350 degree oven about 45 minutes or until squash is tender. Garnish with slices of hard cooked eggs.

ACORN SQUASH STUFFED WITH SAUSAGE.

[Serves 6.]

3 acorn squash
¾ pound ground sausage meat

Wash and cut squash in halves. Remove seeds. Shape sausage meat into balls and brown in heavy skillet. Place browned meat balls in hollows of squash. Bake in 350 degree oven until squash is done, about 45 minutes.

BAKED ACORN SQUASH WITH CHEESE.

Cut squash in halves lengthwise and remove seeds. Prick pulp well with fork and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Fill each cavity with heavy cream and bake in 350 degree oven for 45 to 60 minutes or until soft. Scrape up squash pulp and mix lightly with cream in the shells. Sprinkle with grated cheese and return to oven for 30 minutes or until cheese is melted.

CREAM OF SQUASH SOUP.

[Serves 4 to 6.]

2 cups cooked acorn squash
2 cups water in which squash was cooked
1 onion, sliced thin
1 carrot, grated
1 bouillon cube
2 tablespoons butter, melted
½ cup celery, minced
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups scalded milk
Salt and pepper to taste

Place squash, water, onion, carrot, and bouillon cube in saucepan and simsimmer 15 to 20 minutes. Rub through sieve. Cook celery for 2 minutes in melted butter. Add flour and blend to smooth paste. Add to strained soup and cook until mixture boils, stirring constantly. Add scalded milk, salt, and pepper to taste.

CITRUS SOUFFLE IS GOOD WINDUP FOR HEAVY MEAL

Any one fond of fruit souffles will enjoy trying one made with grapefruit pulp and orange and lemon juice. Souffles are a light but thoroughly satisfying dessert, just right as the wind-up course for a rather heavy meal.

CITRUS SOUFFLE.

[Serves 6.]

4 tablespoons flour
4 tablespoons butter
1 cup milk
½ cup grapefruit segments
3 tablespoons orange juice
4 egg yolks, well beaten
½ tablespoon vanilla
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Grated rind of ½ orange
½ cup sugar
4 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Melt butter in saucepan, stir in flour to make a smooth paste. Add milk and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Pour over well beaten egg yolks, blending carefully. Cool. Cut grapefruit segment into smaller pieces and combine with fruit juices, vanilla, orange rind, and sugar. Add to the milk sauce. Fold in stiffly beaten whites. Turn into buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven [350 degrees] about one hour.

Here's the Biggest News in Fine Fabric Washing!

EVEN THE FINEST SOAP FLAKES CANNOT OFFER THESE ADVANTAGES:

1. RICH SUDS IN HARDEST WATER ... 5 times more suds than any soap you ever used
2. SUDS THAT NEVER LEAVE "SCUM" ... assuring true color brightness and fabric softness
3. COMPLETELY NON-ALKALINE SUDS ... giving you maximum protection against wash-fading

When a washing suds promises results no soap in the world can give—that's news! Mighty good news for all your washable fine fabrics!

For example ... you know how important plenty of suds are in doing your washables without injurious rubbing. Lady—Dreft makes 5 times more billowy, active suds in hard water than any soap!

And you know that "scum" ... the thing that causes the ring around the basin ... is a constant problem. It buries colors... coarsens silky textures ...often makes stockings, lingerie, prints and woolens look "unwearable" before they're worn out.

But in Dreft—for the first time—you have a suds that actually removes this cloudy film from your washables! Brings back their true brightness and texture! Never leaves any scum—even in hardest water!

And if your complaint is actual fading ... wash-fading caused by alkali ... then all the more reason for using Dreft! Because this great advance in fine-fabric washing for the first time in history offers suds that are completely non-alkaline! That cannot fade silk and wool colors any more than water will!

No wonder Dreft is the biggest news in fine-fabric washing! And no wonder it promises your treasured washables a brighter, long life! Get Dreft at your dealer's today. Procter & Gamble.

A BRIGHTER LIFE FOR STOCKINGS AND LINGERIE
Washing with Dreft removes every trace of color-dulling, texture-coarsening scum. And Dreft dissolves instantly, completely—in any water, at any temperature—leaving no particles to streak and spot fine fabrics!

SWEATERS STAY SOFT when washed this new way, because Dreft never leaves scum to coarsen the delicate wool fibers. And all your woolens can be washed at just the right water temperature to guard against shrinkage and fading!

DIAPERS KEEP MORE ABSORBENT when washed in Dreft, because it leaves no scum—even in hardest water—to cover up their porous mesh. And no scum to coarsen their texture, either ... so baby's diapers stay soft and pliable!

MARVELOUS FOR DISHES, TOO!
Yes—you'll marvel at how Dreft-washed dishes and glasses dry sparkling clean by themselves ... without toweling. And without a trace of stubborn, ugly scum! Being a fine-fabric suds, Dreft, of course, is safe for your hands.

1938 Debut of Santa Claus.

As the appearance of blooming lilacs and iris is being bulletined, Santa Claus makes his first 1938 appearance in the window of a store at 14th and State streets.

And as Scout Jake Erin was truckin' down Rush street he found, back of the Wrigley building—not a little yella basket, but a patch of mint.

Frostbiters.

Frostbiters are now sailing regular races every week in Belmont harbor, their small colored sails a bright note against the gray lake. Getting the races started has been made easier by Tempel Smith's idea of calling time by means of a record and a loud speaker. The loud speaker is installed on the deck of the Chicago Yacht club barge. The race committee announces the course, then puts on the record. First one hears Leeds Mitchell Jr. and Walter Etzebach singing the Frostbiter's theme song. Then time signals are given from three minutes to the starting horn.

Around the Town.

The frog noises when the orchestra stops playing in the Old South room at the Stevens, authentic and nostalgic among the magnolia trees and ivy clad pillars. . . . Hildegarde singing "Elizabeth" at the Colony club. . . . Tiny Judy Starr, recuperating from an operation, being wheeled along the lake shore by her husband, Jack Shirra, bass player with the Kemp band. . . . The policeman on Washington street checking the time of parked cars with his finger on dusty windshields and car windows. . . . Blonde Claire Luce of Mice and Men with a Russian grammar under her arm.

WANTED BY THE POLICE

Joan Winters (Mrs. Frank Bering), NBC radio star, is wearing a brooch made for Empress Josephine and given her by Napoleon, adorned with a relief of Josephine on one side and one of Napoleon on the other. The antique dealer who sold it said that when Bonaparte sent Josephine the pin, she sent it back in a huff. Cracked Frank Bering to his wife, "If it wasn't good enough for Josephine, why do you want it?"

Tribune Is Host to Club Women at 2d Meeting

More than 1,500 clubwomen were guests of THE TRIBUNE yesterday at the second day of its third annual press conference. The women were all presidents, program, and press chairmen of leading clubs in the Chicago area.

Gertrude Lawrence, auburn haired star of "Susan and God," was the only speaker on the program who did not tell the audience about news. She introduced herself as Gertrud Alexandre Dagmar Klassen, half Irish, half Danish, and tried vainly to dispel the glamor of her presence by explaining her job in commonplace terms.

"There is no glamor in any work—fun and joy, yes, but glamor is all in the imagination of others," said Miss Lawrence. "I went on the stage for the same reason I am still on the stage—to earn a living. My only mascot has been hard work."

The second guest of the conference was George Czapliski, baritone of the City Opero company. Mr. Czapliski sang three songs and ended with a ballad in his native tongue, Polish. Frank Bennett, choral director, led community singing.

News and the ways of publicity were described by seven speakers from the Tribune staf. They were India Moffett, society editor; Laurence T. Heron of the Sunday staf of THE TRIBUNE; Marcia Winn, reporter, and four reporters from the Metropolitan section: Mildred Wilds, Juanita Daly, Rita Fitzpatrick, and Irene Steyskal. News was explained by Mrs. Fred Lufkin, press and publicity chairman of the General Federation of Women's clubs. It was described in a pamphlet distributed to each woman in the audience.

It was dramatized, finally, in a four act play written by Betty Browning, club editor of THE TRIBUNE, who presided at the conference. The pitfalls of press chairmen and the frequent anguish of club editors were enacted by members of the Chicago Woman's club players, directed by C. Henry Nathan.

"When your peach tree has its second blooming in October, when your cabbage grows three beards, or your eggs have a double yolk, that is news," said Miss Winn. "When the G. A. R. veteran in your community takes a fifth—or even a second—wife at the age of 89 . . . that is news."

"If your activity is outstanding or worthwhile . . . whether it be cultural or charitable," Mrs. Moffett told the women, "it is news. We want it. Just remember our deadlines, and remember also to send pretty pictures with your story."

The Housewife

The slats of Venetian blinds become soiled in time. There is just nothing you can do about it. In spite of dusting, the grit and dirt will accumulate.

But we can tell you of an excellent cleaner, made especially for Venetian blinds and priced most reasonably. A pint of this liquid will go a long way. It will clean the surface of the slats and then will leave a wax film which will protect them in the future.

This cleaner can also be used on any painted surface as well as on lackered surfaces, and on porcelain. It cleans and polishes at the same time.

EDITH WEIGLE.

Looking at Hollywood by Ed Sullivan

The Observation Post.

Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 3.—At the "Young in Heart" preview at Westwood Village your reporter was one seat removed from one of the most remarkable suction gum chewers that ever operated west of the Rockies. . . . She was using the dental equivalent of an Australian crawl stroke, and she got more mileage and more noise out of her gum than anybody who ever has driven me nutty. . . . Clack, smack, whack. . . . I watched her intently in the light from the screen. . . . The jaws worked smoothly and in tempo. . . . The lips puckered, protruded, retreated. . . . Occasionally she wiped a vagrant moisture from her broad nostrils. . . . Occasionally her tongue flicked out between moist lips, evidently to achieve a lower trajectory.

The program stated that Jack Cosgrove, a Selznick employé, was responsible for the sound effects of "The Young in Heart," but I would vote for this gum chewer who had me writhing uncomfortably in my seat. . . She had more sound effects than Doug Shearer.

At the "Hard to Get" première I drew a nut cracker in the next seat. . . . Perhaps it was because of his bridgework, but I've never heard such a racket as this uncouth citizen raised. . . . He'd crack the nut with emphasis that was staccato and then blow out the shells damply. . . . In between, he rustled the paper bag that held the nuts. . . . Eventually quite a pile of discarded shells were piled up under his feet, and as he moved his shoes there were machine gun explosions from the floor. . . . On the way out his companion said to him: "You love nuts, don't you?" . . . He said, surprisingly, "No, they get in my teeth."

Some day, I will own a theater . . . it will be a very unusual theater . . . no candy will be sold in the lobby, and there will be no vendor of betel nuts or lichee nuts or popcorn. . . . For once in this checkered career I will see a picture without extraneous noises . . . I will not have somebody kicking a tattoo on the seat, chewing gum, or sucking their teeth, or blowing on my thinning hair. . . . It will be an unusual theater to be sure . . . it will have one seat.

Susan Hayward is no longer employed gainfully at Warners'. . . . Bette Davis is still employed there. . . . That is discrimination of the rankest sort, as all that Miss Davis does is act. . . . Miss Hayward is the red headed eyeful you saw last Christmas in all of the papers. . . . A Santa Claus was filling her stocking and she was peeking at him over the transom.

This sounds like a terrific acrobatic feat, but it so happened that her stocking was hanging on a Warner fireplace. . . . You saw her again in your local paper on New Year's eve. . . . Miss Hayward, lithe and willowy, was pictured leaping at you through a 1938 calendar. . . . On Easter you saw her in the roto sections, holding a cluster of lilies. . . . No national holiday happened without the active connivance of Susan Hayward. . . . She was more symbolic of Washington's birthday than George Washington, and when she was photographed chopping down a cherry tree she gave it depth and warmth and sex appeal. . . . I don't remember that she ever gave a bad holiday performance in the rotogravure sections of the country.

Susan is only one of the unsung heroines of the industry. . . . Why rave about Luise Rainer's performance in "Good Earth?" . . . Why not rave about the performance Carole Landis gave? . . . She was demonstrating an evening dress, and I'll never forget the thrilling impact of the caption: "The apron string dinner dress, worn by Carole Landis. This is the butterfly of the apron family. Its apron is of sibilant fuchsia moiré, set on a wide waistband and underneath, whimsically, a sheath of black crêpe."

Miss Landis scored again while demonstrating Schiaparelli's negligee of pink lame, parting to show a mauve panne velvet sheath. . . . She thrilled the country a third time illustrating the hostess coat by Yrande. "Like the other two," said the caption, "this separates to reveal color, in this case a kasha scarf marked off in bright blocks. The coat is of eucalyptus green kasha. Yrande calls it 'Oui ou non.'" . . . Did Carol win an academy mention for these performances? No.

Hollywood's best performances often are given in these still pictures, fashion stills. . . . Florence Rice was never better than in a recent fashion picture in a screen magazine. . . . She is shown stepping along briskly and the caption is this: "Miss Rice is pictured here in a trim terra cotta walking suit of rough wool. The closely fitted jacket is fastened with a zipper. The halter neck of the white silk blouse fits high. Her accessories match her suit."

Toby Wing, Ethelreda Leopold, the Brewster twins, Ila Rhodes, Linja Winter, Jan Holm, and Betty Grable are favorite "still" performers. . . . So, too, is Mary Carlisle. . . . Later on in their careers, as they develop prestige as actresses, they withdraw from posing for holiday illustrations. . . . No longer are they willing to dress as Pilgrims or straddle turkeys or chop down cherry trees or leap through calendars.

But in their early days in the film colony the youngsters accept these photographic chores willingly because it is all part of the buildup process. . . . Without ever appearing in a picture, a good looking youngster can become internationally famous as the result of these publicity pictures. . . . June Travis is better known for her stills than she is for her acting.

The Proctors are on their way to Yosemite National park, where he is to have charge of all outdoor activities this winter. Proctor mountain at Sun Valley, another western winter sports resort, was named for this well known skier.

Other guests at the supper will be eighteen members of the Oriental institute and their wives. Dr. and Mrs. Burrows will show motion pictures taken on their trip to Persia.

19th Century British Strut in Art Exhibit

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

A stunning group of English portraits has been placed on exhibition in the Carson Pirie Scott galleries. Ladies and gentlemen of fashion—the fashion of the last century—are shown in their ruffles and graceful hats, or high collars and waistcoats [as the sex may be] with a charm that time does not dim.

The three finest paintings are the "Countess of Erroll" by Francis Cotes, "George Bell" by Sir Henry Raeburn, and "Mr. Hockcliff" by Thomas Gainsborough.

An exhibition of oils and water colors by Elise Donaldson is on view in the Benedict gallery, Hull house, 800 South Halsted street, to Nov. 16. Several of the paintings are figure compositions which have been shown in Chicago at the Art institute and elsewhere, but the majority of the work is new.

The fifth international exhibition of etching and engraving will open today in the print galleries of the Art institute. Twenty countries will be represented by 194 prints selected by the jury. On the jury were Olivia Paine, assistant curator of prints, Metropolitan museum, New York; Gustaf Dalstrom, painter and etcher of Chicago, and Emil Ganso, Woodstock artist.

Fifteen Chicago artists are represented in the show. Among them are Beatrice S. Levy, Frances Foy, Gustaf Dalstrom, George Jo Mess, Morris Henry Hobbs, N. P. Steinberg, Leon R. Pescheret and Ralph Fletcher Seymour. The exhibition will continue to Jan. 9.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Chauvet of 500 South Elmwood avenue, Oak Park, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elise, to Zoltan William Megyery in Ascension church on Oct. 9. The bride was attended by her sister Mary and the bridegroom by Joseph Buchegger. A wedding breakfast at the Oak Park Arms hotel and a reception at the Chauvet home followed the nuptial mass.

Blossoms measuring 21 inches in diameter and bushes bearing 300 or more flowers will be among the exhibits at the Chicago park district's twenty-seventh annual chrysanthemum show opening next Thursday in the Garfield and Lincoln park conservatories. August Koch, chief horticulturist, said that there would be 775 varieties of chrysanthemums.

Some of these blooms were selected from plants grown in Japan and Europe and about a hundred were developed in park district greenhouses. The exhibits, which are free to the public, will continue through Dec. 4.

McClellan Hess is founder and president.

Winter Coats Being Featured in City's Stores

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Prize winning assortments of luxurious winter coats are not only featured during November, but also boast especially interesting price marks. With winter weather right around the corner, perspicacious shoppers trot to town early to select the best of the showing while the collections are complete.

Winter coats have all kinds of dramatizing possibilities this season. All of them are fashioned to keep the streamlines smooth and slender. Fur is applied with a definite technique; bands accentuate slim lines, cuffs dramatize the sleeves; waistlines serve the nipped-in effect, collars are the last word in snug comfort combined with face framing flattery.

Way out in front are the dull black coats, the best foundation coat for any wardrobe. Fabric textures are feminine, soft, and warm, and therefore easy to wear and pay for. Undistinguished blobs of fur have vanished. Smooth flat pelts are used for trim with emphasis on trim only. Bulk is history. Flexible streamlines, without losing any degree of warmth are noted in every model. Prices are the most interesting news of the year.

Black coats trimmed with rich brown fur are tremendously popular. These go with colored clothes as well as black; also with the gold colored costume accents that are such high fashion in jewelry and suède belts and hats.

Mink is the most favored of brown fur for trim. Some coats have little, some are luxuriously banded around the skirtline. In between are the moderately priced finds with stunning collar and cuffs or biblike plastrons.

Persian lamb trimmed coats provide the best of the all black foundation winter coats. These are amazingly slendering.

Caracul trim, in black, is the third choice of the knowing shopper for practical all purpose wear. Others equally as desirable feature stunning black fabrics with fine furs.

Starts Temple Series.

Rabbi Daskal of Congregation Rodfei Zedek in Hyde Park will inaugurate a series of Friday night services in English tonight. His topic this evening will be "Is the Jew Too Conspicuous in America?" The temple is at Greenwood avenue at 54th place.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1938: By Ely Culbertson.]

LAST FRIDAY'S QUESTION.

Question 15—You are East, defending against a three no trump contract. Your hand and dummy are as follows:

DUMMY
♠A 8 2
♥K 7 3
♦K Q 10 9 6
♣A Q

YOU
♠K 4
♥A Q 10 6 5
♣6 5 3 2

West, your partner, opens the spade jack and dummy plays the deuce. In a few words state your best defense, as you see it. What is your "hope"?

Answer—You should win with spade king and immediately shift to a low heart. Partner's spade jack lead located the spade queen in South's hand, hence there is no hope for additional spade tricks. Your one chance is for West to hold a diamond stopper. Upon taking it he will return a heart through dummy and you may easily be able to run four heart tricks. [For failure to win first trick and shift to the low heart, take 20 pts. dem. If you win first trick and return heart ten, take 8 pts. dem.]

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question 23—The bidding has proceeded:

East	South	West	North
1 diamond	2 spades	Pass	3 spades
Pass	4 spades [final bid]

You are East. West opens the diamond jack. Your hand and dummy are:

"Dear Mr. Culbertson: Quite an argument arose over the bidding of this hand. It was:

South	West	North	East
1 heart	1 spade	3 clubs	3 spades
4 diamonds	4 spades	6 hearts	Pass
Pass	Double [final bid]

"The main argument centered around South's opening bid. I was South and contended that, in accordance with the principle of economy, the bid of one heart was correct. [This would let me bid two diamonds comfortably over a one no trump, two spade, or two club response.] I further contended that North was wrong to bid six hearts with merely three hearts to the queen when I had not rebid the suit, and that his proper rebid was to call five clubs or five diamonds. The hand was set three tricks at six hearts doubled, whereas seven diamonds or six clubs would have been a laydown.

"J. A.—Chicago."

I fully agree with both of South's contentions. The heart bid was the correct opening and North should not have bid six hearts. North's three club bid, by implication at least, announced some heart fit. Hence it would have been logical to support South's other suit, diamonds, over West's four spades. A grand slam could not safely have been reached, but certainly the partnership should have selected clubs or diamonds, rather than hearts, for the small slam contract.

Mother Asking "Intentions" Routs Romance

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

"My mother is one of the strict parents who wants to ask a beau if he intends to keep steady company and how long he intends to keep company before he gets married. Already she crabbed my game with the nicest man I wager I shall ever meet. He was completely bowled over with her question when she advanced on him the second time he came to the house.

"I have begged and pleaded with her to give the boys a chance. That the sort of thing she does isn't done in America. The funny thing is that she was born here and so were her parents, so I don't understand where her old world idea comes from.

"HOPELESS."

"Hopeless," we think you will have to make a confidant of some older woman who is on friendly terms with your mother and get her to intercede for you.

Or maybe you could get around her eventually by not arguing the subject but by using tact in handling her.

For instance, you could assure her that before you entertain serious ideas about a man you will discuss him with her, his family, and everything.

Kiwanis Starts Project in Vocational Guidance

Kiwanis clubs of the United States and Canada yesterday launched vocational guidance programs in 2,000 cities. The plans was outlined before an executive session of 100 district governors and executives of Kiwanis International by C. Berle Newton of Columbus, O. Sessions are being held at the Palmer house. The Newton plan provides opportunities for youths in the communities to counsel with Kiwanian doctors, lawyers, business men, and industrial executives concerning opportunities. Propaganda that discourages youth from taking up farm life will be combated.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

From the notebook:

Three famous—and costly—French perfumes are now within the reach of those of us who must get by on the smallest possible budget. Not that they've been reduced in price. That will probably never come to pass. But they're now out in smaller sizes. You can buy a sixth of an ounce, in a pretty little bottle, at a price that won't break you. These small size bottles are a great help to women who adore really fine perfumes but can't buy the regular large sizes.

One of these, the most famous of the trio, has a distinct note of lavender and plenty else. It's one of the best perfumes on the market today. The others are blends, also beautiful and subtle.

About those feather weight eye pads every one is talking about: Business girls have discovered that these can be used sitting right at their desks if they have any privacy for ten minutes. If the eyes are extremely tired and look it, or if you haven't had as much sleep as you should have, these little white pads, saturated in a remarkable solution that soothes and brightens will serve as a magic pick-up. Every one we know who has tried these simply raves about them.

Have you seen the new makeup for wear with brown? It's very stunning with the right costume color. Rouge and lipstick are a dark red with a definite brown undertone. The eye shadow is a lovely clear blue and there is a nail polish to match the lipstick.

Brown, which is a difficult color for most people, ceases to be a problem when the makeup is right. If you like brown but feel it doesn't like you you might try this.

HAPPY TO SEE YOU AGAIN, GENTLEMEN! —ANY NEWS OF BURMA?
NOT A WORD! THE PAPERS SAID THE HEARSE WAS FOUND ABANDONED IN THE CHINESE SECTION—NO TRACE OF HER!
I WANTED TO TELL YOU I'VE HIRED DETECTIVES TO FIND HER AND ASK HER TO RETURN AND TRY TO BREAK THAT PIRACY CHARGE!
'FRAID THEY'LL FIND LITTLE TRACE OF HER . . .
IF SHE'D JUST ALLOW MY BARRISTER TO PLEAD HER CASE . . . .
NO! SHE'D RUN FROM THAT AS SWIFTLY AS FROM THE POLICE!
BUT I WOULD LIKE SO TO SEE HER NAME CLEARED!
SO WOULD WE . . . . BUT BURMA'S LIKE A WILD BIRD . . . IF SHE WERE CONVICTED SHE'D WITHER AND DIE IN A PRISON! BETTER A BEAUTIFUL HUNTED THING THAN A CRUSHED CAPTIVE IN A CAGE!

John Weicher Is Able Soloist on Stock Program

BY EDWARD BARRY.

Chicago Symphony orchestra patrons heard the first soloist of the season last night when Frederick Stock presented his own concert master, John Weicher, in the first movement of the Joachim violin concerto in D minor.

An old-fashioned work, full of faded but still charming melody and reminiscent in its bravura passages of the grand manner of the 19th century, the concerto received at Mr. Weicher's hands a performance which emphasized its virtues and glossed tactfully over its deficiencies.

The young violinist's remarkable sonority and broadness of style made the tunes of the piece sound eloquent and meaningful. His well developed technique gave to the concerto's more arid stretches an interest which they do not possess in their own right. Much of the concerto is frankly virtuoso music, dependent for its effect on sheer brilliance of execution.

From a purely musical standpoint the most important event of the evening was a first American performance of Karl Höller's "Hymns on Gregorian Melodies." Höller is a 31 year old German composer whose name has never before appeared in the program books of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

These little pieces are triumphs of musical imagination. The composer has taken austere centuries old liturgical sequences and lavished on them the technical skill which the intervening ages have gradually acquired. There is complex polyphony, brilliant orchestral cloudbursts. It would seem to be impossible, under these circumstances, to construct music which would have any unity or artistic validity of its own. Yet Höller has done just this.

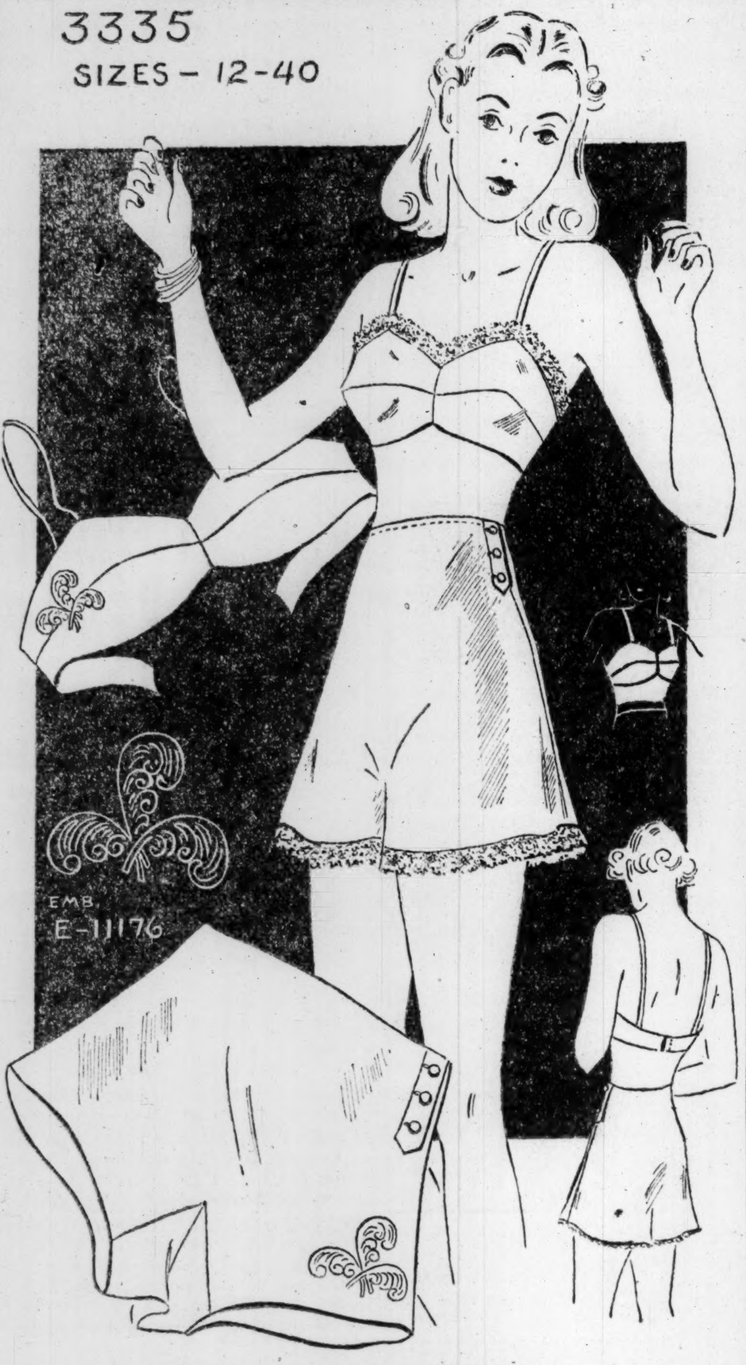
The music retains the modal quality of the sources of its inspiration, and startles the listener again and again with the identity of the medieval modes and the scales which post-1890 composers have grown so inordinately fond of.

The hymns are a virtuoso job of instrumentation as well as of sustained musical thought.

The program opened with the first Corelli Concerto Grosso, included two charmingly naïve movements from Mahler's first symphony, and closed with Strauss' "Till Eulenspiegel."

A black ringed announcement in the program books chronicled the death on Nov. 1 of Arthur Gunther, a member of the trombone section of the orchestra since 1911.

Lingerie Ideal for Gifts



WOMAN'S AND MISS' LINGERIE.

If you're looking ahead to the problem of Christmas gifts, or merely need a new assortment of lingerie yourself, it's high time you were sewing these panties and the brassiere. They're cut for perfect fit and comfort. The "bra" is styled in uplift fashion, to flatter the bustline, and may be left strictly tailored or be trimmed with exquisite lace. The panties are snugly fitted at the waistline and gradually widen to afford plenty of width through the legs. These, too, may be left utterly unadorned or be treated to the lace trimming. If you omit the lace, consider the fashionable possibility of embroidery. We suggest the plume pattern, No. E-11176, as being much in keeping with the current popularity of regal styling. The design is available for ten cents extra.

Pastel and white lingerie crêpe and satin are, of course, the perennially popular selections for this lingerie. You might look into the economy afforded by the remnant counter of your favorite shop.

Style No. 3335 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, and 20 years, and 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, and 40 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 1¼ yards of 39 inch material, with 3 yards of lace.

BY CECIL SMITH.

For the first of seven weekly opera performances offered at reduced prices in coöperation with the board of education, the Chicago City Opera company last night brought Ponchielli's blood curdling melodrama, "La Gioconda," to the Civic Opera house stage.

Essentially a fabrication of artificial, pot boiling tunes pasted together with a rudimentary theater sense, "La Gioconda" demands a sensationally good cast in order not to give away completely its profound artistic poverty. It did not have such a cast last night, and the performance seemed pretty much the fulfillment of a prescribed duty.

The first act moved dully, with poor coördination between the stage and the pit. While the later scenes picked up somewhat, the evening did not take on an air of brilliance.

Both Virgilio Lazzari and Carlo Morelli, however, often rose above mere routine. Mr. Lazzari particularly, in his third act aria, continued into the present the great past of Italian singing. Mr. Morelli also sang commendably, making his rollicking "Pescator" song cheerful, lusty, and forceful.

Miss La Mance had good histrionic feeling, but sang with disturbing vagaries of pitch. Miss Leskaya was effective only when her music lay high.

Mr. Bentonelli, returning with his voice enlarged and steadied, sang virtually without accent or distinguishing mark of interpretation. Richard Schreiber disclosed a velvety voice in the few measures allowed to the cantor.

Lack of space yesterday precluded mention of some valuable contributions to "Die Meistersinger" Wednesday evening. Sonia Sharnova's Magdalena was a model of vocal style and histrionic craftsmanship. The Littlefield ballet fitted nicely into the picture in the dance of the apprentices. The young men making their debuts in minor rôles upheld their share of the ensemble with firm musicianship.

Keep School Child Home at Sign of a Cold

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

"Ka-choo! Ka-choo! Ka-choo!"

"O dear," you think to yourself, "I wonder if Anne has caught cold."

You watch through the morning, but not another sneeze do you hear. Or you watch through the morning and a faint sniffle appears. By bath and bedtime you feel pretty sure Anne has a cold.

And if you're a wise mother, your small Anne stays right in her little bed the next day, and as long as you think she needs to, out of draughts, and resting. This is the only intelligent procedure in the face of a cold, regardless of how much trouble you find it and how it interferes with all you think you must accomplish each day. But this doesn't apply only to little boys and girls.

If mothers with school children would keep them at home when the first cold symptoms appears they would accomplish a twofold good. First, they would be benefiting their own children; and, second, they would reduce the number of colds among other children. In some schools the school nurse takes care of that, or the teacher has instructions to send home any child with sneezes and sniffles.

Rest and an even temperature and a light diet gives nature a chance to fight the germ. Keeping an active child actually undressed and in bed is the only way you can be sure of the first two of these prescriptions being followed.

Here is another point. After the cold is over, if it has been at all bad, don't send your child back to school too soon. Colds "take it out" of any one.

"Diet Suggestions for School Children" is a leaflet sent on request. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope to Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans, The Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Ill.

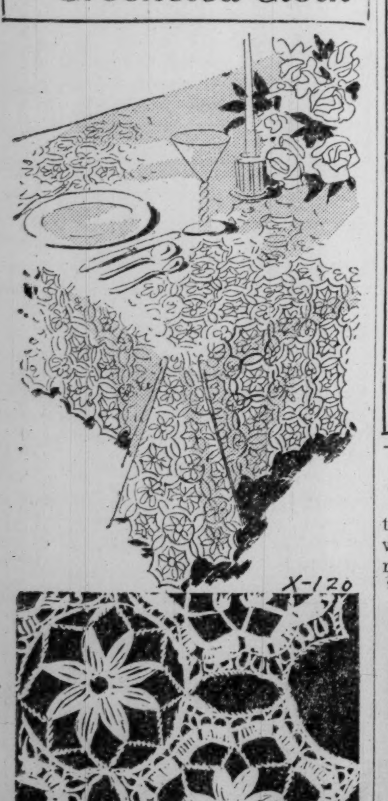
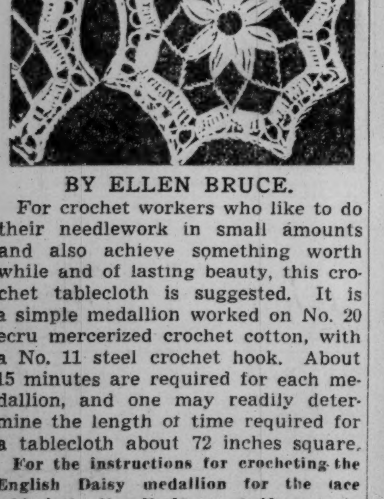
Medallion Is the Simple Motif of Crocheted Cloth





BY ELLEN BRUCE.

For crochet workers who like to do their needlework in small amounts and also achieve something worth while and of lasting beauty, this crochet tablecloth is suggested. It is a simple medallion worked on No. 20 ecru mercerized crochet cotton, with a No. 11 steel crochet hook. About 15 minutes are required for each medallion, and one may readily determine the length of time required for a tablecloth about 72 inches square.

For the instructions for crocheting the English Daisy medallion for the lace tablecloth, No. X-120, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth avenue, New York City.

N. U. STRONG ON ATTACK DESPITE 9 POINT TOTAL

Ranks as One of Best on Offense.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Northwestern has scored only 19 oints in three Western conference ames this fall. To get the proper erspective, however, it must be dded immediately that opponents ave not crossed the Wildcats' goal ne and that Minnesota's field goal the only debit against the North- estern defense.

When the Badgers come to Dyche adium tomorrow to face the undeated Wildcats, Wisconsin will not nirk at that 19 point total. North- estern has tied Ohio State and eaten Minnesota, which were pracically unanimous choices for the Big en championship in September, in ddition to whipping Illinois. Today orthwestern and Michigan must be iven first rank as the best offensive ootball squads in the conference.

It is true that Northwestern has ot scored in proportion to its ground aining superiority. This fact is orry No. 1 for Coach Lynn Waldorf nd his aids who, Wednesday eveing in offensive scrimmage, gave the arsity the ball five yards from the oal line and said, "Put it over."

Weiss Fear No. 2.

The other immediate fear is that owie Weiss, Wisconsin's premier round gainer from his full back poition, will rip the Wildcat line. It night seem that this fear is unwarnted in view of the ineffectiveness f Minnesota's Larry Buhler, a powrful line bucker himself, but it folows in football strategy that any onsistent line threat makes the secndary more vulnerable to forward asses or wide sweeping end runs.

To come back, however, to North- vestern's impressive record on attack n three conference games, the Wildats have made forty-eight first owns. That's reason for rejoicing, ut it also is a demerit in view of he additional information that thiry-two first downs were made against Ohio State and Minnesota and they etted only one touchdown.

What Figures Show.

Opponent—	*F.D.	Y.F.S.	P.A.	P.C.	Y.F.P.
hio State	16	193	19	5	64
llinois ...	16	169	3	1	15
Minnesota.	16	177	15	7	72
Totals ..	48	539	37	13	151

[*F. D.—First downs. Y. F. S.—Yards from crimmage. P. A.—Passes attempted. P. C.—Passes completed. Y. F. P.—Yards from asses.]

	F.D.	Y.F.S.	P.A.	P.C.	Y.F.P.
Ohio State......	6	126	10	3	43
llinois	3	38	16	5	75
Minnesota	7	93	7	3	37
Totals	16	257	33	11	155

Northwestern has gained a total of 690 yards by rushing and passing to opponents' 412 yards. Northwestern has completed 13 passes in 37 attempts. But Northwestern's opponents have completed one-third of their passes [11 in 35 attempts]. All of which indicates that the Wildcats have wasted tremendous effort and that their opponents have done quite well, particularly with passes.

Badgers Are Dangerous.

It does not follow that Wisconsin will offer the same resistance as did Ohio State and Minnesota. But certainly, in view of their own record, the Badgers are more dangerous than was Illinois, and this observation also might include Ohio State.

Statistics seldom prove which team will be superior in any one game. Northwestern for all of its power and passing, can be beaten by Wisconsin although the Wildcats are favored to march one more step along the championship route. The Wildcats will have full strength for this engagement, and if they lose they must blame only themselves.

John Goldak, who injured his back in the Kansas State game, has returned to the squad. He will bolster the right guard position where Hal Method and Fred Heitmann have been operating. Dick Wells and Don Guritz have been left guards since the season opened.

BADGERS PERFECT PASSES.

CENTERS—Jack Murray, John Doyle, Orville Fisher, and Matt Christman.

HALF BACKS—Bill Schmitz, Roy Bellin, Tony Gradisnik, Claude York, John Tennant, and Vince Cibik.

FULL BACKS—Howie Weiss, Karl Schuelke, George Paskvan.

Hartnett Still Would Lure Vaughan from Pirates.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Notice to Harold [Pie] Traynor, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates: Put away your hunting tools and get back to civilization. Gabby Hartnett, who manages the Cubs, is anxious to see you about a possible trade of baseball ivory.

Gabby hasn't announced his anxiety over Traynor's prolonged hideout in the Wisconsin woods or has he publicly admitted that, if possible, he plans to do some business with the Pittsburgh club. However, it is known that Hartnett's first trading effort will be in that direction.

The Pirates, although Traynor apparently is in no hurry, also are looking to Chicago for a swap. So, with both parties willing, the prospects of a deal being consummated eventually are swell.

Have Room for Hitters.

Just what Hartnett wants from Pittsburgh and what the latter will be willing to take from the Cubs isn't known. The Pirates can't surrender a pitcher such as Hartnett could use to advantage. They are looking for that variety themselves. But the Cubs, among other items, have room for a hitter or hitters, and the Pirates might be able to furnish at least one of that baseball breed.

The Pirate employé whom the Cubs want, although they haven't said as much, is Shortstop Arky Vaughan, a tolerably good county fair batsman. The Pirates will attempt to convince the Cubs' manager that Outfielder Paul Waner is the man the Chicago club needs to supply a punch on attack. The difficulty in this connection is that Hartnett probably will keep in mind the fact that "Big Poison" is no longer a youngster. To land Vaughan the Cubs would have to include Shortstop Bill Jurges as well as another player.

Pirates Want Cavarretta.

The Pirate bosses already have confided to their home town newspaper men that one Cub they will ask for in any kind of a proposed swap will be Phil Cavarretta, combination first baseman and outfielder. The Italian kid's hitting hasn't been of much importance the last few seasons, but the Pirates are willing to overlook this defect. The Pittsburgh park has a comparatively short right field wall, and Phil is the type of pull hitter who could get some value out of that sort of a barrier. Cavarretta wasn't included among those not on the block when Hartnett made his post-world series threat of a house cleaning.

The Pirates and the Cubs spent hours at this time a year ago trying to reach a trade agreement, but the former wouldn't surrender on their demand for Outfielder Frank Demaree.

HOW OSWALD BECAME A SOCIAL SUCCESS

Socially, Oswald was a lug. He hovered shyly on the edge of every conversation but never could get his teeth into one. Then one day he bought a Wake of the News book and read it on his way to the club. It did something to him. The boys were talking about the Wake book when he came into the lounge. "Did you read that one by Jazbo?" someone was saying.

Oswald was on familiar ground at last. "Did I?" he burst in confidently "I read 'em all. Listen to this one—" Oswald read brilliantly, his shyness gone. From everywhere in the club they gathered round. He was one of the boys at last. He was a social success.

Now he always likes to remember that day he laid ten cents on the news stand and asked for a copy of the

The Bears Have a Headache; The Reason? A Mr. Isbell

BY GEORGE STRICKLER.

Work in the Chicago Bears' camp yesterday switched from preparing for Don Hutson, the Packers' great end, to getting ready for Cecil Isbell, the former Purdue all-around back, who was named the most valuable player in the All-Star game last August. Coach George Halas of the Bears believes he has done all that can be done in preparing a defense for Hutson in Sunday's game with Green Bay. Now he is interested in stopping Isbell, a triple threat rookie who has been the sensation of the league.

Isbell's success as a professional equals that of Tuffy Leemans and Sammy Baugh, other players who starred in their freshman years. He went from the All-Star game to Green Bay to play a leading rôle in the Packers' offense almost from the instant he broke into the lineup. The Packers' system was an old story to him. He had played the Notre Dame style of attack through high school in Texas and at Purdue. Mastering the variations that Coach Curley Lambeau has devised was only the matter of a few days.

Breaks Him In Gradually.

Convinced of Isbell's ability even before he saw him make a one man show of the All-Star game, Lambeau broke in the big Texan gradually. Isbell sat on the bench throughout the Cleveland game, finally making his debut in the last three plays. He broke up two passes, and on the last play of the game went eleven yards around end. The following week against the Bears he remained on the bench until the second quarter. Lambeau continued to nurse him along until the Brooklyn and Pittsburgh games, the only two he has started.

No effort has been made to call him football's greatest player or to sell him to the public as an all-time great. Lambeau was satisfied to have him make his own reputation as a professional player. Isbell has succeeded admirably. He has been directly responsible for, or a contributing factor in, more than half of Green Bay's touchdowns. His all-around ability has made the Packers' attack more flexible. As a result the Packers lead the league in points scored with 186.

Isbell Has Everything.

"Arnie Herber is just a passer," Halas said yesterday, in warning the Bears what to expect. "Bob Monnett is essentially a runner and a short passer. But this Isbell is a passer, kicker, runner, and a line bucker. You'll never be able to figure out what he's going to do. He is better than the average among the league's pass receivers and if he isn't watched every second, he is as likely to take a 50 yard pass as throw one. Green Bay's attack is three times more potent now than it has been in recent years and the answer is Isbell. The Packers also have taught him to spin, and altogether the Isbell half a dozen clubs passed up in the draft today is twice as good a football player as the fellow we scouted at Purdue."

Coach Halas yesterday announced that 25,000 tickets would be placed on sale at Wrigley field at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and that the game in which the Bears make their do-or-die effort to remain in the National league race would start at 1:30 o'clock.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—Mal Stevens, whose New York university football team hasn't been doing so well of late, received this sarcastic note a few days ago: "Suggest cancellation rest of schedule, substituting Smith, Holyoke, Wellesley, and winding up against the strong Vassar eleven." . . . Bronko Nagurski is called world heavyweight wrestling champion, while Jim Londos claims to be international champion. . . . Those boys are as careless with boundary lines as that man in Berlin. . . . Carnival.

The forest is a pageant of beauty
As autumn steals away,
Yet a thread of sadness is woven
Through the lavish Romany days;
The trees that were green all summer
Have donned their carnival dress,
And each seems to vie with the other
To look lovelier than the rest.
The maples are gay, carefree gypsies
In tatters of yellow and red.
Even the proud oaks are rakish
With crimson wreaths on their heads.
The ashes are regal in purple,
While birches flash bangles of gold,
And the viburnums' magenta pales
By the scarlet dogwood so bold;
The tiniest bush has been glorified
In draperies of russet or wine,
And the slenderest little sapling
Is gowned like a fair Columbine;
The festival soon will be ended
When the north wind starts to blow,
Taking the costumes with it
To be changed into white shrouds of snow.

GATES LEAVES RETREAT, THEN HIDES HIMSELF

Return to Dartmouth Is Expected.

Amherst, N. H., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Harrington K. Gates tonight left his hilltop retreat in the colony of the Legion of God after spending four days in meditation over his resignation from Dartmouth college and the football team on which he starred as a half back.

He was reported to be in the company of former Attorney General Ralph W. Davis of Manchester, who talked with him for two hours on the cult's farm late this afternoon. Davis, a law partner of John R. McLane, attorney of Manchester, a trustee of Dartmouth college, was understood to be acting in behalf of the board of trustees.

Reached by telephone at his home in Manchester late tonight, Davis said he was "not at liberty to divulge anything."

He'll Return to College.

Vernon L. Evans, superintendent of schools of Saugus, Mass., where the 24 year old senior prepared for Dartmouth, tonight informed members of the Gates family in Saugus that the young man had left the colony with Davis. He said Gates, who sought peace here from the "godlessness" of big time football, would return to Dartmouth, but not necessarily tonight.

In the dilapidated farmhouse to which Gates fled from Hanover Sunday afternoon after starring Saturday in the game against Yale in the Bowl at New Haven, Joseph Holland, manager of the cult, curtly refused to reveal the young man's destination.

Closed Incident to College.

Dean Lloyd K. Neidlinger of Dartmouth college at Hanover said the college "knew nothing about any late developments." He said the incident was closed. He added, however, the college had not accepted the resignation which Gates left before his hurried departure from Hanover Sunday.

Meanwhile Gov. Francis P. Murphy made known that he had requested the state police to investigate the religious sect. Two investigators were sent to the farm. The governor wanted to know about the cult, its purposes, beliefs, and manner of living.

NAVY'S GOAT IS SUBJECT OF QUIZ; NAVY THE GOAT?

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—(AP)—The goat mascot of the United States Naval academy became involved today in an investigation by monopoly experts of the justice department.

An unnamed correspondent wrote to the department saying he understood "one man has a monopoly" on supplying the academy with goats. The department, in turn, asked the navy "where the academy gets its goats."

Naval officers passed the inquiry along to the Navy Athletic association.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The world champion Blackhawks and 15,842 popeyed and perspiring hocky fans last night watched Manager Bill Stewart receive the Stanley cup in their behalf. Then they stepped out on the stadium rink and showed the cup was no silly tinware by torturing the New York Americans, 6 to 1.

The Hawks showed the result of their spirited training process by skating and passing the Americans into startled helplessness in the first half of the first period. After that it was a romp, a much easier evening than the daily workouts the boys conducted among themselves twice daily in their Champaign training camp.

This Really Is News.

Six goals in an opener against the Americans! That certainly is something, if your memory is good. Last year the Americans won the opener 3 to 0, then shut the Hawks out in the next two meetings, 4 to 0, and 1 to 0. Later the Hawks settled for a 1 to 1 tie and a 3 to 3 tie before the Americans won the final of the regular season, 2 to 1. Thus, by beating the Americans last night, they did something they were unable to do in six games all last regular season and by making six goals last night they made more scores in one game than they did against the Americans all last regular season. Vast improvement, we calls it.

For at least the first half of last season, the Hawks were aimless and insufficient in strength, skill, and weight. Last night the new battle front appeared to feature all the factors it lacked a year ago.

New Players Fit In.

The new players did more than was expected of them on their own. Moreover, their presence gave Hawk veterans resting opportunities they have not had in past years. Some of the improvements are bound to be permanent.

Cully Dahlstrom, assisted by Hawk newcomers, Russ Blinco and Earl Robinson, scored the season's first goal, in 8:54 of the first period and one minute and one second later Johnny Gottselig, assisted by Joffre Desilets and Dahlstrom, made the count 2 to 0. In the seventeenth minute of the second period Art Wiebe rang up a long one, unassisted, and with 47 seconds remaining in the second period Roger Jenkins, assisted by Paul Thompson, registered the fourth Chicago goal.

Mush Joins the Fun.

The champions' fifth goal was the result of some fine teamwork and de luxe passing which was climaxed by Mush March's goal on assists from Doc Romnes and Thompson, who previously had ganged up with March to carry the rubber the length of the rink. This marker came in 4:59 of the third period.

Baldy Northcott scored the Chicagoans' No. 6 goal in 17:30 of the final period on assists by Blinco and Robinson.

The Crowd Is a Record.

The crowd at the opening of the Hawks' thirteenth campaign was the largest which ever saw a Chicago season launched. The Hawks were checking last night to learn if it is the largest opening night turnout in the history of the league.

Before the game began Gabby Hartnett, manager of the Cubs, presented the Stanley cup to Manager Stewart. Simultaneously the world championship pennant was unfurled over mid-ice. There were no further ceremonies. The Hawks went right about the business of astounding the Americans.

NOTRE DAME ON WAY, BUT TONELLI STAYS AT HOME

Take Five Left Halves to Duel with Navy.

Bob Saggau and Ben Sheridan, left half backs, have a charley horse and a twisted arch, respectively, and, while they will be able to play, Layden took along Harry Stevenson Jr., who is scheduled to start. Jack Sullivan, Chicago junior, and Bill McGannon, Evansville, Ind., junior, are the extras.

Simonich Relieves Tonelli.

Ed Simonich took Tonelli's place with the third team. Joe Thesing, who starred against Army, is slated for the starting full back assignment, with Milt Piepul in the No. 2 slot. The following are making the trip:

GUARDS—Capt. McGoldrick, De Franco, P. Kelly, Bossu, Gubanich, R. Sullivan.

CENTERS—Longhi, McIntyre, Finneran.

QUARTER BACKS—Sitko, Hofer, Crowe, O'Meara.

FULL BACKS—Thesing, Piepul, Simonich.

NAVY'S STAR IS INJURED.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Navy prospects of an upset victory over Notre Dame in Baltimore Saturday received a blow today when Emmett Wood, leading middle ground gainer, went to sick bay with a sacro-iliac sprain.

Wood's back was injured in the Penn game. His injury grew worse in this week's rehersal for Saturday's battle. It was held doubtful that he will get in the game.

Wood has been teamed with Cliff Lenz to furnish most of the Navy drive on the ground. He also is a good pass receiver. Wood ran a kickoff back ninety yards for a score against Virginia.

IOWA NEARS PEAK.

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Nearing the peak for its traditional game with Minnesota in Minneapolis Saturday, a squad of thirty-three University of Iowa football players will entrain tomorrow morning for the north. The squad roster, named after the last practice at home today, was minus the name of Henry Luebcke, giant tackle, whose ankle was injured in the Chicago game three weeks ago.

While Luebcke has reported for practice daily since the injury, he has been unable to participate in scrimmage and heavy drill. Coach Irl Tubbs again limited practice today, the only hard work coming in short tackling and blocking drills.

Coach Tubbs will start the same line which performed against Purdue last week, with Jerry Niles at center and Mike Enich at right tackle. Chuck Brady will be at the other tackle, with Erwin Prasse and Dick Evans at the ends, and Jim Kelley and Bob Allen at the guards. It was believed Tubbs would start both Frank Balazs and Nile Kinnick in the back field, pairing Kinnick with Ray Murphy at the half back positions, and using Russell Busk at quarter back. The squad roster:

ENDS — Evans, Prasse, Norgaard, Pettit, Smith, Hawkins.

TACKLES—Brady, Allen, Enich, Tollefson, Irvine, Tosaw.

GUARDS—Kelley, Snider, Nead, Vergamini, Martin, Conrad.

CENTERS—Niles, Poluga, Andruska.

GOPHERS DRILL INDOORS.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—It was a combination indoor and outdoor practice for the University of Minnesota football squad today as it ended heavy practice for the Dad's day and American Legion game against Iowa Saturday.

Because of rain the Gophers held most of their practice in the fieldhouse, the first time this fall they have been forced indoors. For a time, however, Bierman had the boys splashing around in the mud to acquaint them with conditions that might be in effect Saturday.

Lane Dreams of Title; Faces Sullivan Today

Milton Pergment.

Lane Tech's high scoring eleven, the north side's candidate to win Mayor Kelly's all city charity game in Soldiers' field on Nov. 26, concludes its north section schedule in the Public School league today. The north siders, unbeaten and untied in six games, will meet Sullivan, which won only one of its six contests, in Lane Tech field, Western avenue and Addison street.

Lane's regulars, including Sam Huff, Bus Mertes, and Milton Pergment, fleet backs who led the squad to the sectional championship last week, are expected to see little action against the weak Sullivan eleven. The overwhelming victory over Schurz, 41 to 0, last week gave Lane a place in the semi-final round for the first time since 1934. It will oppose Fenger, south division title holder, next Saturday, probably in Soldiers' field.

Lane Sees Title Just Ahead.

The easy manner in which the champions scored victory after victory in the north section has brought confidence that they will capture the Public School league championship, which would be their first since 1923, and later triumph over the Catholic league title holder in the charity game. In its six games Lane Tech has rolled up 193 points to its opponents' 29.

Harrison Tech and Fenger, which also qualified for the semi-finals last week, end their sectional schedules tomorrow. Harrison will play its final central section contest against DuSable in American Giants' park, 39th street and Wentworth avenue, while Fenger ends its south division schedule against Bowen in Pullman Tech field.

Harrison Faces Crane or Austin.

Harrison's opponent in the semi-final round will be the west section winner, Crane Tech or Austin, which play their final games tomorrow. Crane and Austin are tied for first place, each with four victories and one tie, and if both win their concluding contests a coin will be tossed to decide which team shall represent the section.

Austin, defending sectional and league champion, will oppose Steinmetz in Mills stadium, Lake street and Kilpatrick avenue, and Crane Tech plays Kelvyn Park in Spencer field, 4200 North Central avenue.

If Pitt Can Be Checked It May Be by Carnegie

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Whether the Skibos of Carnegie Tech can stop the rampaging Panthers of Pittsburgh was a question being debated tonight.

Dr. John Bain Sutherland admitted he believed the Engineers have the best chance of any team on the schedule of upsetting his charges at Pitt. In his fourteen years at the helm of the Panthers Sutherland said his team of 1938 is "the gamest bunch I've ever handled." But he added he has been worrying about Tech since the season began.

Coach Bill Kern, who learned a lot of his strategy under Sutherland's tutelage, said he believed Pitt has one of the great teams of all time and pointed to the fact that, except for a tie in 1935, Tech hasn't been able to twist the Panther's tail since 1928.

"All I can say is we will show up Saturday afternoon," Kern added.

BROWN FAVORITE OVER YALE.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Yale will start an eleven containing several second string players against Brown here Saturday, and tonight forecasts indicated a Brown victory, with odds about 5 to 4.

Capt. Bill Platt, a tackle or center; Al Wilson, half back, and Gilbert Humphrey, quarter back, who was sadly out of form from overwork against Dartmouth here last Saturday, almost certainly will not be used. The Yale coaches have begun a policy of rehabilitating the eleven physically for the Princeton and Harvard games which alone remain on the schedule, following the Brown encounter.

A. W. HALE HEADS OFFICERS' TICKET FOR C. D. G. A.

A. W. Hale of Medinah, incumbent president, will head the regular ticket to be presented at the annual meeting of the Chicago District Golf association in the La Salle hotel on Dec. 6. Other officers on the ticket include Maynard G. Fessenden, Bob o' Link, vice president; E. A. Dolan, Park Ridge, treasurer; Elmer A. Eulass, Calumet, secretary; Joe G. Davis, Western Springs, acting secretary, and Walter G. Leininger, Oak Park, ex-officio [board of directors].

Louis, Lewis Put Off Signing for Title Bout

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Joe Louis and John Henry Lewis, who will meet on Jan. 27 in Madison Square Garden in the first all-colored heavyweight championship fight in the United States, today opened the ballyhoo portion of their training with a light workout in the offices of Promoter Mike Jacobs. They will not be called upon for heavy work in this phase of the preparations until Nov. 25, when they will swing pens in signing the official contract in the offices of the New York athletic commission.

Will Get 40 Per Cent.

It was revealed that Louis, who will be defending his heavyweight title for the fifth time, will receive 40 per cent of the gate receipts, which Jacobs opines will approximate $100,000. Lewis, recognized as light heavyweight champion in every state except New York, will take away 17½ per cent. The latter agreed that he will fight five years under Maestro Jacobs' auspices if he should win.

Lewis will have to do some fast verbal sparring when he meets with the commission on Nov. 25, for only recently he threatened to sue that august body when they vacated his regency in New York.

Philadelphia Promoter Indignant.

The light heavyweight titleholder's situation was further embarrassed today by the indignant presence of Herman Taylor, Philadelphia promoter. Herman arrived hollering for $3,300, which sum he claims he advanced Lewis when the latter was training for a fight with Tony Galento of Orange, N. J. That battle never came to pass, Galento contracting pneumonia. Herman finally was given his $3,300, but not until he had regaled all present with a denunciation of Lewis' hazy conception of a gentleman's agreement.

2 BOYS STAND OUT IN C. Y. O. BOXING TRIALS

A light heavyweight and a featherweight—John Mosey and John P. Morgan—emerged as two of the outstanding contestants in the Catholic Youth organization boxing tourney as the concluding matches of the south side preliminary rounds were held last night before another capacity crowd in St. Sabina's gym. Next week sectional competition will switch to the west side, where several hundred entrants will fight in the Madison Athletic club on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The tournament finals will be decided Dec. 9 in the International amphitheater.

Morgan, a fast 126 pounder from St. Thomas Apostle parish, who had won two bouts Wednesday night, advanced to the sectional quarter-finals in last night's matches when he defeated John Ballenger, St. Philip Neri, in three rounds. Mosey, a square shouldered and heavy hitting 175 pounder from St. Symphorosa parish, had little trouble disposing of Nathaniel Robinson, St. Elizabeth's, after one minute of the opening round.

Results:

BRUINS WHIP THE LEAFS IN HOCKY OPENER, 3 TO 2

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 3.—(AP)—The powerful Boston Bruins' defense and offense were coördinated to whip the Toronto Maple Leafs, 3 to 2, in their National Hockey league opener tonight. All three Bruin goals were tallied by defense players as 10,000 looked on.

Jack Crawford, Toronto youngster who replaced Eddie Shore, scored the first goal in the second period. Syl Apps tied the count on a pass from Bob Davidson soon after and the teams were tied going into the final.

Davidson put Toronto ahead in the first minute of the third period but Dit Clapper and Jack Portland scored for Boston.

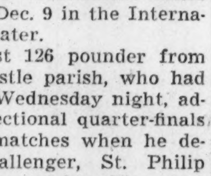
BUY NO ANTI-FREEZE

...until you read these facts about Du Pont "Zerone"*



A FRIENDLY WARNING: You cannot be sure of getting the best value in anti-freeze until you know what Du Pont has to offer in "Zerone."

First, extraordinary anti-freeze protection. Scientific tests prove that "Zerone" would keep water from freezing solid even at 215° below zero. You'll never encounter temperatures like that, so you can be sure "Zerone" used in accordance with directions will protect your car in the coldest weather you'll ever experience.

The materials from which "Zerone" is made are so effective you need comparatively little "Zerone" to achieve protection. That's economy. Properly used, replacements of "Zerone" are little indeed—and that's economy, too.

Furthermore, scientific tests prove that the mixture of "Zerone" and water passes off engine heat better than water alone. That improves engine performance.

"Zerone" in a clean cooling system prevents formation of rust and corrosion—avoids power losses, helps save fuel and oil. Those are the facts, so ask your dealer to protect your radiator with "Zerone" today. It's only $1.00 a gallon. Du Pont, "Zerone" Division, Wilmington, Delaware.

MAROONS' SQUAD OF 32 OFF FOR HARVARD GAME

Team that Faced DePauw to Start Tomorrow.

Declaring that he will start against Harvard the same eleven men who opened against DePauw last Saturday, but offering no predictions except the usual "good fight," Coach Clark Shaughnessy shepherded 32 University of Chicago football players into a train for Boston yesterday. The Chicago squad departed in two private cars at 3:05, and will arrive in Boston at 11:58 this morning.

Most of the Maroons would rather beat Harvard than any team on their schedule, but since the resurgence of the Crimson against Princeton last week Chicago's chances are not bright. Harvard's unfamiliarity with Shaughnessy's unorthodox offense may be the biggest asset of the Maroons.

The Maroon squad, which took a light workout at the Midway yesterday, will drill this afternoon on Harvard's field, then attend a banquet in their honor given by Chicago Alumni in Boston. Following Saturday's game the boys will spend Saturday evening and all day Sunday seeing the historic sites around Boston.

HARVARD ENDS HARD WEEK.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Harvard completed its hardest week of practice this season today with another floodlight drill. Coach Dick Harlow has been driving his squad since the Princeton victory and final preparations for the Chicago game lasted almost three hours.

There was no contact work on the afternoon schedule, but the varsity spent 40 minutes dummy scrimmaging against Chicago razzle-dazzle plays that were demonstrated by the scrubs. The regulars then went through a long drill on the scrimmage machine to polish their own plays and, as darkness fell, tapered off with a signal drill.

Every member of the Crimson squad is fit for action against the Maroon team and Harlow has decided to start his usual lineup against it, Capt. Green and Daughters, ends; Healy and Booth, tackles; Mellen and Glueck, guards; Russell, center; Wilson, quarter back; Foley and MacDonald, half backs; Smith, full back.

COCKER SPANIEL PUPPIES GO ON VIEW TOMORROW

More than seventy-five cocker spaniel puppies, all under 1 year old, will make their debuts in show competition tomorrow night when the Cocker Spaniel Club of the Middle West holds one of its semi-annual puppy matches in the exhibition hall of the Sherman hotel. Robert W. Blakesley of Niles Center will judge the puppies.

The puppy matches are held to foster interest in the cocker spaniel and also to aid breeders and owners in selecting dog show prospects. Cocker owners may enter their pups at the hotel previous to the match. There is an entry fee of 50 cents for each puppy. Spectators will be admitted without charge.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Charley Burley, 152 pound Pittsburgh Negro, knocked out Werther Arcelli, 147, of Boston, tonight in 1 minute 13 seconds of fighting in the first round of their scheduled ten round bout. Arcelli, who failed to land a blow, was down for a seven count before he took the full count.

Fear Michigan Lacks Interest in Penn Game

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Michigan polished its offense and defense for a dangerous Pennsylvania eleven today with an offensive drill featuring passes and a defensive drill emphasizing kicking.

Coach Fritz Crisler repeated to the squad Michigan's vulnerable position in this week's game. The team is unconsciously pointing itself for the important conference game with Northwestern Nov. 12, and consequently it is showing a relative disinterest in the Quakers.

Quarter Back Forest Evashevski reported today with his wrist in a splint. He sprained it in yesterday's scrimmage. Ray Roberts, team trainer, reported Evashevski "would probably" be ready for Saturday's game, although he took no part in today's workouts.

PENN LEAVES.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—The Pennsylvania varsity squad of thirty-four players, led by Capt. Walter Shinn, left tonight for Ann Arbor, where Michigan will be met Saturday in the seventeenth game between the two schools. For more than two hours today Coach George Munger put the three teams through a diversified drill. Passing and kicking were stressed. Penn will practice in the Michigan stadium tomorrow morning and then move on to Ypsilanti.

ILLINOIS USES SOPHOMORES.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Coach Bob Zuppke adhered to a first team lineup that included seven first year players as Illinois scrimmaged for the first time this week against the scarlet sweatered freshmen impersonating Ohio State. Chuck Purvis appeared at left half back on the second team. Bob O'Neill, sophomore end, is back after a layoff since the Notre Dame game and he will be available for the game a week from this Saturday, it is expected.

Ralph Bennett remained at full back with the first stringers, with Ralph Ehni at quarter. Ehni's punting against Michigan put him in line for the kicking assignment, with George Rettinger also available.

Crippled Hoosiers Limp Eastward to Meet Boston

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 3—[Special.] — Indiana's crippled football squad of thirty-three players packed uniforms and crutches today and left for Boston where the Hoosiers will meet Boston college Saturday.

Injuries have caused several shifts in the lineup and it was doubtful if Capt. Paul Graham, quarter back, will start because of a bad cold.

Indiana is seeking its first victory of the season, having lost to Ohio State, Illinois, Kansas State, and Wisconsin, and tied Nebraska. The squad will work out tomorrow in Fenway park, home of the Boston Red Sox, and scene of Saturday's game.

BOSTON CHANGES LINEUP.

Carroll Freshmen Beat Lake Forest Frosh, 7-0

Lake Forest college freshmen were defeated by Carroll frosh 7 to 0 yesterday on Farwell field in Lake Forest. Carroll scored in the first quarter when Gates' punt was blocked, Madritch scooping up the ball and running twenty-five yards for a touchdown.

Purdue Leaves for Ohio; Two Line Men Out

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Two mainstays on the right side of Purdue's line were left behind because of injuries as the Boilermaker squad entrained tonight for the game with Ohio State Saturday.

Both Carl Verplank, guard, and Dick Johnson, tackle, suffering from ankle injuries, were still so disabled that it was impossible to include them on the traveling squad.

Ends—Abbott, Britt, Mackiewicz, Krause, Rankin, Thusby.

Guards—Bremer, Bykowski, Cook, L. Johnson, Maloney, J. Winchell.

Full backs—Dewitt, Ippolito, Juska, F. Winchell.

OHIO TAKES TO AIR.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Ohio State's football team took to the air as a part of its practice today. A session on the ground, with the reserves demonstrating Purdue plays, also was ordered by Coach Francis Schmidt.

Cardinals Move East for Game Against Giants

The Chicago Cardinals, after eight days of hard practices in Wrigley field, will leave for New York this morning, where they play the New York Giants Sunday afternoon in the Polo grounds.

Despite a shortage of active players, Coach Milan Creighton has the squad in top condition. Sunday's game is the last league contest of the season away from home. The Cardinals return to Wrigley field on Nov. 20 to play the Detroit Lions and the following week take on the Rams to end the 1938 schedule.

On Nov. 13 the Cardinals go to Cincinnati, where they play the Cincinnati Bengals in an exhibition game.

RAID NEW YORK RACE TIP SPOTS; 39 ARE SEIZED

New York, Nov. 3. — [Special.] — Twelve squads of city detectives shortly before noon today raided the offices of eleven racetrack tipping services in Manhattan and one in Brooklyn with orders to arrest everyone found on the premises on charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Thirty-nine persons were arrested. The defendants are the same men seized in a similar series of raids conducted on March 23.

De Paul Gives 3 Sophomores Varsity Jobs

Three De Paul sophomores have been promoted to the first team and they will start their first varsity games in the homecoming contest against Catholic university of Washington, D. C., in Wrigley field tomorrow. They are Dick Nee, a full back; John Svienty, a guard, and Dan Henehan, a tackle.

Coach Ben Connor hopes that the insertion of these sophomores will serve as a stimulus to the entire squad, which has lost its last four games. He was especially enthusiastic about the work of Henehan. From Kansas City, Henehan is a husky 190 pounder and he has fit well into the De Paul type of play.

In yesterday's drill Ed Norris scored two touchdowns against the freshmen and he appears in the best condition of his career. The rest of the squad is in good physical shape. Bill Corrigan, who has been handicapped all season with a leg injury, is about recovered.

All of 394 Stalls Reserved for National Horse Show

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Ned King, manager of the National horse show, today said that all of the 394 stalls in the basement of Madison Square Garden have been reserved. The show will open in the Garden Saturday.

The champions are: Jimmy Walthour of the United States, Heinz Vopel of Germany, Torchy Peden of Canada, Marcel Guimbretiere of France, and Gerard Debaets of Belgium. Peden has the best record.

Torchy has won thirty-two six day races, more than any other rider in the world. Vopel has won twenty-three races; Walthour and Guimbretiere have won twelve each, and Debaets, one of the veterans of the game, has won nineteen.

Two of the outstanding riders in the race are youngsters. They are the Italian pair, Cesar Moretti and Alvaro Georgetti.

TURNERS PLAY Y. M. C. A.

The Chicago Turners will meet the Wilson Avenue Y. M. C. A. in the Wilson Avenue gymnasium in a Chicago Volley Ball league match tonight.

MAX MAREK, AT 24, SAYS HE'S HAD ENOUGH FIGHTING

Max Marek, Catholic Youth organization heavyweight, who lost a hard battle to Tony Musto in Park Casino last Wednesday, yesterday announced his retirement from the ring after an eight year campaign, five as amateur. Max, who is 24 years old, won four major amateur championships before turning pro in July, 1935. He emerged with the C. Y. O. middleweight title in 1931, the C. Y. O. light heavyweight crown in 1932, and the National A. A. U. and Golden Gloves 175 pound championships in 1933. He upset Joe Louis to win the National A. A. U. crown.

He engaged in thirty-one pro contests, winning nineteen.

BOLDEN, LOOKING FOR FIGHT, GETS OVERLIN TONIGHT

Hardest Test for Former Golden Glover.

Nate Bolden will face the most important test of his career in a ten round fight with Ken Overlin, contender for the middleweight championship, in White City, 63d street and South Park avenue, tonight.

Bolden, who turned professional after helping Chicago defeat New York, 9 to 7, in the annual intercity Golden Gloves matches in Chicago Stadium March 24 of last year, has had nine pro fights. He scored five victories, fought one draw, and lost three decisions. His best achievement is a five round triumph registered over Tony Zale a year ago.

Overlin has placed himself in line for a meeting with the new 160 pound champion, Solly Krieger, by his fine performances in recent weeks against Billy Celebron, whom he defeated Sept. 19; Jimmy Clark, whom he stopped Oct. 7, and Jack Moran, whom he knocked out Oct. 17.

Verne Patterson, south side fighter, will make his middleweight debut in a five round semi-final against Bob La Monte of the west side. The preliminary card has been revised as follows:

Carl Vinciquerra vs. Gene Thompson [4], heavyweights.
Tony Motisi vs. Alex Pug [4], 148.
George Nyberg vs. Johnny Rock [4], 148.
Frankie Kainrath vs. Sonny Batson [4], 124.

And Weather, Too, Is All Wrong for Ducks.

BY BOB BECKER.

With water conditions along the Illinois river about the worst that duck hunters have seen in years, and warm weather keeping the ducks from doing much flying near blinds, federal wardens operating in the state report that they haven't had much to do on violations in the waterfowl hunting areas. John Martin, United States game management agent with headquarters in Peoria, said yesterday that about the only interesting case he had encountered recently, one that provided a laugh as well as a little work, was the one involving an Illinois family.

The wardens found this family of wife, husband and son having a big duck shoot—with seventy-five live decoys staked out in front of them. This array of feathered broadcasters was within 50 yards of the blinds being used. Inasmuch as the amended federal hunting laws have prohibited the use of live decoys for several years, the wardens believe that some Illinois hunters do not read the newspapers or the government leaflets giving regulations on waterfowl hunting.

Hunters Want Duck Weather.

Considering the warm, butterfly and bumblebee weather which is about the worst thing a duck hunter could get on a trip, and the low water in the Illinois river country which has all the hunters moaning and complaining, it's a wonder that duck hunters haven't been trying to think up a lot of new tricks to get the weather man to give them some duck weather. The Illinois season already is approaching the halfway mark and hunters have had practically no real duck shooting weather.

Those who can find some water over which to shoot are asking for a blow and some weather. But in most of the marshes and sloughs where in former years there were many birds there is little if any water. Blinds made just before the season opened invariably are useless.

Blinds Far Back from Flats.

When we were down the river last week we saw well made blinds sitting far back from mud flats which ought to be covered with water. Naturally the blinds couldn't be used. Lyman Barr, our shooting partner, set the style for our hunt by building a small blind out of willows on a grassy point. We followed suit with a similar blind decorated with tall, dead lotus stalks and leaves. In these we had some concealment and thus were able to shoot birds going over us.

THE WILKEN FAMILY
NONE GENUINE WITHOUT OUR THREE FACES
BLENDED WHISKEY

When they laid the cornerstone Tim Stiles said the wrong thing!
We all counted on him to make a swell speech when they laid the cornerstone. But when it came over Tim we were burying a bottle of Our Family's Whiskey he went all to pieces and everybody snickered. Harry E. Wilken

Our Family's Whiskey is so extra tasty folks are making speeches about it!

There's sure nothing halfhearted about the way folks praise Our Family's Whiskey. I never laid claim to any of the credit for its tastiness. That's Grandpa Wilken's doings and Pa's. It was their years and years of experience in whiskey making that I lay its tastiness to. Of course we keep every batch right up to snuff—and I'll say this much. Folks that knew for certain there couldn't be such an elegant whiskey at a price so reasonable have changed their minds.

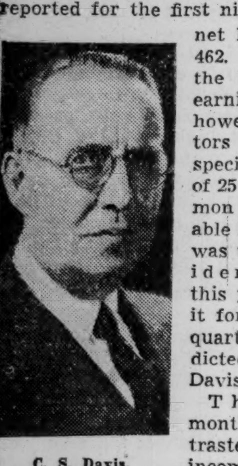
BORG-WARNER LOSS $1,111,462 IN NINE MONTHS

Declares a Dividend of 25 Cents.

Borg-Warner corporation yesterday reported for the first nine months a net loss of $1,111,462. In view of the improved earnings outlook, however, directors declared a special dividend of 25 cents a common share, payable Dec. 15. This was the first dividend declared this year. A profit for the fourth quarter was predicted by C. S. Davis, president.



C. S. Davis.

The nine months' loss contrasted with net income of $5,561,155 in the first nine months of 1937. Indicated net loss in the third quarter of this year was $477,858, compared with net income of $1,256,856 in the third quarter of 1937. On Sept. 30 the company had current assets of $24,428,000, including cash of $8,954,000, against current liabilities of $5,161,000.

Gain in September.

"Although the third quarter statement, like the two preceding quarters, showed a loss, the September operations resulted in a slight profit, and from present indications, the final quarter will show a small profit," Davis said. "Action of directors was prompted by this somewhat improved outlook, and in view of the present financially strong condition of the company. Although we expect a profit in the final quarter of the year, we do not believe that this will be sufficient to offset the loss accumulated in preceding quarters."

Twentieth-Century Fox Film corporation and Scott Paper company reported earnings higher than a year ago. Most other companies showed losses or reduced profits.

Net profit of Twentieth-Century Fox in the quarter ended Sept. 24 was $1,202,433, or 48 cents a common share. The company earned $1,143,410, or 45 cents a share, in the same 1937 period.

Scott Paper Earns More.

Net earnings of Scott Paper in the three months ended Oct. 2 amounted to $363,905, compared with $351,408 in the corresponding 1937 period. It earned $387,213 in the second quarter and $356,414 in the first three months.

For the nine months to Oct 2, net sales rose to $12,145,000 from $10,409,000 in the 1937 nine months, and net earnings increased to $1,107,532 from $965,233. The company announced that its $2,500,000 plant expansion program will be completed early in 1939.

National Tea reported a loss of $444,816 in the sixteen weeks ended Oct. 8, compared with a loss of $846,637 in the like sixteen weeks of 1937. This brought the loss for the first 40 weeks of 1938 to $828,253, against a loss of $837,164 a year earlier. The number of National Tea stores on Oct. 8, 1938, had been reduced to 1,104 from 1,237 a year ago.

Net loss of American Steel Foundries was $543,533 in the September quarter, against net profit of $1,150,484 in the corresponding 1937 quarter. For the first nine months loss was $1,409,728, against profit of $3,562,637 in the first nine months of last year.

General Steel Castings' loss for the quarter was $628,350, against profit of $255,642 in the third quarter of last year. This brought the nine months' loss to $1,247,020, against profit of $343,891 in the 1937 period.

Rail Stocks Keep Market on Upgrade

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Nov. 3.—Strength in rail shares bolstered a faltering stock market today. The Dow-Jones average for the group closed at 32.56, a new high for the year, against a previous high of 32.33, registered last Jan. 10.

Other sections of the list worked higher, absorbing benefit from the strong rail group. Volume was 1,065,100 shares. A total of 349 issues advanced, 250 declined, and 201 closed unchanged.

Forecasts that the weekly car loading report tomorrow would make a better than seasonal showing were considered to be the chief reason for the rise in the rail group.

Several Rail Issues Rise.

Leaders in the rail division were Great Northern preferred, Santa Fe, Delaware and Hudson, Illinois Central, Northern Pacific, New York Central, Pennsylvania and Southern Pacific. Gains for these stocks ranged from 1 to around 2 points. Other firm rails were Union Pacific, Chesapeake and Ohio, and Southern Railway.

The Chrysler dividend action after the market closed yesterday was credited with starting the list off on the right foot. Demand soon dwindled hower, and prices weaved up and down slowly until the rail buying steadied the list.

Steels started strong but lost their vigor by midday. Favorites, including United States Steel, Republic and Youngstown, slipped fractionally. Bethlehem, however, found steady support and gained 1 point to 69¼, new high for the year.

Chrysler Gains Fractionally.

In the motors, Chrysler closed fractionally higher, but General Motors and low-priced issues were sluggish.

Coppers were mostly lower, paced by Anaconda. That stock was the most active of the day and dropped 1⅛ points.

Aviations gave ground on diminished interest.

Allied Chemical was conspicuously soft in the chemical group, dropping nearly three points. Du Pont and Union Carbide worked higher.

Minor fractional changes on both sides prevailed in the heavy machinery group. Merchandising issues held around previous finals.

France Forbids Colonies to Import Foreign Wheat

PARIS, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The ministry of colonies issued a decree today forbidding the importation of foreign wheat into French colonies. A report accompanying the decree in the official journal said this measure would provide a market for about 1,000,000 quintals [around 3,670,000 bushels] of French wheat a year. The proportions of previous imports from the United States and other nations were not disclosed immediately. The measure was described as "temporary."

Rock Island to Operate Streamline Train in South

W. J. Leahy, passenger trafic manager of the Rock Island Lines, yesterday announced that the road will put into operation a new streamline train between Dallas and Fort Worth, Tex., and Kansas City, Mo. The service will begin Nov. 1, with one train operating in each direction daily. The new train is patterned after the Rockets now in service elsewhere on the system.

This City Has Recovered; Not Enough WPA Workers

Millville, N. J., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—The Whitall-Tatum glass factory, closed for five years, has reopened with a force of 900 workmen and a $20,000 a week pay roll. The Millville Board of Trade announced that every plant in the city is operating. So many men have returned to work that there are not enough on WPA rolls to complete its project. The city has a population of about 15,000.

SEC DECIDES TO HOLD UTILITY INTEGRATION PLANS CONFIDENTIAL

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—(AP)—The securities commission disclosed today that it will treat confidentally integration plans filed by public utility holding companies. The commission had asked utility companies to submit by Dec. 1 programs for simplifying their structures financially and geographically.

In a letter to executives of holding companies, William O. Douglas, SEC chairman, said:

"I am writing to advise you and other executives concerned that the commission will treat such [integration] plans confidentially. We will not, without prior consultation with any holding company filing such plans, disclose their details."

It was indicated that the commission's decision to keep plans confidential was made to keep the plans "flexible."

Major engineering construction awards in the week ended yesterday were sharply above the preceding week and more than three times the volume for the corresponding 1937 week, according to the Engineering News-Record. Total awards were $71,013,000, compared with $53,634,000 in the preceding week and $22,427,000 a year ago. The figures follow with comparisons:

Oil Shipments to Japan Nearly Double Year Ago

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—The bureau of mines reported today that California crude oil shipments to Japan in eight months ended with August totaled 17,009,104 barrels, against 9,432,774 a year earlier, and 16,046,869 in all of 1937.

North Shore Line's Trafic Cut by Strike

How severely competition has taken business away from the Chicago and North Shore railway as a result of the long strike of its employés was shown yesterday. The road issued a summary of its business for that period of October in which it operated, compared with the like period of October, 1937.

The strike caused the road to shut down on Aug. 16. Employés refused to take a wage cut. Service was resumed on Oct. 6. Total passenger trafic declined 23.2 per cent from the amount handled in the comparable 1937 period of October, officials of the electric road said. The freight business showed an even larger decline of 39 per cent.

Fewer Passengers Carried.

There was a decline of 31.7 per cent in the number of passengers using the road's limited service between Chicago and Milwaukee. Other interurban business of the road was off 23.4 per cent.

Street and motor bus trafic in Waukegan and North Chicago, and on that part of the line operated in Milwaukee, declined 26.6 per cent.

When service was resumed on Oct. 6 the road restored all trains to operation. However, cars have been taken from the regular trains. This has resulted in a considerable number of the road's employés not being taken back to work.

Passenger Recovery Awaited.

Officials of the road said it will be several days before it can be determined how much of the road's suburban passenger business, as evidenced by the sale of monthly commutation tickets, is recovered from its competitors. Many passengers who formerly used the road changed to the Chicago and North Western or tried other forms of transportation when service was interrupted by the strike.

Since service was resumed the road has shown some progress in regaining business. For the first two weeks after service was started again the decline in total passenger trafic handled averaged approximately 30 per cent.

The company's orders in October, Browning said, exceeded ten million rolls for the second consecutive month. The total was 10,249,841 rolls, compared with an all time peak of more than 12,000,000 in September.

275 COMPANIES' PROFIT 63 PCT. UNDER YEAR AGO

Steel, Auto Groups Slump Most.

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Net profits of the first 275 large companies reporting income for the quarter ended Sept. 30 were 63 per cent less than in the like period last year, a compilation by the Associated Press showed today. Earnings of this representative cross-section of industry totaled $137,163,000, against $369,236,000 in the same quarter a year ago.

Third quarter net profit was slightly larger than in either the first or second periods this year, although substantially smaller than in any quarter of 1935, 1936, or 1937. The corporations earned $393,000,000 in the full nine months, compared with $1,145,000,000 in the first three quarters last year, a slump of 66 per cent.

Steel, Auto Groups Hardest Hit.

Hardest hit were steel and automobile accessory concerns, each group reporting a deficit in place of a substantial 1937 profit. With the change-over period—when motor manufacturers slacken old model production and begin assemblies of the new—falling mostly in the third quarter, profits of seven leading car and truck producers were 94 per cent below 1937.

Food companies were star performers, showing a 19 per cent increase over last year. They were the only important group to report a gain. This was explained as the result largely of reduced costs of operations, due to the drastic slump in raw material prices.

Last year grains were priced at approximately double today's levels. Thus concerns using large quantities of corn or wheat were able to buy their principal raw materials at a large saving.

Earn One-third Less.

Building material firms earned about one-third less in the latest quarter than they did in 1937. The big upswing in residential building in recent months, however, lifted the profit of several companies in this field above the total a year ago. Lagging industrial construction was responsible in large measure for the slow recovery of other concerns.

Heavy industry bore the brunt of the slump. Consumer-goods lines reported much smaller declines in income, averaging about one-third.

The following tabulation shows the number of companies reporting for the third quarter, net profits, and the per cent of loss compared with the like 1937 period:

	No. Cos.	Net income.	% decline.
Food	13	$16,725,000	*19

Sugar Firm Plans Refinery for Chicago

The Industrial Sugars corporation yesterday announced that it has acquired a site and building for a sugar refinery in Chicago. D. V. Wadsworth, chairman of the board of the corporation, said the company will begin production of liquid sugar next spring.

The company will supply liquid sugar to manufacturers of confections, biscuits, ice cream, syrups, and other industrial users, Wadsworth said. The refinery will be the first in the middle west.

Formed by Sugar Interests.

Wadsworth said that Industrial Sugars was organized by interests prominent in the sugar trade. It is a Delaware corporation and has a capital of $750,000.

The company's refinery, it is understood, will be served by water transportation. It will obtain its raw material and coal by water, permitting economies in operation not otherwise possible.

The exact location was not disclosed. Contracts for the property, however, have been closed and engineers have been engaged to instal equipment and make the necessary alterations in the building acquired.

Will Use Modern Equipment.

The company, Wadsworth said, will use the latest type of processing machinery and equipment.

EXCHANGE TO SET CAPITAL RULES FOR SPECIALISTS

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—The New York Stock exchange between now and Jan. 1 will set individual capital requirements for specialists, it was learned today. The committee on floor procedure, which will set the standards, has begun a series of personal interviews with specialists, during the process of which the committee will determine minimum standards for individual brokers.

Only a few of the approximately 200 specialists examined so far by the committee will need additional capital to continue in business after Jan. 1 under the new policy of tightening capital requirements, it was said. It is believed that the tendency will be to freeze out the small specialists.

The minimum requirement is that each specialist be able to own outright at least 100 shares of stock in each of the issues in which he keeps a "book." Another base requirement is that the specialists must have free capital of at least $100,000 exclusive of his membership.

FORD DEALERS TO SHOW 1939 MODELS TODAY

First public showing of the 1939 Ford cars will be made today in dealers' salesrooms. Offered in two lines, the Ford V-8 and the de luxe Ford V-8, the 1939 models are individually styled. Both lines have hydraulic brakes.

The de luxe series has a new streamlining, although both it and the V-8 share a family likeness with the Lincoln-Zephyr and the new Mercury. The de luxe has a deep hood, with lines unbroken by louvres, low radiator grille in bright metal, and wide spaced headlamps set into the fenders. The metal strips in the radiator grille are vertical.

The V-8 has a full radiator grille composed of horizontal metal strips. Headlamps also are recessed into the fenders. In both lines the radiator ornament contains the hood latch and handle.

The de luxe is powered with an 85 horse power V-8 engine, and the V-8 is offered either with the 85 horse power engine or with the economy 60 horse power plant. Wheelbase for both series is 112 inches. The de luxe is available in seven colors and in five body types, and the V-8 comes in three colors and three body types.

Featuring both lines, according to the Ford company, is quietness. This has been obtained through road and laboratory research into the causes and correction of car noises.

BANK CLEARINGS VOLUME ABOVE WEEK, YEAR AGO

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Inclusion of heavy first of month settlements in the last week's bank clearings boosted the total for twenty-two leading cities above those of the preceding week and a year ago, Dun & Bradstreet reported today. The gain over 1937 was caused by the fact that the corresponding week in 1937 contained an election day holiday. Clearings totaled $6,034,543,000, or 13.6 per cent above a year ago.

New York clearings totaled $3,881,585,000, an increase of 22.9 per cent over 1937. The total in the other cities was $2,152,958,000, a fraction of 1 per cent under last year. Chicago's total was $316,800,000, a loss of 3.1 per cent.

Beefsteak Scarcer, but You Can Have Plenty of Chops

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—(AP)—America's supply of beefsteaks will be smaller next year, the agriculture department said today. The reduction will be more than offset by increased production of pork chops, bacon, and hams, it said. More cattle may be produced, but fewer were expected to be slaughtered. Many farmers, it explained, intend to hold a large number of cattle for restocking and herd expansion. Slaughter supplies of hogs next year will be the largest since 1934, it predicted.

EDISON TO SELL 59 MILLIONS OF NEW SECURITIES

Will Refund, Add to Plant Capacity.

The Commonwealth Edison company yesterday announced plans for the sale of an additional $59,300,000 of new securities. Part of the proceeds will be used to finance the construction of additional electric generating capacity. Most of the new borrowing, however, will be undertaken to refund outstanding securities, affording savings in interest cost to the company.

The company filed registration statements with the Securities and Exchange commission in Washington late in the day covering the new issues. They consist of $34,000,000 of first mortgage 3½ per cent bonds, series I, due in 1968, and approximately $25,300,000 of 3½ per cent debentures, due in 1958.

How Bonds Will Be Sold.

The mortgage bonds will be sold privately to seven large insurance companies and the debentures will be offered to stockholders, on a pro rata basis, early in December. The insurance companies will pay 104 and accrued interest for the bonds.

Out of the proceeds of the sale of first mortgage bonds, Edison will pay off the outstanding funded debt of the Super-Power Company of Illinois, amounting to $19,858,000. Super-Power is a wholly owned Edison subsidiary. It is proposed, the announcement said, that the power station and transmission lines of Super-Power be taken over directly by the Edison company.

The remaining proceeds of the $34,000,000 issue will be reserved to help finance the construction of additional generating capacity.

Will Spend 25 Millions.

Chairman James Simpson announced last week that the company would spend $25,000,000 in the next two years for new plant facilities.

The nature and location of the additional generating capacity will not be known until company engineers have completed studies now under way. Chairman Simpson estimates that the company will add 100,000 to 150,000 kilowatts to the generating capacity by the end of 1940.

With the proceeds of the debenture issue the Edison company will pay off the funded debt of the Chicago District Generating company, amounting to $14,950,000, and that of the Illinois Northern Utilities company, amounting to $9,704,000. Both companies are wholly owned by Edison.

Plan Western United Exchange.

Of the $130,000,000 of debentures authorized by stockholders in January, 1937, there will remain unissued about $25,000,000 on completion of the present financing. These debentures, the company says, are tentatively earmarked for the purpose of retiring bonds of the Western United company now outstanding.

Edison stockholders will be entitled to subscribe for the new debentures at the rate of $3.12½ for each share of stock held. The offering will be underwritten by substantially the same group that handled earlier issues.

Since June the Edison company has sold 144 million dollars of bonds and debentures. Its subsidiary, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, has sold 80 millions of bonds.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The bond market today felt the invigorating effects of a good demand for rail loans. This brought numerous advances ranging from fractions to around 3 points in the leaders. Various foreign dollar bonds matched the gains of rails, especially the Italian, Japanese, and German groups.

Resumption of broad demand for carrier liens was an anticipation of developments in the program for government sponsored assistance for the needier roads.

Buying activities in utilities and industrials followed a selective pattern and prices were mixed at the close. New York tractions stretched their recent advance. United States government loans eased 1-32d to 7-32ds on thin bids.

Chicago Stocks.

Chicago stocks moved unevenly yesterday but most changes were fractional. The Tribune average of twenty stocks advanced 0.04 to 11.77.

A majority of volume leaders made small gains. An exception was Commonwealth Edison, which slipped ⅛ to 27. Marshall Field gained ⅛ at 13⅝. Consolidated Biscuit moved up ⅜ to 7. Chicago corporation preferred finished at 34⅛, up ⅛. Rollins Hosiery also was ⅛ higher at 2¼. Belden Manufacturing climbed a full point to 12¼. New high marks for the year were made by Poor & Co. B stock at 14⅞, Quaker Oats at 117, and Associates Investment at 38⅝.

Of the ninety-nine stocks traded, thirty-eight advanced, thirty-one declined, and thirty finished unchanged.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stocks were quiet yesterday. Trading was exceptionally light, dealers reported. The only leading issue to change in price was Harris Trust and Savings bank stock, which closed $2 lower at $318 bid, $325 asked.

RAILS EXPECTED TO WITHDRAW WAGE CUT ORDER

Executives of Carriers Meet Today.

Executives of the major railroads will meet in Chicago today to make a final decision on the 15 per cent reduction in wages scheduled to go into effect Dec. 1.

It is believed likely that the railroads will withdraw the wage cut order. They were urged to do so by the fact finding committee appointed by President Roosevelt which made its report last week. In the opinion of railroad men the committee's recommendations, although without legal force, left the railroads no alternative.

Carrier Group Meets.

The carriers' joint conference committee, which represents the railroads in the wage negotiations, held a preliminary meeting here yesterday. The committee is expected to submit a report to the executives today asking to be relived of further resopnsibility in the wage matter.

Today's meeting was called by John J. Pelley, president of the Association of American railroads. Pelley conferred with President Roosevelt last Monday on the recommendations of the fact finding committee. He was requested by the President to ascertain whether individual railroads would accept the committee's recommendations.

Would Save Quarter Billion.

The proposed wage cut, which would apply to 930,000 workers, would have meant an estimated savings of $250,000,000 a year to the railroads.

The railroads have been given assurance by President Roosevelt that the administration will push a program of "helpful" railroad legislation at the next session of congress.

The railroad association will also hold its regular annual meeting today.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Bob Becker

Husking Time.

November 3, 1938.

BANGBOARDS, husking hooks, horse-drawn wagons rumbling through a cornfield, and loads of newly picked corn on the farm road leading to the new crib—all these unmistakable signs told us it was corn pickin' time when we were on the Tribune's Du Page county farm this week. The clatter and rattle of ears of corn hitting the bangboards on the wagons could be heard as soon as you got near a cornfield.

Babe and Bill, one of the teams of horses used to pull the loads of grain, do not need an evening meal on the days that they work in the cornfields. On the contrary, they should be penalized for cheating, because they certainly have been getting extra rations. When we walked along with Clarence, one of the corn pickers, and tossed a few ears of corn into the wagon, we looked up and saw both Babe and Bill stretching their necks to filch an occasional ear of corn from the stalks before Clarence could get there ahead of them.

Plan for Holidays.

It is almost three weeks until Thanksgiving and more than seven weeks until Christmas, but the men working in the test plots are thinking about both of these celebrations. They are hoping that the parsley growing in the plots will remain green long enough to decorate the farm tables at Thanksgiving dinners. When we walked through the plots the other day we noticed that the parsley was as green as carrot tops in midsummer, but heavy frosts would ruin it for Thanksgiving day use.

The gourds which grew along the fence rows all summer have been put away to be used as Christmas decorations in the farm homes. The gourds are colorful — yellow, green, and orange.

Rosebush in Bloom.

These thoughts about the holidays and winter weather are quite at variance with the behavior of a rosebush growing in the yard of one of the farm workers. This bush has bloomed for the second time this season, a result of the unusually warm autumn. On the farm there is a hickory tree which has its second crop of green leaves for this year, and to complete the picture we found two Queen Anne's lace plants in blossom.

We were surprised to see the blossoms of the Queen Anne's lace along one of the farm roads this week. In every field that we inspected we had found hundreds of the dead stalks of this flowering weed, which in the summer and fall is a farm pest. We thus were quite unprepared for the sight of the fresh white flowers on the living plants at the roadside.

CUT PERSONALTY TAX ON UTILITIES IN COOK COUNTY

Total 1938 Assessment Is 151 Millions.

Assessor John S. Clark yesterday made public the 1938 tangible personal property assessments against public utilities in Cook county. The 1938 total is $150,991,606, or $271,351 under the $151,262,957 assessment Clark made in 1937.

He said the reduction was due to a court ruling that paving between the tracks of street car lines is not assessable as tangible personalty because it is public property. The Illinois Supreme court held that whatever rights the company possessed in connection with the paving were purely intangible.

Assessed for Paving in Past.

Heretofore, the Chicago Surface Lines and the Chicago and West Towns Railways, which serves western suburbs, have been assessed for the paving in their rights of way. The surface lines and West Towns 1938 assessments, because of this change, Clark said, are $2,715,387 below the 1937 total. This more than accounted for the decline in the total for all utilities.

Most of the reduction was offset by increased assessments against other companies, principally the Commonwealth Edison company and the Illinois Bell Telephone company.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

Another decrease in hog receipts caused a stronger trade at the Chicago stockyards yesterday, despite the fact that sales of fresh pork in wholesale channels was slower. Live costs were strong to 5 cents higher than on the preceding session, with spots 10 cents higher in the lightest weights.

Cattle receipts increased unexpectedly yesterday after the Wednesday shortage, and gains that were made on midweek light runs were erased. Most steers and yearlings fell 15 to 25 cents.

Slaughter lambs sold strong to 15 cents higher and at the highest rates since Tuesday, last week.

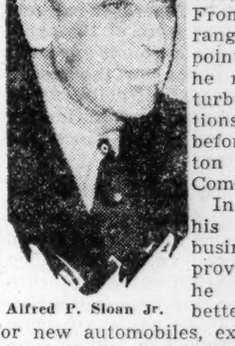
NEARBY OUTLOOK FOR TRADE GOOD, SLOAN ASSERTS

Sees Disturbing Factors in Long Range View.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—The short term economic outlook is definitly improving, Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman of General Motors corporation, said today. From the long range the viewpoint, however, he reported disturbing conditions. He spoke before the Boston Chamber of Commerce.



Alfred P. Sloan Jr.

In support of his belief that business will improve for a time he cited the better demand for new automobiles, expanding employment in that industry, and improvement in general industry.

"If we are satisfied to confine our vision to the limits of an ordinary horizon, we are well on our way again toward good times," he said.

Reports "Serious" Influences.

In the long term outlook, however, Sloan said he saw "serious" factors in the recent business slump, the international crisis, and in the failure of this country to make good progress "despite the most generous national expenditures and the adoption of numerous ambitious experiments." The international crisis, he said, is certain to have a deep effect throughout the world.

"With all the requirements present for sound prosperity, it seems contrary to common sense that millions remain unemployed year after year," Sloan said. "It seems contrary to common sense that under such circumstances a favorable business outlook at the moment should depend upon the size of the government's deficit. It just can't be true that the American economy can only be sustained by consuming national assets."

Friendly Coöperation Needed.

Friendly coöperation is needed between government and those concerned in the management of business and industry to reach an economy of plenty, Sloan declared.

Asserting mutual confidence and respect were the foundation of coöperation, he said "this foundation required an attitude which does not discredit honest achievement or question sincerity of purpose. It requires an open mind and a willingness to consider with respect the experience of others, and the right to express one's opinion without reprisal.

"Such a form of coöperation is essential if we are to capitalize to the fullest extent our resources in terms of a progressive standard of living. It is vital if we are to perpetuate our democratic institutions. It is necessary if we are to inject into our economy the desired element of stability. It becomes more and more essential with the march of too much of the world toward nationalism."

PACIFIC COAST UTILITY PLANS TO CHANGE STOCK

New York, Nov. 3.—[Special.]—The Pacific Public Service company, controled by the Standard Oil Company of California, announced today that it intends to reclassify its outstanding capital stock. Insurance Terms—2.

Alienation—Transfer of property from one person to another. This is important because alienation, or transfer, of property covered by fire insurance voids the insurance.

Beneficiary—The person for whose benefit a policy is issued and to whom the proceeds of the policy are to be paid.

Binder—A document issued by an insurance company to the policy buyer in the event the policy itself is delayed for some reason. The binder, which is really a temporary policy, protects its holder until he receives the actual policy.

Cancellation—Fire insurance policies provide for cancellation at any time by either the holder of the company by giving legal notice.

Catastrophe hazard—Arises where a policy is issued to large group of persons planning to travel together in the same conveyance.

Decrement—In mortality tables used by life insurance companies there is a column showing the number of people dying each year out of the number living at the beginning of the year. This column is the decrement.

WHEAT RECEDES AS RAINS BREAK AUTUMN DROUTH

Big Part of Winter Belt Receives Moisture.

The world's wheat markets declined yesterday as the result of breaking of a record fall drouth in the American winter wheat belt. Official reports said the rains blanketed a large part of Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Wheat prices in American markets declined 1 cent or more at the opening yesterday. For a time it appeared that new low prices for the season would be recorded. All deliveries in Liverpool, Winnipeg, and Rotterdam sold at new low levels since the 1933-'34 crop year.

Some of Early Loss Regained.

Short covering developed on the decline in futures on the Chicago Board of Trade. There was also buying on reports that 640,000 bushels of cash wheat had been sold here to the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation. Closing trades on futures were ⅜ to ½ cent a bushel lower.

Corn and other grains followed the action of wheat. Corn closed ⅛ to ¼ cent lower. At the extreme it sold within ¼ to ⅜ cent of the season's low price.

Foreign Wheat Markets Slump.

Foreign wheat markets were reported yesterday to be in a semi-demoralized condition as the result of liberal offers of grain for shipment from the United States, Canada, and other countries. No demand was said to be in evidence for North American wheat despite the large export subsidy.

Millions of bushels of unsold wheat have arrived at European ports in the last two weeks. Efforts to dispose of the grain have tended to depress the markets abroad. Alleviation of this condition is not expected immediately. Liverpool futures were 1 to 1¾ cents a bushel lower yesterday.

COTTON

Trading in cotton futures was fairly active yesterday. Prices, however, held within narrow limits. There was further liquidation by holders of December contracts. Closing trades were .05 cent lower to .06 cent a pound higher.

The world's available supply of cotton for the 1938-'39 season is the largest on record. Stocks are estimated by the bureau of agricultural economics at 51,400,000 bales. This is about 1,500,000 bales more than in the preceding season, and 11,600,000 bales more than the average supply in the preceding ten years.

About 50 per cent of the world's supply is American grown, according to the bureau. Of this approximately 10,000,000 bales has been pledged to the government for loans.

Spot cotton closed unchanged to .01 cent lower, with New Orleans, 8.74 cents; Houston, 8.63 cents, and Galveston, 8.58 cents a pound. Prices follow:
